Editor's Column

STUART R. PADDOCK

We have become accustomed to receiving invitations to cocktail parties, plane rides, luncheons, press showings and government junkets to various parts of the country, all in the name of public relations.

(We understand Uncle Sam allows such deductions when editors are entertained).

But we had a new one last weekend when the Capital Airlines inaugurated jet flights to St. Paul by entertaining news people with a luncheon including champagne on a 2-hour boat ride along Chicago shoreline. (Our hosts did not try to sell us a thing).

What we started out to say was that we were surprised by the number of officialdom of Capital Air Lines who are our next door neighbors. They reside in Elk Grove Village, Arlington Heights, Palatine, Rolling Meadows and neighboring communities.

Open houses are becoming fast and furious. (We do not know what there is about them to become furious), but Paddock Publications will soon join the procession by holding an open house introducing to the public our new business and executive offices. We question if there will be champagne.

We recall that at an open house held in 1939 heralding the removal of our plant to its present location, we served cider — and the guests seemed to like it.

There is a sea of mud and clay around the Palatine Pleasant Hills school. The same is somewhat true of the Winston Park school. The park district and the school board are being asked to agree on semi-park district operation of the vacant school land. We hope an agreement can be reached.

We visited the 100 South Pine block this week and found there are 45 children of playtime age. They have the choice of using the limited space at the Paddock school or the clay grounds of Pleasant Hills.

When a school superintendent of a neighboring village expressed his admiration for the job that Marion Jordan, Palatine school superintendent, is doing to overcome classroom problems in Palatine and Rolling Meadows, we did a little investigating.

Palatine-Rolling Meadows elementary school system is second only to Park Ridge in size in the northwest area. Its difficulties are mounting.

There are 5600 children registered for September opening. The enrollment is expected to reach 6,000 by next June.

When Mr. Jordan came to Palatine in 1947, there were 600 school children, taught by 20 teachers, housed in one village school and four rural schools. Jordan now has a staff of 250 teachers.

Three building projects, under construction this year, have added 40 classrooms that will open in September.

Three additional schools are in the making for Rolling Meadows. Four additional school sites have either been purchased or have been set aside for school purposes.

A lost child has returned home —"Way Back When."

It reappears this week after an absence of three months. During our building operations, the microfilm file was shoved back in a corner, where in behalf of the Arlington Heights Historical Society, it was resurrected by Mrs. Luella Volz, its new editor.

In welcoming its return to the family fold, we are providing it with special quarters.

Sidewalk Napper

A Chicago man took a nap on a village sidewalk Monday night and received a rather unpleasant awakening.

Benjamin C. White, who gave his address as 7201 S. Stewart, Chicago, was arrested for being intoxicated after Howard Sorenson, 1717 W. Oakton, Arlington Heights reported the man lying on the sidewalk.

MRS. MARTHA KEANE, circulation manager for Paddock Publications, types out a free year's subscription to any of the company's 13 newspapers. The subscription is one of many items to be auctioned off this weekend to provide funds for the Northwest Community hospital. Left to right, Sunny Gregg, 12, of 400 E. Euclid, Laurie Lynch, 13, 618 N. Belmont, and Scott Gregg, 10, auctioneers, planned the fund-raiser, scheduled for Friday afternoon, 1-4 p.m .and Saturday morning, 9 a.m. till noon at the Lynch residence, 618 N. Belmont.

Auction to Aid Hospital

3 Shiny Faces Revive Faith in Juveniles

by DICK HOFFMANN

Activity had ceased and the typewriters stilled. It was the lunch hour, and the boss and I were discussing the alarming increase in juvenile delinquency, the mismanagement attending youthful offenders, and the fact that institutions couldn't solve a problem that required some rehabilitation mechanism.

The prospects for improvement were pretty gloomy, we conceded. Our doomday discussion had just about reached the stage where one feels like abdicating from the human race when three shiny (well, somewhat smudged) faces appeared in the unusually quiet Paddock Publications editorial office.

"We have an announcement to make," said the smallest of the trio, "I'm spokesman because she's chicken," the little girl gestured at her taller companion.

The third member claimed masculine immunity from such preliminary chatter.

DIVING TO the heart of the matter, the spokesman declared: "We're going to have an auction, and the stores and homes we visited have contributed a lot."

(Hmm. The younger generation was quick to adapt to this mundane materialism of their elders.)

(Hmm. The younger generation was being vindicated.)

What prompted such altruism? "Sunny's mother is going to have a baby at the new hospital," was the explanation offered.

HAD SHE already made provisions for accommodations? "Well, we don't know; the baby's due in January," said Sunny, not so "chicken" now.

They kept chipping away at the boss' crusty veneer of cynicism this way. Finally, he jumped up and strode out of the office.

His explanation on returning: "Paddock Publications is giving you a one year's subscription to any of its 13 papers to auction off."

The two young girls and boy could add this to a growing collection of what they confided included hosiery, purses, jewelry, even possibly "an old TV set."

THE SPOKESMAN said that the auction would be held Friday from 1 to 4 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon at 618 N. Belmont st., Arlington Heights. Her name is Laurie Lynch, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lynch, of the above address. Laurie, a student at Miner school, even offered a preview of her role of auctioneer by spieling off the attractions of some office item. (For a minute, I thought one of us would weaken and buy it.)

"Sunny" is Sunny Gregg, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gregg, of 400 E. Euclid st., and the girls' impassive male companion was Sunny's brother, Scott, age 10.

Well kids, you've convinced us The time is not yet to abdicate.

Men's Store Addition

Svoboda Gets OK To Double Space

The Arlington Heights village board Monday night approved the issuance of a building permit to Joseph Svoboda to allow him to construct an addition to Svoboda Men's Store, 12 S. Dunton.

The permit had previously been rejected because of inadequate off-street parking.

The addition, which will double the size of the clothing store, will take up part of the Svoboda parking lot. A variation was needed since the village ordinance requires nine parking spaces for a building the size of the proposed store. Only seven will be provided.

VILLAGE MANAGER L. A. Hanson recommended the variance because "the store is located next to the Dunton st. parking lot, which is never completely filled with cars, and Svoboda paid his share of contributions in full as per agreement when the parking lot was developed."

Trustee Robert Bukowski pointed out that a proposed ordinance allows for businesses which cannot furnish complete off-street-parking by permitting the builders to donate $1200 per parking space in lieu of providing a private lot.

Bukowski then suggested that the board require $1400 in payment from Svoboda for the two spaces he was short, giving him credit for the $1000 he had contributed towards the Dunton court lot.

HE RECEIVED support from Trustee William Sauer, but the rest of the board disagreed. The vote was 4-2 against Bukowski's suggestion and 4-2 in favor of the variation.

Svoboda indicated that he needed twice his present space for clothing display and three times the present space for the tailoring shop. He said that work on the addition would begin as soon as plans are completed, presumably in October. The building should be finished by next April.

Urge Enrollment For High School

Early enrollment in High School District 214 schools was urged for all new students in the district this week by Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer.

'We know that many new students have moved into the district this summer but few have enrolled for the coming school year," he said.

STUDENTS MAY enroll from 8 to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday at the high school they will attend, either Arlington or Prospect high.

Schedules may be picked up by students beginning August 24 through the opening of school on September 8. Such schedules, however, will be available only to those students that have registered.

New Collection Service Slated

The village signed a new two-year garbage collection contract this week with Laseke Disposal company, present Arlington Heights refuse collector.

According to Village Manager L. A. Hanson the new contract, effective September 1, gives villagers a choice of curb or rear door collection, maintains the existing rates, and provides for pick-up of excess material at no extra charge.

The new agreement makes practically no change in the existing contract. Curb pick-up of two 20 gallon containers a week will cost $1.90 per month. Rear door pickup of the same amount runs $2.75.

A new clause in the contract allows for the pickup of all excess material that can be placed in containers, such as grass clippings and household rubbish, at no extra charge.

THE ONLY extra charge will be for building materials or items too large to be placed in the compactor truck units. No charge will be made for brush if it is tied in five foot bundles or for newspapers if bundled.

Laseke has agreed to continue the billing.

The village board Monday night rejected the low bid, submitted by Northwest Disposal company, despite protests from a Northwest representative and an Arlington Heights resident.

The village board doubted the Palatine firm's ability to handle an account as large as Arlington Heights. John Meyer, a Northwest representative, asserted that his company, although presently using only one truck, planned to purchase four new pieces of equipment.

Village Manager Hanson reported that he had received no financial statement from the Northwest company as he had requested. Laseke did submit a favorable statement.

CLAIMING support from irate housewives from all parts of town, Mrs. Patrick O'Dea objected to the rehiring of Laseke's company. She said that women she had talked to were willing to go through any difficulties rather than give Laseke the contract again.

Hanson replied that his office had received only about two dozen phone calls during the seven months he has been here, and almost all of the objections had been aimed at the possible rate increases.

Trustee Robert Bukowski pointed out that the village had experienced no public health problems as a result of Laseke's handling the refuse service for the past three years.

Trustee Wendell Prunty then moved that the low bid of $2.25 for rear door collection, $1.75 for curb collection, and $3.00 for excess collection be rejected and the village manager be authorized to negotiate a contract with the second low bidder, Laseke.

MRS. O'DEA then charged that the village wasn't giving Northwest a chance, and Mayor Edward Carlisle replied that "We feel it is in the best interest of the village."

Hanson was reportedly very happy with the new contract, it being much more satisfactory than Laseke's earlier demands that the village take over the billing and the collection rates be raised, eliminating curb pickup.

Builders Ask Changes In Subdivision Rules

Builders hammered away at Arlington Heights' new subdivision ordinance Monday night at the village board meeting.

The trustees heard some five requests for variations from the 70 feet frontage requirements of the ordinance, passed March 16. The matters were complicated by a dispute over the interpretation of the ordinance and the uncertainty of the date on which the bill became effective.

Perhaps the most important of the five requests was that of Shagbark Builders, the decision of which will affect a large number of the village's undeveloped lots. Shagbark claims that the land involved was subdivided long before the new ordinance became effective and therefore is not governed by the statute.

Village Attorney Stephen Jurco, however, pointed out that Shagbark Builders did not purchase the land until after the ordinance became effective and therefore must comply.

A COURT DECISION is pending on a similar situation in Skokie, testing whether land subdivided before such an ordinance and purchased afterward is restricted by the ordinance.

A "yes" decision would mean that many of Arlington Heights' unimproved lots could never be built upon (without variations), unless owned by the builder previous to the subdivision ordinance, the reason being that they would fail to meet the 70 ft. frontage requirement. Corner lots must have 75 foot frontage, and the total area must be a minimum of 8750 square feet.

Henry Sterzak, Chicago, represented Shagbark Builders at Monday night's meeting and claimed that his firm was being discriminated against. "Why pick on this lot," he complained. "There is a lot of other building going on with lots with less than 70 foot frontage.

MAYOR EDWARD Carlisle stated that "If such building is going on, without our approval, it is sub-standard and we want to know about it."

Shagbark is asking approval for two lots, 55 by 131 each, at the corner of Windsor and Foundry in Stonegate. It was pointed out that the proposed lots fell some 1500 square feet shy of the ordinance requirements. The matter has been referred to Jurco, who is awaiting the Skokie decision.

A slightly different protest has been made by Harmony Builders, Chicago contractors planning a 20 home subdivision south of Miner st. on an extension of Prindle.

John Sevagleo, president of the building firm, claims that subdivision plans were filed with the village prior to the new ordinance, and he should be allowed to continue plans for 20 homes on lots 56 feet wide.

The planning commission had agreed in an earlier meeting, but the village board argued that no ownership of the land can be shown prior to sometime in June. The question then arose as to when the ordinance had become effective. It was adopted at a village board meeting March 16, but did not become effective until 10 days after it was printed in pamphlet form. This date was not immediately ascertained.

The board, in defeating the request 5-1 (Schlickman voting in favor), maintained that the builders could conform to the ordinance by subdividing only 18 homes instead of 20.

THE BOARD was more sympathetic with a variation request from Lewis F. Draper, Jr., 11 S. Waterman, Arlington Heights, who submitted a plan involving six lots at the corner of Rockwell and Dryden.

The trustees did not strenuously object to the 66 ft. width of the lots since the 156 ft. length more than made up the necessary 8750 sq. ft. total. However, there was some concern about the land directly west of the proposed subdivision which would, after a road dedication, become a narrow strip of "no man's land."

The matter was referred to a special committee of trustees.

TWO OTHER builders were advised to return to their respective neighbors and come up with some better plans. John Roth, 624 N. State, submitted a plan for two lots 56 by 429 in the 600 block of N. State, but the board suggested the possibility of a dead end street from Euclid since the backs of the property would have no exit.

Gustav Anderson presented a similar problem, with his proposed development of two 65 by 296 lots on N. Belmont, north of Oakton. The board ruled that, while the plans met all requirements except frontage, the oblong lots would leave inaccessible land unless Pine st. were brought up to the property.

LIMBERING UP for tonight's 14th Arlington park district's water ballet program are Mary Braidle, Kathy Kastning, Sue Sebastian, Jackie Kleinofen, and Karen Roberts. Broadway musicals will set the theme for this year's show at Pioneer park.

Hundred Girls Cast In Water Ballet Show

Some 100 girls will participate in Arlington park district's 14th annual water ballet tomorrow and Saturday at 8:15 in Pioneer park.

A Broadway theme will set the stage for such musical numbers as Carousel, The King and I, West Side Story, South Pacific, Porgy and Bess, Pal Joey, Damn Yankees, Kiss Me Kate, Oklahoma, Showboat, Music Man, My Fair Lady, and Fanny.

The latter number will feature seven girls dressed in pink bathing suits covered with black ruffles entering the water from the high dive and swimming in intricate formations.

Jane Schafer will do a solo to Bali Hai from South Pacific. She will enter the island from an island that actually has a palm tree growing on it. For the Oklahoma number the girls will wear big red handkerchiefs for bathing suits and straw hats with which they'll swim. Carol Baumrucker will do a solo number.

THIRTY GIRLS will swim to the Carousel Waltz from Carousel. Eight girls will be dressed as horses and will be swimming around an actual carousel in the water. The end of the number will feature a number of difficult dives. The finale will include the entire cast in "There's No Business Like Show Business," from Annie Get Your Gun.

Forty of the girls in the show, directed by Judi Clabaugh and Jane Schafer, will repeat the show at Tam O'Shanter country club and the Edgewater Beach hotel.

The girls doing the dance numbers are members of the dance classes offered at the park.

First Gymnarama Planned by Parks

More than a thousand youngsters are expected to participate in Arlington Heights park district's first annual Gymnarama, Tuesday, Aug. 11, at Pioneer park.

The colorful exhibition of dancing, gymnastics, marching and baton twirling will begin at 8:15 p.m. on the park's lighted tennis courts, converted into a three ring arena for the extravaganza.

The rhythmical spectacle, built around the theme "Fitness for Fun," will open with a tumbling exhibition under the direction of John Daniels and Gary Erwing. Daniels, a champion gymnast at Michigan State university, will conclude the act with a flying performance on the mat.

ONE HUNDRED little girls will dance "Honey Bun" from South Pacific followed by a mass twirling demonstration by Judy Schmoyer's baton program.

Throughout the show tumblers and trampoline artists will perform simultaneously with the dancers and twirlers, exhibiting intricate balances and acrobatics.

Peter and the Wolf will be danced by a large cast under the direction of Judi Clabaugh. A South American dance will precede a series of baton marching acts climaxed by a mass pompon number. Over 400 girls will manipulate the big paper flowers in a giant display of color and movement.

The two tumbling instructors will do a comedy routine on the trampoline. A poem dance and a number entitled Leg Dance will conclude the program.

Final Lawn Concert

The final Concert-On-The-Lawn of the park district's 1959 series will be held Sunday at Recreation park at 4 p.m. Both the Arlington Area Concert Band and the Arlington Barbershop Chorus will perform.

The band, under the direction of F. C. Schmoyer, will present a general program of favorite band music including several well-known marches and overtures.

Weekend's Ideal Weather Cheers Local Party-Givers

Ideal weather over the past weekend cheered local party-givers and guaranteed the success of practically every endeavor which might have bogged down if attempted in the steam heat before and since lovely last Saturday and Sunday. Tolerable even was that least popular of weekend pastimes, the drive home after vacation time has ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kurtz, the Wendell Doolittles of Chicago and their 38 guests appreciated the breezes Saturday afternoon that added to their enjoyment of a picnic in the Kurtz backyard at 805 S. Mitchell. An annual get-together, the Kurtz-Doolittle enterprise entertained co-workers and their families.

Two August birthdays were celebrated this week at the Merton Taylor household, 439 S. Evergreen. Patty was 8 years old Sunday and the guest of honor at a family barbecue supper in the Taylor backyard. Susy turned 7 yesterday, the magic age in her family when the children have their first "really" party. A festive luncheon was the conclusion of Susy's mid morning-till-noon party with several neighborhood friends who were just as happy as the birthday girl that she finally got to be 7.

MRS. T. OLSON and her son of Belmont, Mass. left here Saturday for visits with other relatives in the state after a 10-day stay with her cousin, Edwin Larson and the family, 733 S. Highland. The Larsons and their guests spent a week with Mr. Larson's father in Reeds Landing, Minn. where fishing, swimming and a picturesque setting provided an ideal vacation spot.

Mrs. Richard Whitson and the children are home again at 834 N. Walnut after a 3-week visit in London, Ohio with Mrs. Whitson's father, E. P. Speasmaker, and other relatives.

The Robert Sweet family returned Thursday from a 5-day stay in Lexington, Ky. They'll have a far longer stay in the middle of the month when the Home "Sweet" Home will be moved from 738 S. Walnut to a new address in the Blue Grass state.

Mrs. Brooke Rimerman of Arlington, Va. is visiting this week at the home of her daughter and family, the David Gows, 804 S. Dunton.

Visitors for a few days last week at the George Hawkins home, 721 S. Chestnut, were former Chicago neighbors now of St. Louis, the Charles Pfister family.

TWENTY Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect members of the TOPS club enjoyed a swimming party last Tuesday night at the Mt. Prospect pool. Mrs. William Klingenmaier, 434 S. Vail, president of the Take Off Pounds Sensibly group, reports with a grin that they raised the water level in the pool far less than they would have a year ago at this time.

TOPS members meet monthly for a low calorie dinner, weight comparisons and a social evening; last Tuesday's splash party was an extra-curricular affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bomanz, 709 S. Mitchell, had as their guests for a recent 2-day visit, Major and Mrs. E. R. McClain and their son, Michael, of Finksburg, Md. Major McClain, US army, retired, rode in the corps area horse show at Fort Sam Houston for many years and in 1947 rode with the American team in the international horse show in Rome in preparation for the Olympics. Last Monday the McClains were honor guests at a buffet supper given by their hosts.

The L. J. Lubers, 844 S. Dunton, returned Saturday evening from a vacation at Eagle River, Wis. where perfect weather, good fishing and swimming combined to give the family an ideal week. The Oscar Johnsons, 647 N. Beverly, were vacationing at the same spot and a pooling of the Johnson-Luber fish resources Friday night resulted in a fish fry enjoyed by both families. On the return trip they all stopped briefly in the Dells at the Paul Bunyon inn.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Fenner are home again at 802 S. State after a combination business-pleasure stay of a week at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Hull, 713 S. Dunton, returned Saturday evening after a 2-week absence. Mrs. Hull visited relatives in Carthage and friends in Springfield while her husband was completing a 2-week business course at Knox college.

The Lyle Huntley family, 421 N. Wilshire, ducked last week's heat by camping out at Devil's Lake, Wis. They returned Friday so that Sandy was home in time for her co-hostess duties at a patio party Saturday night when 14 teen-agers properly initiated the recently completed patio at the home of their hostess, Lynn Marshall, 511 N. Stratford. Hot dogs and all the fixin's settled the menu question and a few hours of dancing helped to settle the Marshall patio.

The John Kruk family, 1010 N. Mitchell, returned Thursday from a 2-week tour of the Black Hills and other scenic attractions in South Dakota. They were 'way up and 'way down, enjoying both "junior" mountain climbing and deep cave exploring. The Kruks in recent years have followed the growing trend to "camping-out" vacations and found especially attractive campsites this year. A change of pace and a night on the town was the order of the day July 23 when Nancy celebrated her 15th birthday with the family in Custer, S. Dak.

UNTIL 4 O'CLOCK Saturday afternoon residents of the 1000 block on S. Dunton planned individual quiet evenings at home and they admit since they should have known better. It's usually on such "quiet" evenings that parties erupt on that block, and it happened again Saturday night.

Actually it was very still everywhere except at the Charles Mallons, 1041 S. Dunton, where the entire adult population of the block was farewelling the W. L. Vinbergs. The soiree was not exactly impromptu since a farewell for the Vinbergs was inevitable on that most neighborly block; it's just that nobody suspected that Saturday night was the night until it happened.

Like most 1000 S. Dunton st. affairs, the farewell was a co-operative enterprise and held outdoors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brown, 509 S. Chestnut, are home after a 3-week tour of the Canadian Rockies and a return trip via Glacier and Yellowstone national parks. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brown's niece, Miss Muriel Light of Chicago. Mrs. Brown reports that although she has seen Glacier national park several times and thought it beautiful each time, this year's spectacle was breath-taking.

Snow is still being cut out of some of the passes and the mountainside "is weeping with waterfalls" in Mrs. Brown's words. Their return trip also took them to Cody, Wy. and through the Shoshonee and Shell canyons which defied even the expressive Mrs. Brown's power of description. The beginning of their tour in Canada brought them to Lake Louise and Banff on the day of Queen Elizabeth's visit.

THE JAMES Smethursts, 820 S. Highland, returned Saturday after two weeks at Sayner, Wis. where they enjoyed some fishing and a lot of water-skiing.

Cheryl Williams entertained Saturday night with a slumber party for five young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams, 750 N. Pine. Typically the would-be slumberers didn't plan to sleep much and carried out their plans to the letter.

A miscellaneous shower yesterday at the home of Mrs. Roy Gustafson, 1146 N. Mitchell, climaxed a series of pre-nuptial patries honoring Miss Sandra Lee Lewis, daughter of the Ralph Lewises, 1142 N. Mitchell, who will be married August 22 in the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights to Bruce Robb, 311 S. Walnut st.

Twelve neighborhood friends of the Lewis family were guests at yesterday's shower which, in deference to Miss Lewis' somewhat well-tried reactions, was not planned as a surprise as three previous showers have been.

FIFTEEN former high schoolmates showered Miss Lewis with personal gifts at a pre-nuptial party given by Miss Barbara Schweiger and Miss Kathy Miller of Arlington Heights in the Schweiger home, Mt. Prospect.

Miss Lewis also shared a shower with a fellow worker at the local savings and loan association, Miss Joanne Milliren, who has since been married. Their hostess was Mrs. Paul Collins, Plum Grove estates, and each of the co-guests of honor was presented with a group gift from their office friends.

At a pre-nuptial party given July 12 by Mrs. Alfred Kuhl, 312 S. Walnut, a neighbor of the groom's parents, Miss Lewis was showered with gifts of linen. Ten neighborhood friends of the groom and his family honored and surprised the bride-elect at the evening party.

After their marriage and a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Robb plan to make their home here.

DALE WEIDNER was seven yesterday and primed the party pump Sunday at a family gathering in his honor at the home of his parents, the Richard Weidners, 1131 N. Dunton. Yesterday several neighborhood children celebrated the now-I-am-7 day with Dale at a bang-up afternoon party in his home.

James Hahn, 919 N. Ridge, is attending the August 2-13 Eastern Importers and Manufacturers Chicago gift show at the Palmer House, representing the Howard Goldstamping Machine company of Chicago. Occupying the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth floors of the Palmer House and the sixth floor mezzanine of the LaSalle hotel the gigantic gift display is a buyer's show and not open to the general public.

Mrs. Helen Callahan, 209 W. Miner, is doing well after surgery performed last Wednesday at St. Joseph hospital in Elgin and is expected home soon for a period of recuperation.

THE EDWARD Chelotti family returned home to 529 S. Highland Saturday night after two weeks at a lakeside cottage near Dowagiac, Mich. and the man of the house is not bragging much about the bass fishing. His 9-year old daughter, Claire, likes to talk about it, though, and regales everyone with the story of how she caught the biggest bass of all. A quiet post script to the tale is that even the biggest bass of all was an inch short of being a "keeper."

Even though the adult bass in Twin Lakes were too smart to bite, lots of legal sized pan fish succumbed to the Chelotti lure and sizzled in the Chelotti pans. Mickey was 8 years old last Wednesday and is since in favor of spending all future birthdays at the lake.

FORTY-EIGHT suburban and Chicago friends and relatives toasted E. F. Johansen of Chicago on his 60th birthday a week ago Saturday night at a surprise party given by his son, Richard, 332 S. Bristol. In the planning stage for several months, the totally successful celebration involved the cheerful cooperation and many talents of neighborhood friends of the host and his wife.

Special lyrics and scripts apropos of the occasion were written by members of an amateur variety show that regaled the honor guest who was not too overcome with surprise to acclaim the professional caliber of the entertainment. A vocal quartet, Vic Miller, John Fenner, Bob Hawley and the hostess, opened the show, followed by soloist Mrs. Rosemary Ross who was accompanied by Mr. Miller.

"Chorines" Jane Miller, Lee Suhr and Barbara Houskeeper danced in especially designed costumes, and Dick Down provided the laughs with an original comedy routine that, according to reports, should cause Red Skelton to look to his laurels. Mrs. Miller concluded the program with a vocal solo with original lyrics to honor Mr. Johansen.

GIFT-GIVING WAS planned strictly for laughs with the exception of the final presentation when the junior Johansens gave the man of the hour an oil portrait of himself, done by Lee Suhr. Another gift of remembrance, a guest book, is still being completed.

Until the moment Mr. and Mrs. Johansen walked into the garden at their son's home, Mr. Johansen had no inkling of what had been planned. Each of four tall poplars across the back of the property was lighted with 100 colored lights and Japanese lanterns further illuminated the garden tables and umbrellas-and guests-filling the scene. Then he knew.

RICHARD BAILEY, 350 S. Belmont is spending two weeks at the Philmont scout ranch in Cimarron, N. Mex.

Recent guests at the Douglas Gutzman home, 344 S. Windsor, were Mrs. Gutzman's parents, the John K. Burgans of Tucson en route to their home in New Mexico from New York where they had disembarked after a cruise to Latin America. Although it was their first visit to their daughter's new home they had no trouble remembering the address since only the street name was different. The Gutzmans recently moved from 344 S. Derbyshire.

A dual-purpose patio party for six at the Gutzman home Saturday night celebrated the July 30 birthday of co-hostess, Mrs. John Hickox and the July 31 birthday of Mrs. Gutzman. Mr. and Mrs. Emile Holiner of Arlington Heights and Palm Springs added their congratulations to those of the celebrants' husbands.

The Stephan Jurcos also took advantage of the cooling weekend weather and a comfortable patio party for 16 entertained Sunday afternoon at 217 S. Windsor.

Mrs. John Bartizal, 611 E. Fairview, and her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Robinson of Barrington, enjoyed a recent week in the north woods of Minnesota where perfect weather and scenic beauty made relaxing almost compulsory. Mr. and Mrs. Bartizal celebrated their 33rd wedding anniversary July 28 and celebrated with a family party that included their son, Dale, and his family of Glen Ellyn and the Robinsons.

IT ISN'T EVERY man who can attend a national golf tournament and truthfully claim he was hard at work. H. W. Colburn, 535 S. Burton, can and did. He returned Friday after three days in Minneapolis at the National PGA tournament where he represented the sporting goods company with which he is associated.

Weekend guets at the Ed Cockerham home, 410 S. Lincoln, were the senior Cockerhams of Shelbyville, Ind.

The Harold Deans and Barbara, 357 S. Belmont, spent the weekend in DeKalb where Barbara took placement exams preparatory to entering Northern Illinois university next month.

The Robert Ryans are home at 116 Wilshire after a week in Wisconsin where Mr. Ryan attended a 3-day insurance convention in Milwaukee. They finished the week visiting friends and sightseeing.

Guests for a few days last week at the Howard Wittenberg home, 715 S. Beverly, were Mrs. Wittenberg's cousin and her husband, the Ralph Herzogs of Hays, Kan. and a neighborhood couple who accompanied the Herzogs here. Saturday evening guests at an outdoor barbeue at the Wittenbergs were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stuitt and children of Westchester.

THIRTY-TWO FAMILY members and friends enjoyed an outdoor barbecue Sunday at the Charles Skinner home, 721 S. Beverly. Among the guests were Mr. Skinner's niece, Mrs. Sam Bender of Toledo, weekending with relatives in Chicago, and his nephew and family, the junior Frank Millers who recently moved to Arlington Heights from Chicago.

The Fay Hamiltons, 127 Brighton, returned Saturday from a 3-week vacation in Mercer, Wis. The fishing was good, boating and swimming even better and relaxing was the best.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Means Jr., 1101 Mayfair, returned Friday after a 3-week tour of Canada and the New England states, and a visit in Massachusetts with the senior Otis Means of Newton Center.

Six local couples were guests Saturday at an outdoor supper party at the Byron Sayre home, 606 E. Park. The Sayres' son, Bill, is home again after four weeks at a gymnastics camp in Williamsburg, Mich.

SUNDAY EVENING, the choir of the Evangelical Free church, together with other friends, surprised the Russell Andersons, 516 Noyes, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary at the home of the Roy Baumanns, 421 E. Orchard.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandell of Chicago. Mr. Sandell is a member of a Swedish choral group and sang a song especially written by him for the occasion. The Sandells introduced Mr. and Mrs. Anderson originally and have since been life-long friends.

Mrs. George B. Sieben, 607 Ironwood dr., is co-chairman of a tea to honor Mt. Mary College freshmen to be held Sunday, Aug. 16 at Lewis Towers, Chicago. Mrs. Sieben, vice president of the college club, reports that freshmen of the college, which is located in Milwaukee, will meet their "big sisters" at the tea.

Mrs. Emma Garms, 1137 N. Mitchell, and Miss Judy Maierhofer were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Garms' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tinberg, Shelby and Sharon, in Watertown, Wis. While in Wisconsin, they also attended the Jefferson 4-H fair where Shelby modeled a skirt she had made. Shelby received a blue ribbon on the skirt as she has on many other entries at the fair. (A

Restaurant Business Is Expanding

Growth is apparent on every hand in the northwest suburbs, but it's doubtful if any business could match the expansion of Rapp's restaurant, 620 W. Northwest hwy. in Arlington Heights.

It started in 1939 with an ice cream counter that seated six persons and last week blossomed into a 134 seat restaurant complete with banquet room.

The sixth remodeling of the business in 20 years provided for an additional dining room that will seat 34 persons. According to owner Bud Rapp it is intended primarily for meetings, club dinners and banquets. (A

Arlington Man Elected to Post

Douglas R. Jenkins, 808 N. Patton, Arlington Heights, has been elected to the board of trustees of the First Baptist church, Park Ridge. He will fill the unexpired term of James Brooks, former chairman, who moved to Arizona.

The church, which is affiliated with the American Baptist convention, is meeting temporarily in the Franklin school, 2401 Main.

The members recently voted to appoint Walter Kroeber, Arlington Heights, to serve as architect for their new church building. Dr. Dean Nelson is the pastor. (A

Apartment Project Compromise Reached

A 15 building apartment project in Arlington Heights appeared a certainty this week following a compromise between the village board, planning commission, and developers of the property.

Village Attorney Stephen Jurco said that the petitioners have met village pleas for smaller buildings and fewer two bedroom apartments. The compromise plan calls for eight buildings of eight one-bedroom apartments each, a total of 120 units.

Original plans included 128 units to be divided among five buildings.

Jurco said that with village objections out of the way, the change of zoning allowing the project is purely mechanical. "The judge should issue a decree this week," the attorney stated.

THE APARTMENT buildings are to be constructed on 5.6 acres of ground between Euclid ave. and the North Western railroad tracks in the Arlingdale subdivision.

The compromise climaxed one of the bitterest rezoning battles in the village's history. Residents of Arlingdale and Westgate have opposed the project, which was defeated by the village board earlier.

The developers, led by petitioner Arthur R. Thiersch, 1018 N. Evergreen, filed a mandamus suit late in June after two years of dickering had proved fruitless.

The planning commission and Northwest Realty board had recommended that the property be used for multiple family dwelling.

Arlingdale homeowners argued that such a large number of units would tax the area's municipal facilities, devaluate their property, and make the area unfit for single-family dwellings.

PLAINTIFFS in the mandamus suit were John V. Lizars, a New York attorney; Stuart Realty co.; William Kleiner, 314 S. State rd.; Leonard Roesler, 1100 W. Euclid; William Mueller, and the LaSalle National bank as trustee for Arthur R. Thiersch. Attorney for the group is Eugene P. Meegan.

The land parcel is part of a triangular shaped tract whose apex at the railroad tracks and Euclid was the subject of a two-year battle resolved last September in Circuit court.

A declamatory judgment by Judge Harry Fisher rezoned the land from farm to commercial and multiple-dwelling classifications. (AF

Pair Held Over To Grand Jury

Lawyers for two alleged burglars and robbers waived preliminary hearing in front of Police Magistrate Robert Buckley Wednesday morning and were bound over to the grand jury.

Enzo Canaccini, 21, of 2118 W. North ave., and Richard Brown, 18, of 3229 W. Hirsch, were to have been heard in Arlington Heights police court. The pair were arrested July 11 when a village boy spotted them attempting to enter a home at 1003 N. Wilke rd.

Arlington Heights police arrested the youths, who were identified by witnesses as the men who entered one home and attempted to enter another. (AF

North Side Paper Pickup August 7

Arlington Heights Boy Scouts will conduct a paper drive in the north side of the village Saturday morning, August 7, beginning at 9 a.m.

Villagers are instructed to bundle their newspapers and magazines securely or put them in cardboard boxes. Drive directors stated that homes missed by the pickup may bring their bundles to North school, corner of State rd. and St. James st.

Safecracker Has 'Day in Court'

A 23-year-old Chicago safecracker, charged with four burglaries, including one in Arlington Heights, literally had his day in court this week.

He kept two of three court dates on Monday and the judge of the U. S. District court had to issue a bench warrant when he failed to appear in court on a counterfeiting charge. That was on Monday, too.

THE YOUTH gave his name as Richard Morrison of 5533 Winthrop, according to police, and boasted of 150 thefts netting $100,000 when arrested last Friday in Chicago.

Local police say Morrison is being charged with the theft of $600 June 26 from the Walgreen store at 22 S. Dryden, Arlington Heights.

Police said Morrison came to town in a taxi, and entered the store through an air shaft on the roof. He was carrying a black bag of tools which he left in the store.

HE BROKE into the safe, took the $600 but left part of it in the field behind the store and returned the following day to collect it.

Morrison is awaiting grand jury action on three burglary charges, will stand trial on another burglary charge in Criminal Court, and will appear on a counterfeit charge.

Morrison has served four short prison sentences since last October. (AF

Developer Seeks Shop Center OK

Nicholas Prassas appeared before the Arlington Heights village board Monday night in a final effort to win approval of a proposed $1,250,000 shopping center at the corner of Kirchoff and Wilke rds.

Prassas's attorney told the trustees that the zoning board of appeals, in denying the request, "was simply trying to protect the existing area and village plans, both of which we think are inadequate."

The 14 store proposal was referred to a sub-committee for study with planning consultant Gene Baughman.

Prassas argued that by turning the shopping center down the trustees would "permit shopping to go off to your neighbors, who are making preparations to take care of it." He cited the loss of possible taxes as a reason for allowing the rezoning.

THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS zoning board of appeals had unanimously recommended that the board reject the proposal, which had been opposed by residents of the Westgate sub-division.

The zoning board president, Vic Beisler, said his group felt that changing the land from residential to commercial would be a case of spot zoning and that a shopping center at that location would complicate an existing traffic problem.

Other reasons cited by the board included the fact that the planning commission hadn't recommended the area for commercial purposes, and it was felt that Westgate shopping center provided ample facilities for area shoppers. (AF

1-Act Plays Slated for Teenagers

Teen Theater will present a series of one act plays this Tuesday evening at the Arlington high school little theater. Curtain time is 8 p.m. and the public is invited at no charge.

The theater group is composed of beginners who are learning dramatics as part of the Arlington Heights park district's summer recreation program. Mrs. James A. Smith is the director.

"Take A Letter," the first play, is a comedy set in the office of a business executive with secretary troubles. His efforts to hire an appropriate helper meet a surprising result. Joe Doherty plays the perplexed business man.

"Spring Daze," is a family story comedy with Jim Peeke, Janet McCormick, Jon Woods, and Sharon Smith.

"Witch Hazel" has a supernatural twist as its players discover magical properties in an antique chair. Those who sit there somehow assume the personality of their predecessor in the chair. Mary Walsh plays the lead roll of Janet. (A

Pilot in Forced Landing on Road

An Arlington Heights man landed practically in his mother's front yard Saturday morning while flying a piper cub airplane from Collinsville to Wheeling's Pal-Waukee airport.

Donald W. Gronert told Arlington Heights police that the airplane developed engine trouble, forcing a landing at the end of Waterman st., near Memory Gardens cemetery. Gronert's mother lives at 2012 E. Euclid, across the road from the incident.

Gronert, who was flying the plane for a friend, Robert Cicel, Collinsville, was unhurt. Both Gronert and Cicel are in the army.

Going to Dentist Is Different Nowadays

THE CHAIR

by TOM McSHANE

"And what's your pleasure, young man?"

"I'll try strawberry this time, I think. Or maybe cherry. No, better make it strawberry. I like that best, I guess."

"Lean back and relax. One strawberry coming up. Want to hear some jazz?"

"Crazy."

Kenton or Brubeck?"

"Brubeck. He's the most."

"Here. Put the earphones on. I'll start the tape. How about a massage?"

"Please."

"There. All set. Comfortable?"

"Begin the Beguine, doc."

The dentist dipped his brush into a cup of strawberry-flavored flour or pumice and began cleaning the teenager's teeth as the boy lay relaxed on the vibrator chair with the hi-fi earphones piping the rhythmic beat into his contented mind.

Twenty-five years ago this boy's father sitting in a straight-backed chair in a cubby-hole office listening to a noisy jackhammer in the street outside as his dentist jammed the gritty-tasting pumice into his gums with a hollering-hot drill.

In the quarter-century between today's father and son a revolution has occurred in the science of dentistry. The past ten years have brought the greatest changes.

BETWEEN THE flavored pumice cleaning compound and the increasing popularity of dental hypnosis lie an ever-increasing number of modern discoveries and inventions designed to banish forever the age-old fear of "The Chair."

One northwest suburban area dentist greeted this reporter last week in his modern, air-conditioned offices in a new dental clinic and told the story of the revolution.

Today's dentistry can best be illustrated by taking a patient through the normal treatment process.

On the first trip to the office the patient is welcomed by a receptionist, and then the doctor. He notices the pleasant atmosphere of the building—the pastel colors, comfortable waiting room, the soothing music piped into all of the rooms.

HE IS LED into the dentist's office, questioned about his dental history. He then is asked to sit in the chair where the dentist will examine his teeth and take an X-ray.

All of the modern offices have reclining chairs. Many have the vibrators attached to add to the patient's comfort. It's like your own living room.

Today's X-ray machines are new, too.

With the older machines it takes from three to four seconds to obtain a proper exposure. The new half-second machines not only cut down the exposure time and consequent higher radiation hazard, but also add to the patients comfort by decreasing the amount of time he has to keep the film pack in his mouth.

During his second appointment, the patient will get the good word. The dentist will go over the X-rays with him, show him what is wrong, and explain what has to be done.

The patient doesn't see the drill until the third appointment. And when he does he is generally pleasantly surprised.

TODAY'S DRILLS are built to dig out cavities as fast and painlessly as possible. The heat and vibration which caused most of the trouble with the old 30 to 50 thousand revolutions per minute, air-cooled drills are gone. In their place we have the 150 to 250 thousand rpm, water and air-cooled drill.

Coupled with the modern drill is novocain, capable of numbing the most severe pains.

If our patient needs a tooth extracted, he may prefer to visit an oral surgeon, a specialist in head bone work. The surgeon can make an extraction as pleasant as possible with a full anesthetic such as gas or sodium pentothal. The latter has little after-effects.

Modern dentistry also has put a big dent in the death rate of teeth. The old tooth-killer, pyorrhea, if caught in its early stages, can be cured through use of the newly-discovered anti-biotics. As a result, more old people are using their original teeth.

When the choppers do have to come out, our dentists have figured out ways to replace them with little or no inconvenience or pain.

The old-time plaster of paris and wax impressions that had to be taken and fitted over a period of five appointments have given way to new fittings made of silicone, rubber, or alginates which call for only two appointments.

On the far side of the dental moon, still in the experimental stage, is another pain-reliever, one that requires no gas or injections, one that man has yet to explain.

IT IS A science in itself. Hypnosis.

Since 1958, experimental and clinical teams have been working on hypnosis in dentistry. In that year two groups, the American Society of Psychosomatic Dentistry, and the American Hypnodontic society, were formed.

Since then these organizations have compiled tens of thousands of case histories. The histories have proved beyond doubt that hypnosis can be used in almost every type of dental operation.

Hypnosis is winning acceptance quickly in dentistry. Today there are four times the number of study clubs there were in 1948, and more than 7,000 dentists are using it in their practice.

Dentistry has come a long way since Dad's time.

The flavored pumice comes in strawberry, cherry, chocolate, peppermint, and wintergreen.

What'll you have? (B8

Q. We were served baked potatoes at a dinner recently, and the man next to me proceeded to remove the potato from the skin and mash it on his plate before eating. Wasn't this the wrong thing to do?

A. Yes; baked potato should properly be eaten from the skin.

Q. When a man finds it necessary to introduce himself, does he include the "Mr." before his name?

A. No; he usually says, "I am Donald Forbes," or, "My name is Forbes," unless he has the title of "Doctor," which is then prefixed to his name.

Mammoth Dog Show Slated Aug. 16 at Prospect High

One of the largest dog shows ever to be sponsored by an obedience club will be held Sunday, August 16, in the field house of Prospect high school, Foundry rd., Arlington Heights.

An all-breed obedience trial and tracking test, the show is the second licensed trial and test to be sponsored by the loca lobedibe sponsored by the local obedience Training Club, Inc. of Suburban, Chicago. The show will include more than 300 pedigreed dogs working in six rings.

Invited to participate in the show were other obedience clubs in Chicago, its suburbs and nearby states with some entries coming from as far as Minnesota.

NOVICE TRIALS for dogs working on their first degree, and open and utility trials for the more advanced dogs, will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 6 p.m. when alll dogs entered will have been judged. Tracking tests will take place on the Justin Fleischmann grounds and surrounding properties in Palatine.

More than 100 ribbons, trophies and awards will be presented to owners of dogs with highest scores in the various classes and among the various breeds.

THE PUBLIC is invited with children being admitted at half price. Plate dinners as well as hot dogs and barbecues will be available on the premises.

The sponsoring club, which trains Wednesday evenings in Palatine, was formed seven years ago. Charles W. Berry of Arlington Heights is chairman of the show and DeForest Muster of Bensenville is president of the club. (A13

Cancer Fund Drive

Northwest suburban chapter of the American Cancer society has exceeded its campaign goal. At a final report victory meeting, Campaign Chairman Charles L. Kimball said the total receipts were $30,748.23. The goal was $30,000. Kimball said Eugene DiBlasi of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. will head the campaign next year.

Kimball announced that the Illinois division of the American Cancer society has broken all previous records in its fund raising efforts with the report today that the 1959 Cancer Crusade has gone over its $1,650,000 goal, with a total to date of $1,651,300. He said that the state figure of $85,000 ahead of last year at this time will go to expand the society's research, education and service efforts.

KIMBALL, stating that this is the earliest in the history of the division, that an "over-the-top" announcement has gone out, credited the unprecedented victory to the increased organization and coverage by the volunteer crusaders throughout the state.

He also indicated that the year-round program of education and service, which is vigorously carried on by local volunteers through the chapter office located at 121 S. Emerson, Mt. Prospect, have brought about an increasing public interest in the urgency of the cancer problem and a better awareness of the Cancer society's mission. (B9

Minutes Are Eternity For Expectant Father

by TED SMART

"It's time." This announcement was accompanied by a nudge in the ribs. It was 5:57 a.m. by the bedside clock.

"That's good," came the muffled reply. His head burrowed deeper into the pillow. "Time for wha...?" He drifted off again.

More nudging, the scraping of the razor against the chin, last night's coffee, and a 16-mile drive to the hospital. Rain slashed at the windshield. The wipers went thackety-whomp, thackety-whomp. Boy or a girl, boy or a girl?

The clock in the hospital corridor showed 7:28, and a half-hour later it read 7:29. A nurse walked by, smiled, and asked: "Your first one?"

THE EXPECTANT father pulled out another cigarette, smiled back, and grimly replied, "No."

No, indeed, he muttered to himself. Not on your bloomin' layette. Four others preceded this. He winced in recollection.

Might as well smoke another cigarette, he thought. It's expected of me. He pulled out another smoke, lit it, and then noticed the first butt in the other corner of his mouth. He threw them both into the sand-filled stand at the end of the couch.

It was 7:33 a.m.

"Might as well stretch the old legs," he mused. The maternity corridor was empty. From the glass doors on the left to the swinging partition at the other end there were 37 paces.

"Boy, wait'll I get the bill for this one. That's all I need, on top of the furniture payments, the car, and the mortgage. These doctors and hospitals sure make out," his thoughts rambled.

THEN HE SAW the white gown on the hospital pushcart, and next to it a stethoscope was lying. He glanced up and down the corridor, and then picked up the stethoscope.

He remembered a story he'd read once about a bus driver who visited a large New York hospital every Sunday for 11 years. The fellow came in each week, picked up a dressing gown, a stethoscope, and one of those reflectors doctors wear on their foreheads.

He made the rounds, speaking to patients in the best bedside manner. He'd look at a patient's chart, listen to the heartbeat, feel the pulse, and sometimes even roll back the eyelids and take a peck. Then he'd murmur with a smile, "Hmm, you're getting along just fine, Mrs. Johnson."

"Built up quite a following among the nurses and the interns, too," the expectant father recalled. "Never would have been caught, either, if he hadn't entered into a discussion of methods in performing a lobotomy."

HE PICKED up the white gown as the thought passed his mind. "Oh, that's ridiculous," he said aloud, and flung both gown and stethoscope back onto the table.

He paced the corridor, knowing that the occasional nurse and hospital aide he passed took him for the typical waiting father. He knew they were thinking, "See how nervous he is. See how he fidgets, smokes, and paces." But this is all nonsense. He wasn't nervous a bit. He'd been through this four times before. It was just that a man can't sit on a couch and stare at the wall for two hours.

Two Laws Signed To Protect Tots

Two laws designed to protect children from hazards which have been in the news frequently in recent years were signed by Gov. Stratton last week following passage by the recent legislative session.

House Bill 686 by Rep. Zvaline requires protective covering or fencing about dangerous excavations. It provides a fine up to $200 or 60 days' imprisonment for failure to suitably cover or surround open wells, quarries, excavations for buildings, or other excavations. This does not apply during construction providing workmen or a watchman are present.

House Bill 428 by Rep. Zagone prevents the overloading of vehicles used in transporting children. No more passengers than recommended by the manufacturer are permitted in buses operated by private schools, day camps, summer camps, or nursery schools. Also, the bus must carry personal injury liability insurance in the minimum of $5,000 for one person and $100,000 for one accident. Penalties are provided for violations.

LANDINGS BY aircraft may be prohibited by public airports if it will endanger the public safety, health, welfare, or common defense, under Senate Bill 878 by Sens. Strunok and Larson, signed last week by Gov. Stratton.

Previously, only take-offs and ground movement were controlled by the airport, and a plane had to be allowed to land. (A13

Fires Go Down; Losses Go Up

More people are lighting fewer fires that cost more money these days, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Figure that one out and you've got the story of the arson, negligence, poor firefighting equipment, shortage of water, and rapid expansion of our cities that is driving insurance company costs and rates higher and higher each year.

In 1958, according to the national board, the number of fires in the United States declined slightly, but the fire losses skyrocketed over the $1 billion mark for the second year in a row.

To top it off, more people are lighting fires to defraud insurance companies.

The national board records close to 850,000 fires each year. In the past 22 years fire losses have mounted in each year but two.

The large loss fires of the past few years are attributed in many cases to the trend in industry to expand in suburban areas where fire protection does not meet the standards of a large city.

"It is apparent that large loss fires are now not uncommon in communities with inadequate fire protection and it is probably a reflection of the trend for industry to move to smaller communities which lack the fire department, water supply and other facilities necessary to provide the required protection," a national board report says.

Arson cases into which national board investigators were called numbered 3,698 last year, an increase of 263 over the previous year.

There were 578 cases that involved attempts to defraud insurance companies. The losses on the fires amounted to more than $19 million.

The board investigators also handled 644 inland marine cases during the year. The investigations ran the gamut from burglary to hi-jacking. Recoveries amounted to over $400,000. (B8

Unwrap Vast Electrical Expansion

Commonwealth Edison company has unwrapped a $700,000 electrical service expansion program for the northwest suburban area.

Plans call for construction of an eight mile long 138,000 volt transmission line in Wheeling and Palatine townships and will be considered by the Illinois Commerce Commission at a hearing in Chicago August 10.

The added electrical capacity is designed to meet the increased demands by growing numbers of customers in the Arlington Heights, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, and Prospect Heights service areas of the utility.

THE CONTINUING building boom will overtake present facilities by 1961, the utility says.

According to the program to be submitted at the 10 a.m. Monday hearing, the power line would extend from an existing line near Palatine and Wheeling roads, south of Wheeling, and run west to a substation to be erected near Northwest highway and Quentin road, northwest of Palatine. (B8

Reporter Does Night Beat with Policemen

by JACK MARTIN

Practically everybody has a subconscious desire to be a policeman. No doubt this is why Dragnet, Badge 714, and the rest of the TV police programs have been so popular.

And though many would prefer being a private detective, most would settle for a squad car and a right to be nosy about people's business. It was for this reason that when a blue squad car rolled out of the Arlington Heights village hall parking lot Friday evening, a third passenger, a reporter, was sitting in the back seat wondering how exciting the "night beat" really was.

Officer Leroy Weith was at the wheel, and his partner, "Bud" Bischoffer explained that they had just returned from the north side of town, where they had returned a lost three-year-old to his mother. Hardly the work of television heroes, but the boy's mother didn't seem to mind.

It was 4:30, for those who want the facts, and squad car 110 headed for the Euclid-Northwest hwy. intersection for a traffic detail. After seeing that the Grigsby plant employees got safely onto the highway, the cops were back in the car.

"BUD" RADIOED headquarters a "10-8," (that means the car is back in service) and "central" replied "10-22" (that means come back to the station). Back at headquarters the policemen looked through a stack of mug shots for a likeness of a man who had recently molested an Arlington Heights woman.

At 5 p.m. the car was due at the Pure Oil offices on State rd., another traffic detail. "Bud" spouted "10-6" into the radio (that means we're busy out of the car), and central replied "10-4" (that means message received).

When the Pure Oil traffic was cleared, the patrol was underway again. After stopping at headquarters for "Bud's" sun glasses, the pair headed for Wilke rd., where they placed road blocks across Brown st. and Oakton in order to keep the race track traffic from using local streets.

Things weren't very exciting, so the reporter asked some questions. The officers explained that Arlington Heights is divided into four patrol areas. Squad cars are delegated to the north side, the south side, and to the traffic detail (that was us), which is responsible for all highways. A motorcycle patrols the downtown section of town.

A RADIO MESSAGE interrupted the explanation. Policemen who were handling race track traffic on their free time had asked for some help on Euclid st., where motorists had been using a forbidden third lane.

We parked on Euclid and waited. We didn't wait long. A blue Chevrolet pulled out of the pack, raced down the third lane, and then cut back into the inside lane for a right turn. Excitement at last.

Seconds later a race track groom from Chicago was the picture of politeness as he explained that he never makes a practice of breaking the law and was wondering why the boys "couldn't settle it right there between them." Refusing the generous offer, the officers handed him a ticket.

The race traffic cleared, and car 110 became a delivery service, taking plats of a proposed village improvement to the various trustees, village attorney, and mayor. On the north side a small girl was pushing her younger brother in a buggy down the middle of a street. The officers moved them onto a sidewalk with the comment that suburban mothers never know where their children are.

It was suppertime, so the policemen took 20 minutes to eat at a local snack shop.

SOMEWHAT APOLOGETIC for the lack of activity, the cops headed for the famous Wilke-Northwest highway intersection, where traffic arrests can be had with a minimum of effort.

The wait wasn't a long one. A '56 Buick cut across the Chick-a-Dee drive-in parking lot, hesitated, and darted onto the highway. Despite the flashing light, the motorist seemed unaware that he was being followed and uttered a startled "Oh!" when he climbed out of his car at Polk Bros. Another ticket.

Officers Weith and Bischoffer were dispatched to the north side, where a housewife complained of anonymous telephone calls using obscene language. The cops checked it out and promised to "keep an eye" on the house for the rest of the evening.

Returning from the complainant's home, the patrolmen began a check of businesses along Northwest highway. Turning left on Wilke rd., the automobile immediately in front of the squad car zipped up to about 60 miles per hour in the 30 miles per hour zone. A wrestling match was going on in the back seat.

The police caught the speeders just south of Campbell, and a romantic double date was abruptly interrupted.

THE COPS WENT back to the office to type a report. The report was interrupted by an Arlington Heights mother and her two daughters, who stated that a man in a convertible had followed them "all the way from Des Plaines."

The convertible, minus stop lights and a light over the license plate, was spotted outside the police station, and the motorist was apprehended. Since he had done nothing more than follow the women, he had to be released with only a ticket for improper lights on his vehicle.

The police checked back to the home which had received the obscene phone calls. Nothing amiss.

Returning via Northwest highway the patrolmen became eye witnesses to a drag race. With the aid of a stop light the two automobiles were halted, and two teenage drivers had bright new yellow tickets to show for the night's activities.

It was a few minutes till midnight, and the 4-12 shift came to an end. The 12-8 shift was coming on. No murders, counterfeiting, or other such TV dramatics, but a tired reporter couldn't help thinking that some 20,000 villagers are getting their tax money's worth.

Extension Is Granted in Secession

Barrington Hills has been granted a second extension, this time to August 31, to answer a petition that seeks to disconnect 470 acres from the village.

The delay was granted last week by Judge Otto Kerner in Cook County court.

Six adjoining tracts of the James E. Glyman property are involved. The land is east of Bateman road between Algonquin and Dundee roads in Barrington township. Included is the northwest one-quarter of Section 17 of the township, which is northeast of Algonquin road and one-half mile west of Sutton road.

THE PETITION to sever the property from the village was filed by the Chicago Title and Trust company, as trustee.

The unsubdivided acreage is on the village border and disconnection would not isolate any sections of Barrington Hills from one another, the petition states.

State law provides for the disconnection of land on the border of a village by court order upon the finding that a proper petition was filed. (B8

Lingering Mistrust Between Church and Science

Religion Awakens to Growing Problems of the Mentally Ill

by RICHARD C. HOFFMANN

(Last of a Series)

"It is time that science found God and religion discovered sex." —Erich Fromm

Dr. Fromm, in this remark attributed to him in a television interview, was pointing to the dichotomy - nay, divorce - which apparently exists between psychiatry and religion.

But is this schism really so wide and unbridgeable? Fromm suggests that it is not by his somewhat cryptic but salient statement.

For Psychoanalyst Fromm (author of "Escape from Freedom" and "Man for Himself") has been one of the implacable foes of authoriatarianism in all its forms, including the religious trappings it sometimes assumes.

BUT MUCH has transpired since theologians categorized Freud with Darwin as reducing man to the level of a dumb brute.

"I think we're on the brink of a creative dialogue between religion and psychiatry," says the Rev. Dr. Martin E. Marty, Elk Grove Village Lutheran pastor, who is also historian, author and editor (for the "Christian Century").

"There is an increasing acceptance of the role religion plays in fulfilling human needs just as the workaday minister sees the fruits of psychotherapy." Marty feels the two disciplines no longer fear each other; that they are beginning to communicate.

He offers as an example the increasingly popular summer retreat ("It's reaching the proportions of a fetish") where psychiatrist and theologian gather.

NOW THERE is the Academy of Religion and Mental Health, established in 1955. There is the Ministers' Workshop on pastoral care of the emotionally handicapped, held at nearby Illinois State hospital in Elgin.

The important thing, Dr. Gerard W. Weber, Arlington Heights psychiatrist, thinks, is that the clergy recognize its limits in the counseling situation. For mental illness in unskilled hands is fraught with much the same danger that a goldfish might encounter in a barracuda tank.

Rev. Marty agrees. He chides the "psychotherapist in clerical collar" who has "completely accommodated" himself to the new faith. This, he feels, is a form of exploitation in which psychiatry is used as a new, applied type of religion.

"The two biggest problems," he said, "are the difficulty of translation between the two fields and the continued intrusion of religion on psychiatry. The minister who tries to be a psychotherapist is playing with fire. Yet, there is still a reluctance to refer (the emotionally disturbed to a psychiatrist); there is a lingering mistrust of psychotherapy."

Both Dr. Weber and Rev. Marty are aware of the historical competition between these two areas of concern; both too, seem to feel that psychiatry is gaining the status of acceptability.

AND THERE are certain parallels which can (with trepidation) be drawn between these diverse disciplines:

—Both are legitimately concerned with the ultimates of the human condition. In fact, the literature of psychology in its view of man in his totality has resulted in psychological explorations into the "supreme doctrine" of Zen Buddhism, in tomes appearing on existential psychoanalysis, and in other fields formerly foreign to its thought.

—Both psychiatry and Christianity, for instance, were founded by prophets of their time who were crucified, one literally, the other verbally; and both were incorporated and formalized into movements by a priesthood of adherents.

—Both have of late been marked by departures from discipleship, with emphasis being placed on that which is efficacious (and works) applied to the framework of present social dynamics.

—Both have contributed to and set racing the thoughts of the other (by attacking if nothing else that discipline's dogma).

(Psychology, for instance, has seemed to confirm what religion at least suspected: that man isn't the rational animal the Age of Enlightenment thought him.)

AND ONE of the first thinkers to examine the extremes of absurd thought was the melancholy Danish theologian, Kierkegaard. It evolved into an existential psychoanalysis developed by Jean Paul Sartre from which the psychiatric movement is now drawing additional clues as to psychic stresses (other than libidinous) produced by our Age of Anxiety. (This question is examined conversely by Theologian Paul Tillich in "The Courage to Be," in which he draws from the context of contemporary psychology.)

This problem of existence, Rev. Marty thinks, is reflected in what he has called the "mono-dimensional" life of the suburbs; it is a condition marked by boredom, apathy and a feeling of the meaninglessness of life.

"Now, when a housewife goes to the doctor it might as often be that she feels neglected as that she is suffering from some neurotic anxiety," Marty said.

Dr. Monte J. Meldman, Arlington Heights psychiatrist, admits to applying some existential psychoanalysis in a few of his cases. Does modern man worry about death? Yes, Dr. Meldman thinks.

SOME MIGHT THINK this concern with existence would negate some of the biological determinism in Freud's thought; that it would refute the "Pansexualism" decried by some clerics.

But as Dr. Weber notes, it has been only recently that the Puritanical pale cast on America over the issue of sex has lifted, due primarily to the impact of the Kinsey reports.

Sex, however, is still not viewed in its proper perspective. "Now, sex is exploited, made stimulating and suggestive," Dr. Weber said. "In Europe," he compared, "sex is seen as an ordinary part of life; it is not overemphasized." And in marriage, he said, sex should be seen as a necessary complement to intellectual and emotional harmony rather than the main orchestration in this discordant symphony of life.

But in speaking of the most outstanding single contribution to mental health, Dr. Meldman returns to organic origins when he says "penicillin."

"One-third of all admissions used to be due to advanced syphilis," he noted, with paresis similar in symptoms to old age psychoses.

And psychiatry, as shown at Forest hospital in Des Plaines, is just beginning to treat the mentally ill "globally," or in all man's psychological and physiological ramifications, refusing apparently to view body and soul any longer as separate entities.

THIS PSYCHO-somatic unity would seem to abruptly terminate any thoughts of courtship between psychiatry and religion.

One must consider, of course, is "complete accommodation" between these two areas of thought really necessary? Perhaps a recognition of each others' limitations would be more realistic; that those who are scientist-priests and saviour-scientists should redefine their roles.

But whether expiating guilt or sin, there is still common ground for exploration: if psychology can describe, "distorted value systems" then religion can fight this growing trend toward materialism. (The economic psychology of motivational research has done little to assist this cause.)

In more practical matters, an increased attempt at "creative dialogue" would probably result in more early deliveries of the mentally disenfranchised into professional hands by minister, priest and rabbi.

And this dialogue should be extended to include improvement of judicial processes concerned with mental illness. As Wheeling township justice of the peace, Attorney Walter P. Dahl, points out, mental illness may first be detected by general practitioners who can do nothing in a legal sense to see that it is treated.

"I had a man in here the other day whose wife was diagnosed as mentally ill by her family doctor. She had taken her children with her and vanished. The husband said the doctor wouldn't sign commitment papers, however, because he wasn't a psychiatrist and was afraid of being sued," Judge Dahl sighed.

"A general knowledge of religions is essential to the psychiatrist," Dr. Weber says, adding that he encourages a patient to take up religion if it is thought that it will prove emotionally satisfying to him.

BUT HE CAUTIONS that intellectual lucidity is not enough; emotional insight counts for much more in the therapeutic processes. "Most of my patients have read half a dozen books on peace of mind and the psychology of everyday living before coming here," Weber related.

But perhaps a final parallel could be broadly drawn between these articles of science and faith in noting that the message of Freud and of Jesus appeared to be one of love. From "No man is an island," a psychological observation, to "Let he among you who has not sinned (or known the torment of guilt) cast the first stone," a moralistic judgment, is not too long a stride.

Add to this the comment of the Forest hospital's psychiatric director, Dr. Rudolph G. Novick: "There is no sharp line distinguishing the mentally ill from the healthy." Mental illness then is neither remote nor improbable.

This being accepted, we can consider Nietzsche's great outburst: "Instead of the judge, the creator." (B8

Waycinden Utility Sued By Attorney

Norman E. Visdal, an attorney has filed suit to collect $13,250 from Waycinden Sewer & Water company.

The money is due him for services rendered in obtaining the Citizens Utility Corporation of Stamford, Conn. to purchase stock in the sewer and water system located at Mt. Prospect and Algonquin rds. according to the suit. It's on file in Circuit court.

The employment contract was signed by Edwin A. Herzog, president of the Waycinden company.

THE SUIT says Visdal "procured Citizens Utility corporation as a purchaser and performed all of the labor required by him to be performed under the terms of the contract."

According to a copy of the employment contract, which was made part of the suit, the Waycinden company offered to pay Visdal 5 per cent of the sales price. His demands for payment have been refused, the suit alleges. (B8

Doughnut Day Is Successful Here

"Doughnut Day" taggers in Arlington Heights raised $384.71 for the benefit of The Salvation Army on the annual tag day held June 12, reports the Arlington Heights Woman's club which sponsored Doughnut Day.

The club joins with The Salvation Army in expressing deep appreciation for the generous response of the Volunteer taggers and contributors.

Total "Doughnut Day" contributions amounted to $157,767.17, announced Mrs. Henry D. Paschen, general chairman of the drive. Tagging in the suburbs was organized under the direction of Mrs. G. Reed Basinger of Oak Park, suburban area chairman, and Mrs. Earl O. Ehrhardt of Elmhurst, co-chairman.

The drive was held throughout Chicago and 142 suburbs in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, Will and Lake (Indiana) counties.

"DOUGHNUT DAY" contributions help support The Salvation Army's program of emergency assistance and social services offered to persons in need in the greater Chicago area. The Salvation Army performed a service for one of the distressed every 11 seconds throughout 1958. All services are given without consideration to color or religion.

Twenty per cent of the funds raised in the local "Doughnut Day" drive will remain in Arlington Heights, as in other communities where local Salvation Army service unit committees are organized. These funds are used for local emergencies or disasters, and to finance unduplicated programs of health care or other service. The service unit committee, comprised of representative residents acting on behalf of The Salvation Army, decides how the funds will be used to assist needy individuals or families.

Mrs. C. H. Rosene, 404 E. Fairview, was in charge of liaison between the club and "Doughnut Day" headquarters.

The 1959 quota for Arlington Heights was $375.

IN A SCENE from Summer Stage's "I Am a Camera," Natalia Landauer, played by Maeva Hoppe has been involved in a Nazi street riot. Jeff Clark as Fritz Wendel is doctoring up her face.

"I WILL POUNCE, and I will snarl," says Don Baylor, director of the Summer Stage production, "I Am a Camera." John Nimmer and Jeff Clark watch while acting tips are given. The play will be given August 6, 7 and 8 at Miner Junior high school at 8 p.m.

"I WILL THROW them from my window as you leave." Here Schneider played by Lynn Shaughnessy is getting ready to throw some china and glass at Sally and Chris, played by Susan Marshall and John Nimmer, which proves that anything can happen in "I Am a Camera" which will be presented August 6, 7 and 8 at the Miner Junior high school at 8 p.m.

Eastwood Events

A halfway point for a Sunday picnic is a delightful way of getting together scattered families. The Sam Cullison family, 511 N. Hickory, had such a family get-together Sunday at Riverside, where Mrs. Cullison's sister lives. Other family members, including her mother and two sisters from Gary, Ind., joined the fun.

A 1200 mile cruise down the Illinois, Mississippi and Ohio rivers into Lake Kentucky was taken by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Watson and their son, Lee Jr., of 603 E. Eucild ave. Towing Lee Jr's. speedboat at the back of their houseboat, the relaxing slow trip down and up the rivers, took four weeks. When the Watsons docked at the different boat clubs along the way, Lee Jr's. speedboat came in handy for water skiing. Four years ago the Watsons took this same trip in a cruiser and enjoyed it so much they decided to do it again this year in a houseboat.

Since their return last week, Mrs. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Atkinson of Tuscaloosa, Okla., have arrived to spend several weeks.

FOR THREE and a half weeks Bill Kasper and his son. Billy, toured the west. Half of the time during the 6300 mile trip they camped out in the national parks at Denver, Yellowstone and Yosemite. While in Denver young Bill took the 59-mile train trip from Durango to Silverton, via the same train that was featured in "Around the World in 80 Days." Their itinerary also included visits with friends in Fresno and San Francisco and a stop at Las Vegas.

While the men in the family were away, Mrs. Kasper and daughter, Karen, visited with Mrs. Kasper's mother, Mrs. Suhi, at Long Lake, Waterford, Wis.

Visitors for one week at the George Brinke household, 307 N. Lincoln lane, were nephews, Loyal and Lowell, from West Virginia. Since the boys are Milwaukee Braves fans, Mrs. Brinke and son George, accompanied by Mrs. Mutti and Jack, took the boys to see the Cubs play the Braves. To the delight of everyone but Loyal and Lowell the Cubs won!

IN HONOR of Mr. Brinke's birthday on July 27, a group of friends wished him happy birthday at a cocktail party to celebrate the occasion.

Birthday wishes are also sent to Mrs. Virginia Heitz, July 19, and to Don Carstens who celebrated his 19th birthday July 26.

Mrs. Mutti's June 24 birthday was celebrated with a luncheon for friends and neighbors, which included Mrs. Mary Birdsall of Glenview and Mrs. Sy Dhregmeier of Glenview Countryside. That evening Mr. Mutti took the family and Mrs. Mutii's mother, Mrs. Kate Czarnik and brother, Harry, to the Evergreens for dinner.

John R. Mutti, 314 N. Beverley lane, was among the individuals invited to be part of a citizens committee to assist the board of education in plans for a third high school for this district. The initial meeting for the group took place Monday night at Arlington High school. Kenneth Dougan, 1103 E. Euclid, is president of the board of education, district 214.

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY greeting is sent to Mrs. Petersen, 710 E. St. James, who celebrated with "dinner out" on August 4.

Miss Lynn Shaughnessy, 646 N. Dryden, will appear in the role of Fraulein Schneider in Summber Stage's production of "I Am a Camera" which will be given on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week at Miner Junior high school. Summer Stage is a group of local high school and college students who are interested in dramatics.

Eversharp To Leave Arlington

Administrative offices of the Eversharp Pen co. will move from Arlington Heights to Janesville, Wis., home of the Parker Pen co., parent firm of Eversharp. The move is scheduled for September 1.

Eversharp's manufacturing operation, located in Culver City, Calif., and its retail sales force across the country, will not be affected, according to the announcement.

OFFICIALS STATED that by moving main offices to Janesville, Eversharp Pen will gain economic and communicative benefits plus taking greater advantage and equipment there.

The Arlington Heights offices were opened in January, 1958, shortly after Parker purchased the writing instrument division of Eversharp, Inc., and established the new company. (A

TOO YOUNG to graduate. This Virginia Terrace tot may be lamenting this fact as he sees friends line up for their diplomas. "Students" favored large assemblage of parents with short program illustrating what they had learned during the nursery school. Girls charge 50 cents a day per child.

THE BEST PART of the program, according to the Cech twins, 1402 N. Chicago. Refreshments were served to parents, graduates, and relatives following the ceremony. In addition the students received a lolly-pop with their diplomas. School sessions this summer began at 10:30 a.m. and lasted till noon. (AF

Problems Created By New State Laws

By: W. RUSSELL ARRINGTON

The Governor has now completed action on all the 1357 Bills passed by the Legislature at its last session.

As has been his custom in the past, the Governor took positive action on each of such measures. He has persistently refused to follow the practice of preceding Governors in permitting a Bill to become law without his signature.

All past records for vetoes were exceeded this time. A total of 215 Bills were rejected by the Governor and five additional ones were vetoed in part.

A VARIETY of serious problems have been created by some of the new measures. A particularly serious one relates to municipal revenue heretofore and now being derived from fines, costs and other emoluments in connection with violations of municipal ordinances. These funds constitute important contributions to the revenues of our municipalities.

Because, however, the local Justices of the Peace are being put on a salary basis instead of the much-condemned fee basis, their compensation will be paid by the counties. Correspondingly, fines and costs assessed by the J.P.'s will be paid into the county. The obvious purpose of this provision is to provide the county with the funds with which to pay the salaries of the Justices of the Peace.

These moneys, though, will not be required to be transmitted to the County Treasurer until May 1, 1961.

In my opinion, at the next session of the Legislature in 1961, a variety of measures will be introduced to modify this arrangement.

ANY MUNICIPALITY, however, which has provided for an elected Police Magistrate can retain fees and costs assessed by the Police Magistrate. Unquestionably many of the municipalities in my senatorial district will give serious consideration to reinstating the elective office of Police Magistrate and filling the office by a special election. Also those municipalities which have both Justices of the Peace and Police Magistrates will take steps to insure that all cases involving violations of municipal ordinances will be heard only by such elected Police Magistrates.

This whole problem will also compel a consideration of creating either municipal courts or city courts by the various municipalities. This gives rise to a host of problems which will require the best thinking on the part of our local officials. At the present time the only municipality in my district which has its own municipal court is the City of Evanston. I am informed that Skokie is considering this possible solution very seriously. Fortunately there remains almost a two-year period in which the problem may be considered and resolved to the best advantage of the municipalities.

I think we will all agree that the Bills adopted at the last session affecting Justices of the Peace were highly desirable. But, as the foregoing demonstrates, attendant problems have been created by the new legislation.

PART OF THE cast for the Arlington Park District's 12th annual water ballet line up for photographer. Some 100 girls will participate in the production, which has a Broadway theme. Ballet begins at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Pioneer Park pool. (A

"WHEN PAIN GROWS SHARP AND SICKNESS RAGES"

*(Author's Name Below)

Pain is an indication of sickness. Persistent recurring paint is nature's warning signal that something must be done soon to correct the condition or serious danger may result.

No one but a physician has the knowledge to determine if a pain is the result of a minor or serious condition. Pain is just one of many other symptoms to be studied if a cure is to result. Do not wait till pain grows sharp and sickness rages. Consult your physician immediately to prevent other pain-filled days and possible serious sickness.

Arlington Greens

An 11-day camping trip ended in Kentucky and Tennessee enlast Thursday for the Fred Darlane. Selecting scenic campsites gatz family of 1184 N. Beverly abled them to visit such popular spots as Kentucky Dam village, Mammoth cave, Cumberland gap and the Smokies. Living outdoors was a special treat for the girls, Nancy, Susan and Debra. Three-year-old Carol didn't join her family, but instead visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Toerpe in Glen Ellyn.

Former residents of the Greens, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Podwojski of Santa Barbara, Cal., were "in for the day" guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Roby, 1149 N. Beverly lane, last Monday. An afternoon party given by Mrs. John Mundell, 1123 Beverly, gave the Podwojskis an opportunity to visit with some of their former neighbors.

The Walt Browns, 1146 N. Dryden, accompanied by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacArthur of Chicago, spent 10-days vacationing in a cottage near Paw Paw, Mich., returning last weekend.

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD Joan Gran, 1146 N. Hickory, celebrated becoming a teen-ager last Saturday afternoon and evening with a supper party and movies. Her guests included Susan Baugous, Sally Bell, Susan Dettloff, Sandy Larsen and Kathy Shannon. Just as her party was ending her grandfather, H. H. Tyler of Ocala, Fla., arrived for a visit for several days.

A trip back east for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, 1154 N. Hickory, their daughter, Arlene, and her guest, Joyce Berggren of Westgate, ended last weekend. For most of their 2-week visit, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Finn, Mountainside, N. J., Mrs. Barnes' sister and family. There was sightseeing and a trip to the Radio City Music hall in New York City, besides visiting numerous friends in nearby New Jersey towns.

Newcomers to the Greens are Thomas and Jane McCook to 1116 N. Douglas, who moved into their new home July 29 from Chicago, the Austin section. The McCooks have twin daughters, Cathy and Terry, who are a year old. Mr. McCook is a project engineer for Stewart Warner in Chicago.

Two weeks of cottaging at Wonder lake ended last weekend for Mrs. William Gardner, 1120 N. Haddow ct.,and the children, Dianne, John and Dale. While there, the Gardners arranged a family picnic July 25 for 30 relatives from Chicago and Milwaukee.

More vacation returnees are the John Summers of 308 E. Oakton, who were joined by the Jerry Dahls of 1111 N. Belmont for a week at a resort lodge near Brainerd, Minn. The children especially enjoyed water skiing and surf board riding. (A

Scratched Silverware

Scratches can be removed from silverware by means of a paste made of putty powder and olive oil. Apply with a soft cloth, rinse, and polish.

Grease Spots

To remove grease spots on a rug spread on a paste of fuller's earth and ammonia, and allow to dry. Then sweep the dry paste away with a broom, or use the vactuum cleaner.

The Cook Book

Why not paint the outside cover of the cook book with a thin shellac? Any dirt on it can then be wiped off with a damp cloth. The book will last much longer.

Spilled Grease

If there are grease spots on your floor or stone steps, make a paste of fuller's earth and water and spread this over the spots, allowing to remain for 24 hours. Repeat if the spot is not entirely obliterated.

Books on History In Great Demand

Books dealing with dramatic moments in history have a perennial appeal for readers at the Arlington Heights Memorial Library, according to Mrs. Charles Stadelman, librarian.

Many of these vividly written and interesting books are hour-by-hour, day-by-day accounts of historic events that have had a lasting effect on men and nations.

The events of World War II are told in a number of dramatic titles. "Day of Infamy," by Walter Lord, describes the attack on Pearl Harbor, while John Turner's "Invasion: '44" reconstructs the events of D-Day in Normandy.

DRAMATIC MOMENTS on the seas are described in such books as Walter Lord's "A Night to Remember," the story of the sinking of the Titanic on April 14, 1912, and A. A. Hoehling's "The Last Voyage of the Lusitania," which narrates the torpedoing of the Lusitania by a German submarine early in World War I. Thomas Gallagher's "Fire at Sea" is the story of the Morro Castle, while Alvin Moscow describes the recent collision of the Stockholm and the Andrea Doria in 'Collision Course."

Epoch-making events in our national history have also been the subject of various books. "Four Days in July," by Cornel Lengyle, and "July 4, 1776," by Donald Chidsey, tell the story behind the Declaration of Independence, while "William Diamond's Drum," by Arthur Tourtellot describes the day the American Revolution began. Donald Chidsey's "Valley Forge" re-tells the story of the winter the Continental Army spent at Valley Forge in 1777-1778.

THIS COUNTRY'S Civil War has also been represented by numerous books, such as Fairfax Downey's "The Guns at Gettysburg,"; Mary Hoehling's "Last Train From Atlanta," Burke Davis' "To Appromatax," and the new books by Philip Van Doren Stern, "Secret Missions of the Civil War" which narrates first-hand accounts of the underground activities for the North and the South. Of the Civil War titles, Frank Haskell's eye witness account of "The Battle of Gettysburg" is one of the outstanding factual reports in Civil War Literature.

Other books which describe history-making events include "Thirteen Days to Glory," by Lon Tinkle, which describes the famous Battle of the Alamo; "July, 1863," by Irving Werstein, the story of the five bloody days when New York City mobs protested over the new Civil War draft laws; and "The Great Chicago Fire," by Robert Cromie, which describes the 1871 holocaust.

MORE RECENT dramatic moments of far-reaching importance are re-told in such books as "Nautilus 90 North," by Commander W. R. Anderson, which describes the world's first underwater trans-polar voyage, and Sir Vivian Fuchs and Sir Edmund Hillary, which tells the thrilling story of the expedition which crossed more than 2,000 miles of unexplored ice and snow to discover what lay on and below a continent never before traversed.

The most dramatic day in the history of the world is told in Jim Bishop's "The Day Christ Died," which fully describes the day on which Christ gave up His Life upon the Cross.

Oldest Congregation Prepares for Moving

When the St. Peter Lutheran church congregation moves into its new facilities next year, it's quite possible some parishoners will get their first look at their minister during church services.

This unique bit of information emphasizes the changes in store for one of Arlington Heights oldest congregations when they move from their 77-year-old church, school, and activity building site on N. Highland ave., just off the Northwest hwy. to a new 22-acre, million dollar plant on N. Oakton st.

The present church, built in 1882 at a cost of $16,000, is constructed in such a manner that supporting pillars prevent a third of the downstairs seats from viewing the altar or pulpit. Only the first row of balcony seats are afforded a view of the altar, which is located beneath the pulpit. Neither can the organist, located in the balcony, view the minister at the altar.

NOT ONLY WILL each of the new church's 800 seats provide an unrestricted view of the rest of the church, there will be a TV monitor located in the balcony to relay services to an overflow in the basement.

This largest church construction expenditure in northwest suburban history will include besides a church, an administrative building, a 14-room school, and an activity building--a far cry from the congregation's humble beginning in 1860 when a small frame structure on S. Evergreen st. with rough board benches served as a house of worship.

The church's organization came about because of the difficulty of the early German pioneers in making the trip over muddy roads to the Elk Grove Lutheran Church. A written resolution signed by the heads of seven families pledged to "establish and support a German Protestant Lutheran" congregation. Even today services are conducted twice a month in the German language for over 100 parishioners of the church's 1700 communicants. Such services will continue to be held in the new church.

AN INDICATION of the support given the church by its members through the years is revealed by church records which record 3,628 baptisms, 2,839 marriages, and 2,216 burial ceremonies.

Final and farewell services in the church will be held Sunday, August 9 at 1:30 p.m. in German and at 3 p.m. in English.

The congregation will meet in their activity building across the street from the old church until their new facilities are ready sometime next summer. Both the activity building and the school on the east side of Highland ave. are for sale. The church site has been sold to a supermarket chain.

A FINAL TURN of the key next week will close forever the doors of St. Peter Lutheran Church in Arlington Heights. The 77-year-old church will soon give way to a supermarket as the congregation moves to a new church location. Shown locking the doors are the pastor, Rev. Robert C. Bartz. Looking on is the assistant pastor, Rev. L. C. Bernthal.

Poet's Home

The farmhouse in which Walt Whitman was born, near Huntington, Long Island, was dedicated as a New York state shrine on the 140th anniversary of the poet's birth, May 31.

ONE OF THE few remaining churches that gives services in both English and German, St. Peter Lutheran in Arlington Heights, stands on tree shaded Highland ave. Over 100 members attend the German services given twice a month.

SUPPORTING PILLARS of church prohibit a third of downstairs congregation from viewing minister during services. Only first row balcony seats are able to view altar. Church is one of few remaining in which pulpit is located above altar.

High School Study Group Organizing

More than 40 residents of high school district 214 met Monday night and elected John J. Solon, 614 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, as temporary chairman of a citizens committee to assist the board of education in plans for a third high school.

A resident of Arlington Heights for 10 years, Solon was authorized by the group to choose members of a committee which will nominate a permanent chairman and members for sub-committees to study problems involved in construction of the new school.

Names of the nominees will be submitted to the entire committee at their next meeting August 17, 8 p.m.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS, representing various civic and school interest groups in the district, heard school board president, Ken Dougan, urge them to familiarize themselves with school needs so they could act as a liaison with the rest of the community.

A tentatively scheduled bond issue for November will seek funds to construct a school on a 40-acre site on Goebbert rd. in Elk Grove township. The proposed high school would accommodate 2500 students and be comparable in size and educational facilities to Prospect high school.

In selecting the Elk Grove site, the board followed the recommendation of a Northwestern university study that determined the district would need a third high school by 1962 and a fourth, near Wheeling, by 1964. (AF

Horseshoe Tourney Winner Is Sheahan

Bob Sheahan, 1605 N. Chestnut st., parlayed an unusual technique and "the luck of the Irish" into victory at the Hasbrook horseshoe pitching tournament Sunday.

Sheahan defeated Howard Sjogren, 1802 N. Walnut st., by scores of 21-11 and 21-10 in the playoff match held in the park at Chestnut ave., Maude and Mitchell sts.

A week earlier, the double-elimination tournament had narrowed down to Sheahan and Sjogren from a field of 22 contestants when play was called because of darkness.

TROPHIES will be presented to the first and second place winners in about 10 days by Bob Jend, 1723 N. Chestnut ave., chairman of the Hasbrook Civic association sports committee. The tournament was arranged and staged by Jend's committee, with the aid of Bob Dunn, 1605 N. Chestnut ave.; Norval Nelson, 404 W. Thomas st., and Larry Piefer, 1735 Walnut st.

Sheahan, who attributed his win to "the luck of the Irish," grips a horseshoe by the end and hurls it end over end toward the stake. An orthodox player holds the shoe by the side and flips it in a horizontal spin.

Except for several practice sessions in weeks preceding the tournament, Sheahan said he hadn't pitched horseshoes for 15 years. His only previous experience at the sport came during his Army days in World War II, he said.

Tied for third place in the Hasbrook contest were Jake Gordon, 539 W. Ridgect., and Carl Pasquale, 1805 N. Walnut st. (A

Forest View School

Registration of all new pupils who will attend the Forest View school will be held Wednesday, Aug. 12, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. If they are unable to register at that time, please call Mrs. Hutchings, CL 3-5518, for further information.

Eddie Lauing was one of the Little Leaguers of Mt. Prospect who attended the Sox-Washington game Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baldassari and children, Gary, Debbie and Donald, and nieces, Cerol and Diane Baldassari, were Sunday visitors at the Tom Baldassari home. Tom and his brother, Joe, took the children to Santa's Village.

The Harvey Mehlhops attended the following wedding receptions: for Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bork, Bensenville, July 25 at the Bensenville fire house; July 31, for Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Schinn, Park Ridge, at Park Ridge country club; and August 1 for Mrs. Mehlhop's niece, Carol Mehlhop, who married Dick Thompson, at the VFW hall, Des Plaines.

LAST WEDNESDAY there was a gala celebration for the John Nitzes to celebrate their ninth anniversary. Accompanied by their friend, Frank Ford, they had dinner at the London House and afterwards went to the Palace to see "South Seas Adventure" in cinerama.

Mrs. Bernard Olson's niece, Patricia Joling, Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., is spending two weeks with her aunt and family.

George, Joe and Patty Rodriguez attended summer school at St. James Catholic school for the past six weeks. Joe and George were confirmed July 27 at St. James church.

Sunday lawn party hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rossberg entertained the Henry Panjans of Chicago at their home on Golf rd.

David Wilder attended the Chicagoland Baptist Church camp in Bridgeman, Mich., for a week. He left July 26 and returned August 2.

Relatives of Mr. Stan Luczak who gathered for the annual family reunion at the Luczak home, picnicking, swimming and playing games Sunday were the Joseph Przybylskis, Eleanor Fritz and children, Henry Przybylskis, Harry Pzybylskis, Ron Draftzes, Ben Wieras, George Wilsons and Sharon Luczak's girl friend, Marcella Beigel.

Friends and neighbors extend their sympathy to Mrs. Theodore Palmer upon the death of her husband, Theodore, July 28. (A

Summer Camp for Retarded Children at Half-Way Mark

At the end of the first half of the 8-week session of summer camp at Countryside Farm School for Mentally Retarded Children near Palatine it was agreed by teachers, counselors and parents that it has served a manifold purpose in summertime recreation and education. The 16 mentally retarded children who attend the camp range from 4 to 20 years of age. Many of them are regular students at the school, but some only attend the summer camp.

Activities include swimming, hiking, gardening, exercises and handicrafts. Indoor musical games are also used on rainy days.

Barrington Park District has offered the use of its pool facilities two days each week to the children. Other outings have included a trip to the airport, a visit to a pony farm and a day picnicking at Honey lake.

THE STAFF at the summer camp includes the director, Mrs. Gwendolyn Pittenger, and employed counselors, Rex White, Frank Embrey and Donna Sturm. Also doing a fine job with the children is a group of local teenagers who are giving much of their summer vacation this year to aid the project. They work from three to five days a week without pay. All agree the experience has been invaluable, and they have enjoyed the privilege of working with these exceptional children. The volunteers are Elaine Engelking, Carol Holzman, Pat Gutekunst, Carol Rose, Pat Sanders, Rick Smith, Jim Smith, Lynn Shaughnessy, Barbara Vaughan and Linda Makl. (B8

New Driver Misses Turn, Hits House

Officer Albert H. Bauer of the Arlington Heights police force was rocked out of his bed Sunday morning at 4 a.m. when a would-be motorist smashed into the corner of his house at 804 W. Elm.

By the time he had dressed, Bauer found the automobile and its driver had fled. However, he followed the water left by an injured radiator until he found Constance Thom nursing along a damaged vehicle with the assistance of her brother, Roy.

MISS THOM, who gave her address at 800 W. Oakton, told police that her brother was teaching her to drive while driving home from an outing. While she was negotiating the right hand turn from Salem to Elm, her brother, who attempted to step on the brakes, inadvertently floored the accelerator, plunging the car through Bauer's yard, shrubbery, and into the corner of his house.

Bauer stated that the southwest corner of his home was now cracked from the foundation to the roof, and that two feet of the bottom corner was broken away. There was also damage to the grass and shrubs.

Block Sewer Lids to Stop Flooding

Three reports of basement flooding following last week's downpours were attributed to street widening and additional pavement.

Two basements on S. Highland and one on S. Mitchell were reportedly flooded. Public Works Superintendent William Luehring said the widening of S. Highland and the addition of the telephone company parking lot caused the water to flow faster and back up in the storm sewer.

The public works department said the situation was alleviated by cementing the inlets to slow down the drainage. The water will stand on the street longer but will not end up in someone's basement.

Village Manager L. A. Hanson asked residents who have downspouts connected to existing sewers to please disconnect them in the interest of their fellow residents. He said that flooding has been spotty, but aggravated by the downspouts.

Local Lawyer Helps Plan Spy Reunion

Arlington Heights Village Attorney Stephen Jurco is one of three northwst area residents serving on planning committees for the 12th annual reunion of the National Counter Intelligence Corps association Friday, Saturday and Sunday in the Edgewater Beach hotel.

The attorney served with the nUited States Army during World War II and was stationed in the Gary, Indiana, industrial area, before being sent overseas for two years. He was a civilian clothes agent in England for six months, handling security matters for troops stationed in that country.

Featured in this weekend's reunion will be a Saturday morning address by Maj. Gen. Richard G. Prather, chief of the counter intelligence corps, Fort Holabird, Maryland. A convention highlight will be the crowning of a "Miss Cloak and Dagger."

Announce Sale Of 40 Acres

The sale of 40 acres east of Polk Brothers on Northwest hwy. for $250,000 was announced this week by Clarence A. Hendrickson of Willson and Florence, Arlington Heights realtors.

The buyer, identified only as a Chicago investor, is considering using the land for a motel and restaurant, said Hendrickson. The final sales contract will be signed October 1. Owner of the land was Harry Paske.

Legion Thwarted In Parking Bid

A still split village board last week thwarted for the second time Arlington Heights American Legion's attempt to gain an off-street parking requirement waiver in order to expand their building at Douglas and Miner sts.

Their petition rejected by board members last month, Legion members, with Harold Klinger as spokesman, argued last week that the parking requirement ordinance does not apply to lodges or fraternal organizations located in industrial districts, as is the case with the Legion hall. An opinion by Village Attorney Stephen Jurco, however, reasoned otherwise.

Legion plans call for an addition on the south side of their building. The parking ordinance requires 15 spaces for the addition. The Legion can provide six behind their building. The remaining nine would be provided on E. W. Rowles company property behind the Legion building.

THE CATCH, however, is that the agreement with Rowles, manufacturer of school equipment, may be terminated on 30 days notice.

Arguing for the second time for approval of the Legion's request, Trustee Eugene Schlickman noted that parking requirements for the Legion could be satisfied by parking spaces on the east side of Recreation park, and that Legion and park activities don't conflict.

The board, however, voted as before with Trustees Melvin Kurtz, Bob Bukowski, and Bill Sauer opposing the request, and Trustees Schlickman, Wendell Prunty, and Samuel Wit favoring it. The absence of Mayor Edward Carlisle to break the tie vote resulted in rejection of the petition.

Police Examinations Set

The Elk Grove Village police and fire commission will give examinations for prospective patrolmen Thursday, August 13, with two immediate openings to be filled on the force.

An eligibility list will be maintained for those persons who pass the tests but are not among the first hired, the commission said.

The exams cover a written exam, oral interview and physical aptitude test.

APPLICANTS without previous police experience must have reached their 21st birthday but not their 35th birthday before the date of the examination.

The commission is asking that they furnish three letters of recommendation, proof of a high school education or equivalent (which will be determined by the commission) and pass a physical examination to be given by their own doctor. Veterans should furnish honorable discharges.

Those applicants who have already filed for employment should refile to conform to commission standards, the commission said.

Barber Shop Chorus Sets New Date for Performance

The Arlingtone Barber Shop chorus had their last Recreation park concert rained out so they are slated to perform for the public August 9, at Recreation park at 4 p.m.

Striped vests, handlebar mustaches, and derby hats are the uniform of the day so everyone is invited to attend a colorful display of song and harmony as it was sung in Grandad's day.

The singers have set up an informal meeting arrangement as a way to beat the summer heat. Each week they meet in a members back yard. Chorus singing and quarteting (woodshedding as they call it) is the program for these evenings of fun and entertainment.

MEN WHO enjoy the harmony that barber shop singing offers are invited to attend these meetings. The meeting schedule for the remainder of the summer is as follows: August 10, home of Fred Smelter, 253 Michael, Hatlin Heights; August 17, home of Leonard Straub, 207 N. Maple, Mt. Prospect; August 24, home of Slats Stevens, 820 Foundry rd., Mt. Prospect; August 31, home of Walter Daube, 916 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights. Meetings start at 8:15. For further information call CL 5-1797. (ACM

First Non-Stop Hop

The first non-stop flight from London to Chicago arrived at O'Hare International Airport last Saturday.

Capt. R. G. Hanson of New York landed the Trans World Airlines Jetstream at 8:27 a. m. —16 hours and 5 minutes after it took-off from London.

There were 72 passengers aboard with a crew of 8 in addition to Capt. Hanson.

THE FLIGHT followed the Great Circle route across the North Atlantic to Canada over Montreal to O'Hare. The flight covered nearly 4,000 miles.

TWA schedules twice-weekly non-stop flights from London and once weekly from Paris to O'Hare. It has been operating non-stop flights to London and Paris.

Several airlines will increase their O'Hare flights Aug. 21. American and TWA will add Boeing 707 jets to San Francisco and increase piston-engine schedules to other points.

Townships Affected By New State Laws

The new law placing justices of the peace on a salary was only one of a series relating to township organization signed by Gov. Stratton as he finished going over more than 1,200 bills passed by the legislature.

House Bill 1361 by Rep. Burhans put the justices of the peace on a salary between $66 and $12,000, to be fixed by the county board, with all their fines and fees going to the county treasury. H.B. 1362 and 1363 applies a similar rule to police magistrates.

House Bill 1582 by Rep. Burhans eliminates the J.P.'s from the Board of Town Auditors and substitutes three members to be elected at large, to serve with the supervisor and town clerk. This will be effective after the current terms of the justices of the peace.

HOUSE BILL 1584 by Rep. J. J. Hill provides the county board has power to pay all necessary expenes of J.P.'s in maintaining an office in pursuance of their duties.

House Bill 1582 repeals an act for consolidation of townships in cities having five or more, and for locating the offices of the J. P.'s, including the power of appointing J. P.'s given the board of town auditors in that law.

House Bill 861 by Rep. Jack Walker, establishes a salary of not over $8,400 a year for town supervisors in third class counties, with a provision for the supervisor to pay all fees to the town officers fund if a salary is fixed, but not otherwise. (B8

Injury Liability

Governor Stratton has signed three bills limiting the liability of counties, forest preserve districts and school boards for personal injury suits based on negligence by employes.

Two bills, House Bills 1638 and 1640, introduced by Rep. Joseph Lelivelt of the west Cook county suburbs, bars any liability of counties and forest preserve districts respectively in negligence actions.

The third, House Bill 1615 by Rep. Eberspacher and others, regulates the damages recoverable against school districts for injuries occurring as a result of negligence in the conduct of public schools.

Recently several suits have been filed in Cook county involving both forest preserves and schools based on recent Illinois Supreme court decision holding them liable. The new laws will limit this liability or eliminate it.

GOV. STRATTON has signed Senate Bill 822 by Sen. Daniel Dougherty of South Chicago and others, exempting property owned by the Chicago Regional Port authority from taxation, except that portion which is leased by others.

Also signed was House Bill 1070 by Rep. Craig and a $25,000 appropriation to study interstate shipping and sale of agricultural commodities and report to the next general assembly. (A13

The Way We See It

Suburban Streams Are Used as Garbage Pail

The Chicago metropolitan press has been full of reports recently of the problems of stream pollution in this area.

Many suburbanites seem to consider the nearest river or stream a legitimate dumping place for all kinds of trash.

Broken concrete, old hot water tanks, empty steel drums, cans, bicycles, discarded auto tires and even garbage are thrown into the water or on the bank.

Not only is this accumulation of junk an unsightly mess, detracting from the beauty of communities, forest preserves, and waterways, but much of it adds to the log jams that restrict canoeing, boating, fishing and all forms of recreation on rivers.

A campaign is under way to educate the public to a higher respect for waterways. Efforts are being made to clean up rivers and streams by acquainting citizens and local government officials with the River and Harbor act which provides for penalties of fines up to $2500 or imprisonment up to a year, or both, for dumping refuse in rivers.

Stream pollution is a serious problem in the Des Plaines river and some of its tributaries. As a start in educating the public, the county might erect signs along the river bank calling attention to the penalties for depositing trash in streams.

A careless public must be disciplined against using the county's waterways as a convenient garbage pail.

Distorted Values Creating Mental Anguish and Anxiety

"He is concerned with getting pleasure and enjoyment whenever he wants it, no matter what he has to do to get it,.... He has no feeling at all for the rights of others. He is unreliable, untruthful, insincere."

This set of symptoms would seem to describe a growing body of attitudes in our society, in which Organization Men, Hidden Persuaders, and moral inaptitude are prevalent.

It is, however, a description of a category of mental illness popularly known as "Psychopathic personality."

The psychopathic person is succinctly seen by a noted psychiatrist as one who "has a wealth of means but shows a poverty of results."

And this type of person is the most difficult to treat, for there is no common ground from which to start treatment. While mental illness is approached from the standpoint of mental suffering which the person is desirous of ridding, the psychopathic person neither profits from censure nor cares what others think.

But particularly disturbing about this description is that it is so applicable to the social attitudes of our time. Such words as "integrity," "honesty" and "conscience" have lost currency in our thought. They have been unsurped by "prestige," "getting along," and "conformity."

And this "distortion of value systems," as psychiatrists interviewed for this paper's series on mental health have described it, is responsible for much mental anguish and anxiety. As Aldous Huxley points out in "Brave New World Revisited," neurotic responses show a legitimate reaction to a world out of kilter.

Now the psychopathic personality lacking in conscience, feelings of humanity, decency, justice, honesty and responsibility is something else. "His sickness is in his character," reads one prognosis.

And this view can be enlarged to encompass American culture and its emphasis on the material: on flashy cars, automatic washers, and all other outlets for "conspicuous consumption."

It can be seen in the utter disregard for the inmates of our mental institutions where this country's "wealth of means" has shown such a "poverty of results."

What is needed then is a "concern" for the nation's number one crippler: mental illness.

In the last in the series on this subject in this issue, the roles of religion and psychiatry are discussed. And religion, as it was theoretically conceived, requires this individual concern of man for his fellows.

That this concern is lacking—that the sickness is in our character—is all too apparent, as a visit to our mental institutions and juvenile courts will bear out.

For psychiatry, however reluctant to moralize, can describe; and religion, even if lacking the more penetrating tools of description, should moralize. And with this revitalized "concern" of each man for his fellowman "the truth shall make us free."

New Sanitary District Law Significant for the Future

Among a number of legislative measures that eased through Illinois' general assembly during the rushing final days of the 1958 session was House bill 1392.

It deals with a comparatively quiet subject at the present time, but the bill's stipulations should have more extensive significance in future years. Involved is the extension of service provided by the Metropolitan Sanitary district of Chicago into parts of DuPage county.

The measure allows applications to the district for service from any DuPage county municipality that also extends into Cook, and vice versa. It was authored and presented in the house by Rep. William A. Redmond, DuPage's freshman offering at Springfield on the Democratic side.

There is more to the bill than meets the eye, for it appears that at least a fair-sized hole has been knocked through an imaginary wall that had previously been dented only a few times along the DuPage-Cook line. And the hole has been produced with a worthwhile point of public need.

Bensenville is one of the several villages affected by the law which was moved through the upper house with the urging of Sen. John Graham, Republican from Barrington. This community is expected to make use of the opportunity in the very near future.

Pending cooperation of the city sanitary authorities, Bensenville would probably like to make use of the virtually unlimited facilities from the Metropolitan district as quickly as possible. The village is growing rapidly like many others and is currently in the middle of an industrial surge.

The existing Bensenville disposal plant is very fine on the level to which it has been used in the past, but it has been estimated that $250,000 would be needed were it to be brought up to date to meet expected demands of the next few years —a financial requirement that could not easily be acquired.

Other towns to which the bill can be applied if and when they find the need include Hinsdale, Roselle and Bartlett. It is in the Bartlett connection that Sen. Graham saw need for supporting the law since this Cook community has a problem in the same connection.

The bill now permits Bartlett, when it's ready, to supply the section of the village that laps over into DuPage county with the sewer facilities that residents in this area have been expecting. And still other cities and villages in this day of expanding boundaries will undoubtedly find use for the measure later.

Great Art and Gore

TV Bullfights Offend Clergy

By MARTIN MARTY

Evidently tickets are not going well for the Pan-American games. In order to draw attention to them, Chicago had its Lake Shore Drive blocked twice for some bicycle races. And in order to promote understanding of our Latin American neighbors. WBKB Saturday night telecast several bullfights. Anything goes as long as it promotes understanding, though I have a hunch the bullfights helped understanding along as much as would a filmed tour of the brothels of Tijuana. They showed us our neighbors at something less than their best.

Not that we have any reason to judge them; we have some vices of our own. Let's not judge them, then: let's look at ourselves. Why must we broadcast bull fights, and watch them, and defend them? (Admittedly, I didn't have to watch — but then, where would I have found grist for this column?) And, worst of all, why must we go through the hypocrisy of presenting "both sides" of the issue. As if WBKB really wanted to know!

By now it should be pretty clear what my own reaction was. Journalists are to make their living off the obvious; columnists make theirs by finding the by-paths and exploiting the unexpected. I choose today to be perfectly obvious and to portray the reaction I would hope laymen should expect of clergymen, who are supposed to care a thing or two about humaneness and humanity. There is no reason to panic over the presentation of a video-taped bullfight or two. We have seen this in movies and read of it in books; great art has been inspired by the gore. But at this particular moment in history, during the last little twilight before the total dark sets in, we should be stressing the other side of man's relation to others, to men and animals and nature.

What was to me the most regrettable aspect of the display was the presence of a clergyman on the panel lending his sanction to what he kept referring to as an "art." The fact that he was a priest was irrelevant; I trust regular readers of this column to know that my remarks are not prompted by a religious prejudice; no doubt some Protestant ministers and some rabbis share the offbeat hobby and would be willing to let religion be exploited for such purposes. On the clergyman's part, we may write it off as a mistake in judgment, a hazard every man of the cloth takes on himself—and for which forgiveness must be and is plentiful.

The more significant dimension is one we frequently explore here: that American society at all its points of uneasiness likes to wheel out religion as sanctioner of its evils and as purger of its apparent enemies. WBKB could have found other bullfight expert; it did not need to have a man with a collar except for creating the religious illusion that this was a live option for Christian people. All the "equal time" for response in the world will not erase the first impression. We were reassured by the priest that the stabbing of the bull is not torture and does not hurt because a brave bull will be enraged and thus will not feel it and a coward will be chased away. He did not mention that no one asked the bull whether he wanted to fight and whether it hurts: a race-driver or a boxer has a rational option.

This isn't first of all a plea for bulls, or a complaint of a crank. While I never amused myself in boyhood by tearing out wings of flies or blowing up toads, neither am I a vegetarian, anti-vivisectionist, or Schweitzerian: I like a few feet between myself and most animals. But if one's first concern is not what this does to a bull, there is still time to think about what this does to man and to men. Here religion and the Christian faith have no option but to range themselves against all needless suffering by anyone (or anything) at any time at any place, particularly in the clear-cut case of causing cruelty to another for the sake of amusement. If this kind of thing goes, we may not be as far along the road as we thought from the days of bear-baiting or eye-gouging. Or so far from barbarism as we shall have to be for the crises of the years we face.

The contrast is apparent: "Which of you shall have an . . . ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?" (Luke 14:5) "What a beautiful way to spend a Sunday, watching the art of killing a bull in Mexico City . . ."

Please Rush

I have read so much about "an out-of-town" publication in one of our local newspapers that I feel I must indeed be missing something by not availing myself of its news coverage. After investigation, I learned that the publication so mysteriously referred to is the Hoffman Herald and I am enclosing a check for $4 to cover subscription. PLEASE RUSH ME THE NEXT ISSUE. ### Nerve Tonic

Having been blessed with five normal boys who like to do the things normal boys do, go to the park for a game of baseball, go for a hike, or over to a boy-friend's house for a game of checkers, I thank the village of Arlington Heights for the noon-siren; for I know that the boys know that when it blows it's time for lunch; and even though many people wear watches, or have access to a time-piece, who ever knew of a boy that cared what time it was, especially when he is chasing a rabbit, or is on third with a chance of winning the game. Of course there are the children who sit in front of a television set all day, and can tell the time of day by what television program is on, they wouldn't need the siren.

And then there's that poor housewife, how long will that set of dishes last; and with the price of milk going up, how many gallons of milk can that man afford to break. But then think of all the overtime the garage mechanics can get with all the accidents that happen because of that 'jinni wail at noon.'

May I say in closing, I dread to think of the havoc that could happen if we should ever have to depend on these people in case of an air attack. Maybe they should all see their doctor and have him recommend a nerve tonic.

Underpaid Men

Your timely editorial regarding policemen's salary in last week's Herald was very commendable. We have a fine police force. Let us keep it that way by paying a respectable salary.

The men in this hazardous occupation have always been underpaid. Their salary was never commensurable to the hazards involved in their everyday work.

Library Needs

On August 11, the people of Mount Prospect will have a chance to say whether they want their library enlarged. The board of directors of the Mount Prospect public library invites the voters to visit the library in order to judge for themselves as to whether the present quarters can adequately serve the public.

We invite you to look at the stacks and ask where can more books be placed. We ask where can more tables and chairs be placed for reference study. We want you to see the line at the check-out desk waiting for service. We invite you to visit the work room where books are repaired and catalogued, where clerical work is done and where records are kept.

The library is probably used more than any other public building in the village. It is open six days a week, Monday through Friday from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. with a two hour shut down at noon and from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturdays. It is open 12 months of the year.

The present building was adequate 10 years ago when circulation of books amounted to 24,641. Circulation last year was 144,041. It was designed to house 12,000 volumes. Over 20,000 books are now on the shelves.

A well-informed voter is a good citizen. Before you vote on the bond referendum for the library addition on August 11, we ask you to become well-informed. All you need to do is visit your library.

Corn Crop Threat To Rural Motorists

Motorists driving on rural roads are urged by the Illinois Traffic Safety Division to use extreme caution during the next few months because the corn crop has reached a height where it substantially reduces driver visibility.

Robert A. Campbell, state safety coordinator, said reduced visibility at rural intersections will be a hazard from now until the time the crop is harvested, about the middle of October.

"Rural Illinois highways are dotted with hundreds of intersections," Campbell said, "and at this time of the year they are doubly dangerous because of growing crops which impair the driver's ability to see."

"Many accidents at these blind intersections could be avoided," he said, "if motorists would use more caution and less speed."

STATE HIGHWAY division figures show more than 63 per cent of all fatal accidents in Illinois occur on rural roads. An estimated 10 per cent of the rural road fatalities and 20 per cent of these rural accidents occur at intersections.

"Another factor which makes rural driving especially dangerous at this time of year," Campbell said, "is the fact that many farm implements are on the road."

Farmers often must cross busy highways to get from one field to another.

"The frequency of accidents involving tractors and nonfarm vehicles is on the increase," he said. "When a farm tractor and an automobile are involved in a fatal accident, it usually is the farmer who is killed," he said.

CAMPBELL suggested farmers plan ahead to avoid unnecessary movements of farm equipment on heavily traveled roads. "When farm equipment must be moved on highways, pick a time when traffic is comparatively light, he advised.

"Only the most experienced operators should take farm machinery onto the highway," Campbell said. "And if there are no lights on the vehicle, it's much safer to leave it in the field overnight."

Motor Vehicles Create Headache for Schools

How times change...

It wasn't too long ago that kids walked—or, if they were lucky, rode a bike—to school each day. Some of our parents even rode horseback to school.

Those days, the distance most children had to cover was at least a mile, often more—and regardless of the wather.

THOSE DAYS are gone forever. Many students still walk to school, but increasing numbers drive.

The problem of schools in bygone days was to get enough racks for students' bicycles. Today, high schools often must build parking lots to hold the mass of motor vehicles their students arrive in.

If schools don't construct parking lots, students have to leave their cars around the school building— thereby creating a traffic hazard for motorists and pedestrians.

The motor vehicle, then, can be quite a headache to schools.

Nearly six million teenagers —many of them students— drive cars. They make up about 1 out of 14 of the nation's 80 million licensed drivers.

A TEENAGE driver is involved in 1 out of 10 fatal auto accidents. Main fault of teens, according to the National Safety Council: a tendency to speed.

"Lots of teenagers drive to school today," the Council said. "And, unfortunately, young people too often get an urge to show off around their friends.

"The result? More accidents involving teenagers."

Solution to the problem?

"One way to bring down the accident toll among young drivers is for every student to take driver education," the Council said. It urged adherence to this driving code:

1. Be proud of your driving. Do your part to prove teenagers can be the best drivers on the road.
2. Smooth driving is the mark of a pro. Don't make jackrabbit starts, squealing turns and fast stops.
3. Be courteous at the wheel. Give the other fellow a break.
4. Don't try to get ahead of the other driver, or to even the score if he's inconsiderate.
5. Speed is a killer. Adjust it to road, weather and traffic conditions.
6. Keep both hands on the wheel and your eyes on the road.
7. Obey the law. Stop at stop signs.
8. Keep your car in top condition. Give special attention to tires, lights and brakes.
9. Don't be a bumper chaser. Keep a safe distance between you and the car ahead.

Motorist, 28, Killed In Running Stop Light

ABOVE, POLICE LOAD Lee R. Thomann, 34, of 21 Charles lane, Elk Grove, into an ambulance after he lost control of his car and rammed into a tree along Illinois 72 two miles east of Illinois 53 on the west side of the forest preserve. Thomann was listed in fair condition Wednesday at Resurrection hospital. Below, the impact of the crash was registered in this photo. The mishap occurred Sunday morning. (B-8

The past weekend was marked by a rash of traffic accidents-including a fatality - in the northwest suburban area, according to District 3 state police reports.

Killed at 2:30 a.m. Saturday when he failed to stop for a red light at the intersection of Illinois 53 and Illinois 72 was Earl Baker, Jr., 28, of 307 E. 2nd st., Dundee.

Police said that Baker was travelling west on Illinois 72 and failed to obey the traffic signal, smashing into the side of a combination tractor-semi truck headed north on Illinois 53.

Baker's station wagon was described as a total wreck by police. Damage to the tractor, driven by Clarence Henry McCollough, 45, of 2229 Winnebago st., Madison, Wis., was estimated at $250. The body was taken to Sherman hospital, Elgin.

IN OTHER MISHAPS, Lee R. Thomann, 34, of 21 Charles lane, Elk Grove, was still unconscious in critical condition in Resurrection hospital where he was taken after an accident Sunday morning.

Thomann apparently lost control of his car and plunged across the roadway while headed west on Illinois 72, smashing into a tree. The mishap occurred two miles east of Illinois 53 in the forest preserve. Police said the accident occurred at 6:55 a.m. His 1957 automobile was a total wreck.

Other accidents included:

August 2: Cited for following too close was John L. Dynowski, 20, of 2704 N. Merrimac, Chicago, after he ran into the rear of a car going south on Illinois 53 a half mile south of Illinois 62 in Schaumburg township.

The other auto was driven by Jesse J. Hardesty, 54, of 9127 S. Yates, Chicago. No one was injured, police reported. They estimated damage, however, at $500.

Also on August 2, police issued a traffic citation to Edward Torres, 40, of Rt. 3, Box 254, Bensenville, for following too closely, after he ran into the rear of a car going south on Illinois 83 one-and-a-half miles south of Illinois 58.

Police said that dirver of the other car, Irving Miller, 32, of 8052 S. Marshfield, Chicago, had stopped for traffic backed up for two city blocks. No injuries were reported; damage to the vehicles was $550.

AUGUST 1: POLICE cited Robert Baumgartner, 18, of 75th st., Naperville, for following too closely after he ran into the rear of a car going north on Illinois 53 two blocks north of Illinois 62.

Mrs. Catherine Romano, 29, of 529 Ardmore st., Villa Park, a passenger in the other car, was taken to Sherman hospital in Elgin for treatment of injuries suffered in the mishap.

Her husband, William S. Romano, 29, escaped injury, but the couple's four children were shaken up in the crash.

A passenger in the Baumgartner car, Jenine Janick, 15, of Rt. 2, Naperville, suffered bruises. Damage was set at $500 to the two vehicles.

Also on August 1: John Guyton, 54, of 4753 N. Clark, Chicago, was cited for following too closely after he hit a car he had been following north on Arlington Heights state rd. stopped for traffic at the intersection of Illinois 58.

Guyton suffered bruises in the collision, and his wife, Lucille Guyton, 46, of 762 Willow st., Itasca, was shaken up.

Driver of the other car was Joseph J. McNamara, 39, of 5729 N. Mulligan, Chicago. A passenger in his car, Patrick McNamara, 69, of 5456 N. Nagle, Chicago, was shaken up. Damage was estimated at $550.

JULY 31: A mishap at Benton and Michigan sts. in Palatine township a mile west of Illinois 53 and two miles north of Illinois 62 caused $300 damage to vehicles. Police said that Arthur A. Webb, 52, of 135 E. Michigan st., Palatine, was going west on Michigan and entered the intersection of Benton st. at the same time as a car driven by J. F. Bimmerle, 16, of 208 S. Oak st., Palatine. Bimmerle was headed south on Benton st., police said. No traffic citations were issued.

July 30: Police cited Idele M. Hannula, 26, of 101 Carthage lane, Roselle, for an improper left-hand turn after she turned onto Aztec rd., cutting into the path of a car headed east on Illinois 72.

The car, which ran into the side of the Hannula auto, was driven by Frank Dumelle, 20, of 841 Monroe st., Carpentersville. Two children in the Hannula car were not injured, although a passenger in Dumelle's automobile, D. McMillen, 20, of 2625 N. Burlington, Chicago, was shaken up. Damage to the vehicles was estimated at $525. (B8

Editor Tells Universities Of News Role

A Paddock Publications editor was a guest speaker at a clinic at Valparaiso university Friday, at which some 17 colleges and universities were represented.

Speaking on the topic, "What's Wrong with Our Releases," Ted Smart told publicity agents for the schools that readers were being increasingly subjected to "laboratory manipulation" by "news technicians."

"Many journalism schools are toying with the idea of changing over to schools of communications. Several major universities have already," Smart said.

THE PADDOCK editor defined schools of communications as those emphasizing the study of psychology, motivation research, and statistics of public opinion polls, and charged that this approach to journalism leads to a "cold-blooded, statistical assault on the public."

"Mass manipulation is of special value to advertising people and commercial public relations men. And, while knowledge of what motivates people is of general value to newsmen and college publicity people, it should not be the sole approach to college publicity," Smart declared.

Instead, Smart said, the responsibility to truth and good writing techniques should remain the tools of the college publicity man's profession.

Retarded Kids Enjoy School In Barrington

The Countryside association for retarded children is doing a wonderful job with the day camp in Barrington.

The camp, with Mrs. Pittinger in charge, holds classes and play periods from 9:30 to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Children of all ages attend.

Although a few problems arise occasionally, Mrs. Pittinger, with the help of volunteer counselors, keeps things on a pretty even keel.

The summer day starts with all the children assembled to say the pledge to the flag, and sing a chorus of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." They are then asked to select their own name card from the chart and give their age. After a brief learning period, they go into the supervised play area.

THE CHILDREN then are served fruit juice and the counselors take them in to change to swim suits. The school owns a small pool where the children learn to relax and have no fear of water. The older and more capable children are taken to the Barrington pool. When they return lunch is served on picnic tables under cool shade trees. After lunch the smaller children rest, and older ones who wish to do so may tinker around the work shop. Here they may make place mats and potholders from various looms, weave baskets, paint and color.

Mrs. Pittinger operates the camp on a small budget. There are many things needed and wanted, but finances are few. The association would appreciate any donations sent to the Countryside association for Retarded Children, Box 364, Barrington, Ill.

Baker Alumni Plan Reunion

A meeting of all Chicago area alumni of Baker university will be held Sunday, August 9, at the home of the Philip Tapleys, 514 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

Dr. John Scarborough, president of the Baldwin, Kansas school will be the guest of honor. A special invitation is given to any high school students interested in learning more about the liberal arts Methodist school.

The basket picnic will be from 4 to 6 p.m. (A13

Bruce, son of Joan and Curtis Wayne, 1237 N. Chicago, celebrated his seventh birthday last Saturday at an afternoon party. Although Brad Trowe, John Noerenberg and Kathleen Dahl were unable to come, Sue Ann Herbert, Marianne Crouch, Donald Brown, Scott Nielsen, Bobby Koenig and Jack Hult were on hand to wish him many happy returns.

Joan's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gates and children, Cindy and Robby, Maumee, Ohio, spent three days last week with the Waynes before starting off again on their 6,000 mile vacation trip, which, says Joan, will be mostly under cover or a tent trailer, which her brother built himself, and which can be erected in 12 seconds, complete with bunk beds.

Dolores Rawley, 1222 N. Chicago, was guest of honor at a farewell luncheon July 25 at the Milk Pail. Wishing her well in her new home were La Verne Reichert, Marva Kuhl, Dorothy Henneman and Jean Derrick.

A vacation trip lasting almost three weeks was recently enjoyed by La Verne and Bud Reichert, 1208 N. Chicago, and their children, Terry, Dennis, Michael and Jimmy. A grand tour of the west was on their agenda, with stop-overs at Yellowstone National park, Grand Canyon and Phoenix, Ariz. While La Verne says the latter is a nice city, she doesn't think any of them would have survived the 115 degree heat if it hadn't been for the motel, complete with two swimming pools.

Arriving home in time to celebrate the birthdays of twins, Dennis and Michael, 12 July 23, the family went out to dinner and treated them to the movie, "Sleeping Beauty."

Three days later, Terry became a teen-ager and the Reicherts celebrated this birthday with an overnight trip to Devil's Lake, Wis., where they enjoyed dining out, swimming and other activities available there.

LAST SATURDAY the Lancer baseball team composed of several Terrace boys, were guests of Bill Veeck and other Comiskey Park officials in honor of Little League day. The boys were thrilled and enjoyed an exciting performance between Chicago's White Sox and the Washington Senators.

While no party had been planned, Therese, daughter of Ellen and George Sottung, 1722 Oakton, who was one Sunday, was the center of attraction that day. Her maternal grandfather, Herbert Anderson, and great uncle, H. R. Anderson, both of Skokie, and aunt, Mrs. Fred Adams, and cousins, Audie and Mary, Northbrook, dropped in during the afternoon to wish her a happy birthday. Therese's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sottung, Chicago, had planned to see her that day, but were unable to make it after all.

A week's camping trip at the Hiawatha National Forest park, near Lake Superior, Mich., was recently enjoyed by Dorothy and Charles Catlin, 1609 W. Olive, and their children, Virginia May and Susan. Most of their time was spent investigating their natural surroundings and going swimming, fishing and boat riding.

Jo and Les Rozdalovsky, 1321 N. Race, and their children, Shirley and Mary Jo, went to Milwaukee last Sunday to attend the baptism of their niece, Laura Louise, daughter of Jo's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ned La Presti. After the church rites, the family returned to the La Presti home and joined other relatives and friends in a celebration marking the occasion.

NO SOONER had the Rozdalovsky famly returned home that evening, when they received a surprise visit from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Noller and five children from Hebron, Neb., whom Jo and Les hadn't seen in 12 years. They all enjoyed catching up on the news Monday evening, when the Nollers returned to their home for dinner and a visit before continuing on their journey.

A luncheon party, followed by a trip to the Arlington Heights fire station was the order of the day for guests attending the fourth birthday party of Andy, son of Diane and Sheldon Staubitz, 1447 N. Race. The July 25 celebration was attended by his sisters, Jenny and Laura, Kenny Hermann, Linda Gustke, Jan and Skip Fluhrer, Scott Martin and former playmates, Colleen and Eileen Gorman.

A surprise birthday party was held the following Monday evening in the home of Andy's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roser, Chicago. There were balloon decorations, another birthday cake and ice cream. Present beside Andy's parents, sisters and brothers, David, was his uncle, Bud Roser.

June Hacker, 1252 N. Race, and Margay Wilmot, 1240 N. Race, co-hostessed a farewell luncheon party yesterday for Gianna Riefstahl, 1224 N. Race, who will soon leave the Terrace for her new home in Westgate. There to wish her luck, and present her with a gift of remembrance were Mrs. Adeline Wynn, Dorothy Clavin, Dorothy Ballard, Ginny Dowell and Gianna's sister, Lillian DiPalma.

GRACE AND George Rogers, 1313 N. Chicago, celebrated their wedding anniversary last Friday by first attending a performance of the "Music Man," after which they went to the Ivanhoe restaurant on Chicago's north side. The unique part of this evening spent with friends, is that it was a complete surprise to Grace. George had arranged every detail, even as to a baby-sitter.

Bunny and Bill Reinhardt, 1414 N. Illinois, are enjoying a week's visit from Bill's mother, Mrs. William Reinhardt, and cousin, Miss Dorothy Dressel, both of Forest Hills, Long Island, N. Y. Also enjoying their visit are the Reinhardt children, John and Jamie. The family has had much fun showing them around town and attending the local race track.

Announcing the arrival of a son born Sunday are Mary Lou and Ray Crouch, 1228 N. Chicago. Reports are that David Allan and his mother are doing well in Resurrection hospital, Chicago. The baby, who weighed 9 pounds 4 ounces has a sister, Marianne, 7. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Crouch of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglas, Rolling Meadows.

Danny, son of Pat and Bill Cotsakis, 1232 N. Race, was guest of honor at a family dinner party last Friday evening in celebration of his second birthday. His brother, Fritzie, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cotsakis Sr., Franklin Park, and his godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Grace, Arlington Heights, were on hand. Saturday afternoon his parents entertained Mrs. Eugene Van Der Merkt and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoover and five children, at a small party in Danny's honor.

AN AFTERNOON party was held last Saturday for Mary Jo, daughter of Mary Louise and Dieter Burkhardt, 1507 Clarendon. On hand to enjoy the birthday cake and ice cream were Kathleen Brown, Leslie Yates, Patty Henneman, Jill Turner, Ann Frisbie and Mary Jo's sister, Suzanne.

Miss Donna Watts, Warsaw, Ind., the daughter of a friend of the family, departed for home over the weekend, after being on hand the past two weeks to help Mary Louise with the care of the new baby, Curt, and the other four Burkhardt children as well.

Due to Terry'z being ill, her birthday party was delayed until last Friday, when she celebrated being 4 in high style. Her parents, Pearl and Dick Trummer, 1418 Oakton, held an outdoor splash party for Terry and her playmates, among whom were Lisa Yates, Ellen Frisbie, Barbara and Nancy Jo Geer, Barbara and Jimmy Brown, as well as her brother, Timmy. While they all enjoyed birthday cake, ice cream and favors, the highlight of the party was sliding down Terry's new slide right into the pool.

An outdoor barbecue, which proved to be a combination family birthday and welcome home party, was held later. Wishing Terry a happy birthday were her aunts and cousins, who had just arrived home from a trip to the east coast, her grandmother and aunts and uncles.

Marvis and James Terry, 1251 N. Chicago, and daughters, Sharon, Shea and Catherine, moved to their new home at 409 N. Reuter in Westgate yesterday.

JEAN AND ED Lussier, 1216 N. Chicago, welcomed their fifth boy July 27 in Resurrection hospital, Chicago. John Joseph, who weighed 7 pounds 6 ounces, will have enough playmates right at home, namely Bobby, Tommy, Jimmy and Eddie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Beahan, Evanston, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lussier, Glenview.

Janet, daughter of Phullis and "Hal" Vluhrer, 1433 N. Race, celebrated her fifth birthday last Monday at a luncheon party. Helping her to blow out the candles on the cake were her sister, Linda, brother, Skip, and playmates, Marilyn Donath, Leslie Griffith, Kenny Hermann, and Jenny and Andy Staubitz.

Tuesday evening there was a family dinner party to mark the occasion attended by Janet's aunt, Miss Tod Lane, Chicago.

Last Thursday a barbecue luncheon party was held at the home of Florence and Edward Paul, 1215 N. Race, to mark their daughter, Beverly's, 12th birthday. After lunch, the guests, among whom were Eleanore Robertson, Sheila Danes, Wendy Brogan, Sheryl Seyfert, Janet Crowe, Kathy Hartig, Kathy Jazuet, Mary Ellen Wilson, George Geots, Jim Vidte, Ed Broderick and Danny Quane, participated in a scavenger hunt.

A family dinner party was held that evening. Sharing the festivities were Beverly's brother, Edward, sister, Mary Beth, maternal grandfather, K. P. Deveikis, Cicero, as well as aunt and uncles.

Betty and Jack Sorensen, 1406 N. Chicago, and children, Nancy and Richard, recently returned from a 3-week vacation at Glen Lake, Mich. They were joined there by Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Hewitt, Springfield, Ohio, and Jack's mother, Mrs. Louise Sorensen, Detroit. Besides enjoying swimming and boating, they attended the Cherry festival and were in on the crowning of the Cherry Queen. To complete their good time, they came home by way of the auto ferry, which transported them across the lake to the Wisconsin border. (A

Coming Week to Climax Park District Summer Recreation

by JOEL CARTER

The coming week climaxes the park district recreation program with most of the summer activities giving a special show or exhibition to highlight their closing.

The swimming pools and playgrounds will remain open for everyone's use but most instructional activities will be phased out by the middle of August.

The program is scheduled this way because of the popularity of late summer vacations among park patrons. Many children are so enthusiatic about water ballet, swimming lessons, handicraft, etc. that they hate to miss them even for a trip to Florida. The necessity for back-to-school preparations among both patrons and staff is another reason for the early closings.

FOUR PLAYS were presented last week to close the childrens dramatics classes. The pigtailed actresses and snaggle-toothed actors played a two night stand at Recreation fieldhouse.

The ninth annual Lions Club Junior Olympics was held yesterday. The big competition closed the supervised playground games program.

Coming within the next few days are the water ballet, handicraft exhibition, gymnarama, Teen Theater play, and conference swimming meet. News stories giving details on these events are found on other pages.

OVER SIXTY YOUNG people have completed the Red Cross lifesaving courses taught by Bob Mors. As a certified water safety instructor Mors gave the stiff course to groups of expert swimmers to build a backlog of life savers in the community. These qualified people will make swimming safer wherever they are and help reduce the toll of summer accidents.

Nine life saving graduates continued in a teaching course to certify them as instructors or water safety aides. It is from such people that we select our pool staffs and volunteer assistants.

New instructors are Larry Smith, 611 W. Wing; Barbara Rasmussen, 202 S. Windsor; and Gail Smith, 221 Wilshire lane.

Completing the instructors aide course which is open to persons under 18 were Dale Gobel, 306 E. Fremont; Karen Kastning, 507 N. Pine; Mary Rumph, 121 N. Maple; Bernadette Tucker, 36 S. Salem; Sue MacDonald, 827 S. Burke; and Linda La Starge, 318 N. Yale.

Q. How should a woman be governed about rising from her chair to show respect to an older woman?

A. In most cases, she should rise for a woman who is more than twice her own age. Much depends, of course, upon the "older woman." Older women who are trying to appear very young might resent any obvious show of deference. Old-fashioned, comfortably older women, on the other hand, would probably like it very much.

TO YOUR HEALTH!

This is much more than a popular toast to your pharmacist. Like your physician, he is dedicated to a single major cause — to keep you well and healthy.

The "ounce of prevention" adage is all important in preventive medicine. Annual physical examinations and prompt diagnosis of illness enable your doctor to save you precious time and money.

More and more people recognize the wisdom of a regular medical checkup. It is the best way to put that "ounce of prevention" to practical use.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

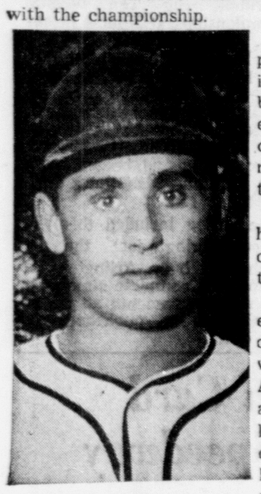
By BOB FRISK

BETTER CROWDS but a lower caliber of individual talent.

That about sums up the weekend of baseball in the Cook County Jr. Legion tournament at Recreation Park.

In the second tourney put on by Merle Guild Post 208 of Arlington Heights, the class of teams and personnel was noticeably weaker than in 1958 when Herb Reilly's Oak Park club walked off with the championship.



BOB PETERS

But although the tourney field appeared to be weaker than '58, the fan interest picked up considerably. The host Merle Guild Post was blessed with excellent weather for opening day proceedings, and a natural rivalry between nearby Park Ridge and Skokie added to the increased attendance.

Even Calumet City and Berwyn had adequate fan support, and those clubs had a pretty good distance to travel each day.

This interest in legion baseball, as exemplified by the tourney, and the excellent manner in which the finals were received lead us to believe that Arlington Heights could host—and do an excellent job in handling the state legion tournament. Although nothing definite has been said, there is speculation that the important state finals will come to Arlington—maybe not by '60 but very possibly by 1961.

Legion baseball plays a vital role for youth and we heartily commend this program. But the way the metropolitan papers take to publicity for legion ball is unfortunate.

Take the Cook County finals for example. We know a man phoned in detailed information after each game to the Chicago papers yet there was very little play given to any contest. Here were four teams representing a good cross-section of the papers' reading public, and yet you had to dig for a sentence or two on the results. It appears a little more descretion could be used in handling publicity when an event such as a Cook County tournament is involved.

Berwyn's representative stood out as the class of the tourney after the first four contests. With southpaw Bob Peers and Dick Kurtz toiling on the mound, Berwyn had no trouble disposing of Calumet City and Park Ridge.

Peters fanned the first three Cal City batters, then proceeded to add twelve more in the final eight frames. The only thing which kept Peters from complete mastery of the Cal City nine was his lack of control. Bob walked eight, including five in the first three innings.

Individual standout in the weekend action was a husky third sacker from Skokie who looked as impressive in the field as he did at bat. Bob Klingensmith delivered four hits and became the first player in the two years the tourney has been at Arlington to slap a homer over the fence. Klingensmith's ninth inning shot cleared the left-center barrier at about 370 feet from home plate.

Bob was blanked in Sunday's battle with Cal City but he still hit the ball hard. It would pay the scouts to keep their eye on this boy.

Why was the caliber of talent weaker in comparison to '58? It appeared that at least three of the clubs were stocked with young players who are a year or two away from stardom. When these boys "mature" in legion ball, they should make everyone take notice. Experience in tourney play and in legion ball shows up in a tournament as important as the Cook County finals.

Individual standouts for each team during the weekend of play would be Klingensmith for Skokie; Peters for Berwyn; Jim Teutemacher for Calumet City; and little Dan Humay for Park Ridge.

Teutenmacher pitched Cal City's victory and was an impressive sticker, and Humay, though not flashy still turned in a steady performance with four hits, two runs scored, and two runs batted in for two games. The brother of Park Ridge's talented pitcher, Jim Humay, Dan has a lot of potential to develop into an outstanding ballplayer. With a little added beef, the younger Humay could make fans forget the feats of his brother.

We'd like to pass out orchids here to Merle Guid Post 208 for another excellent job in handling the tourney. In addition, Dave Lynk and the Arlington Jr. Legion team should be commended for its work in getting the diamond in shape for the finals.

HERE'S SOME food for thought. What would be the reaction concerning a possible organization which would meet once a month for dinner with a definite sports format, preferably on a professional level?

This idea was passed along to this department last week and we thought we'd mention it and consider the reaction—if any.

Briefly, a prominent sports figure would be the guest speaker for the monthly meetings and appropriate films would be presented. How would the membership be formed? That's something that would have to be worked out, but the big question is concerning whether or not an idea of this nature would take hold in this area.

We feel it would, but we'd like to hear any additional comment.

Park Ridge, Berwyn In Legion Showdown

Park Ridge joined Berwyn in the finals of the Cook County Jr. Legion baseball tournament with a convincing 7-2 victory over Calumet City Tuesday evening.

The victory kept the ninth district representative alive in the double elimination series and sent it into the final action Wednesday against a favored Berwyn nine.

The two clubs were slated to battle at 1 p.m. Wednesday with a Berwyn victory clinching the championship. However, if Park Ridge won the first game, a second would have been played with the winner moving on to the state finals in Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 7-10.

THREE TEAMS have already qualified for the state finals, Litchfield, Fox Lake, and Murphysboro. Either Quincy or East Moline would be the fourth unit with the Cook County winner rounding out the tourney field.

Coach Glen Van Proyen's Park Ridge nine jumped off to an early lead Tuesday and was never headed with Jim Humay and Steve Benson sharing mound duties. Van Proyen took Humay out after four frames with the intent of saving his ace for Wednesday's payoff battle with Berwyn.

Park Ridge collected four hits in the opening segment with Dan Humay and brother Jim riding home with the pair of counters.

IN THE FOURTH the Mel Tierney Post turned three walks, three errors, and a hit by Dave Hamann into four deciding runs, and the victors added a single marker in the fifth on two walks and a hit by Dan Humay.

Cal City couldn't break loose at the plate and collected safeties in only two innings, the first and the sixth. Two walks figured in with two hits to bring in a pair of runs in the sixth.

Humay allowed only one hit for his four innings of work, striking out five. Benson, a soph at Maine high, finished up with a yield of two hits over the final five frames, fanning five.

Les Herman, a third baseman by trade for Cal City, started his first game as a pitcher and finally wilted in a fourth inning barrage. Herman, who set something of a record with ten strikeouts in his 13 trips to the plate during the tourney, was relieved by lefty John Wrona who had little trouble the remainder of the contest.

Grace Urges Early Action On Physicals

It's getting to be that time again.

Athletic Director H. W. Grace urges all Arlington high school athletes, including incoming freshmen, to get their physicals as soon as possible.

The athlete should mail the physical to School Health Services, Arlington high school, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Athletic registrations will be from Aug. 24-29 in Mr. Grace's office from 9-12 noon.

Before registering for athletics, the student should register for school at which time he will pay the insurance fee. The fees are as follows: football — $9.75; cross country — $2.25; special football service fee — $2.25; towel fee — $1. These are payable to Grace when registering.

No student will be registered by Mr. Grace unless he has met three requirements: (1) registered for school, paid insurance fees; (2) physical in hands of school nurse; (3) parents card signed.

Playoffs Battle Weather

by BOB FRISK

Russ Walters' Indians may sit back and relax.

With titles in both divisions of Senior League action this summer, the Indians reign as the first official champion of Arlington's extensive summer baseball program.

But although the Indians may have been crowned with a league championship, there are still seven other divisions which need some straightening out. And that matter is expected to be taken care of shortly.

Barring a visit from the unfriendly weatherman who seems to take a disliking to the Arlington Little League program, the final results for all the leagues should be in by Saturday afternoon. If that's the case, Arlington will have one champion for the two Major Leagues, and one for the juniors, the Intermediates, and the Varsity loop.

BUT THAT'S providing the leagues get a break from the weather. With that wishful thinking, here's the way the playoffs are slated to stack up:

Two games Wednesday night would have determined the respective champions for both the Northside and Southside Major Leagues. Wally Strobel's Dodgers and Jo Mader's Pirates were meeting for the Northside crown while Mike Wadzita's Red Sox and Frank Frohne's Athletics were clashing for the Southside title.

The series between these two winners opens tonight (Thursday) at 6 p. m. with a contest at Recreation Park's Northwest diamond. A second game will be played Friday at 6 p. m. at the Southside Junior High with a third, if necessary, Saturday at 10 a. m. at Recreation Park Northwest.

IN JUNIOR League play it's just a matter of a one game series Friday night at Recreation Park's Southeast diamond between Jim Millay's Padres and George Herbert's Owls.

Intermediate action posed another problem with four teams still battling for the playoff slots as of Wednesday. But if things went according to plan, either the Colonels or Comets will be meeting the Huskies or Seals Friday at Recreation Park Northwest in a 6 p. m. affair.

The Varsity League championship will be determined Friday at the high school's Southeast diamond with the Vikings meeting in either the Eagles or Rams at 6 p. m.

Torpedoes Hold Softball Lead

The top teams continued their winning ways in the Arlington park district Wednesday Softball league as the Recreation Park Rams beat Pure Oil 15-7, the Torpedoes downed Pioneer Park 5-4, the Sailors outscored the Army 18-10 and the Teachers whipped Arlington Acres 3-1.

Meet The New Coaches on AHS, Prospect Staffs

J. O. JACKSON

MIKE KARON
FORMER ILLINI

The split in athletic setups at Arlington and Prospect high schools necessitated the hiring of several new coaches. Thanks to the cooperation of Wally Grace and Howard Lester, athletic directors of the two schools, Paddock Publications is running a special feature this week on the new names in the athletic program.

by BOB FRISK

You can't tell the coaches without a scorecard!

That might very well be the slogan around both Arlington and Prospect high schools for the 1959-60 campaign.

With both schools utilizing separate athletic setups and operating out of separate conferences, a major revision of the coaching staffs was necessary. New coaches and new assignments have made the schools' respective staffs unfamiliar to many fans.

Arlington high, in particular, has undergone a marked change with fourteen new coaches added to the staff headed by Athletic Director Wally Grace. Three of those men were with the school's system last year but not in a coaching capacity.

At Prospect high of the Interim Conference, Athletic Director Howard Lester has nineteen men on the coaching staff but only four are new to this area's system. Two other coaches were with Arlington and Prospect for 1958-59 but weren't associated with the athletic program.

THREE COACHES will be "commuting" during the school year and guide teams at both schools. Charles Aldrich will handle JV football at Arlington and varsity baseball at Prospect; J. O. Jackson, a new coach, will be an assistant in varsity football at Prospect and an assistant in varsity track at Arlington; and Rusty Dowell will be an assistant in frosh football at Prospect and with track at Arlington.

Who are these new coaches? Where did they coach before and where did they do their undergraduate work?

AT PROSPECT

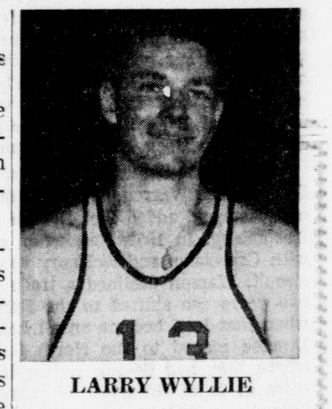
J. O. JACKSON (assistant varsity track at Arlington, assistant varsity football at Prospect) — 30, grad of Evansville high school and Evansville College . . . participated in football and track . . coached at Marshall high school in Marshall, Ill. from 1956-59 with an undefeated football team last fall.

JOHN MURRAY (assistant gymnastics) — graduate of Mankato State College in Manketo Minn. where he was captain of the gymnastics team . . . served 14½ months overseas with the army . . . at Prospect last year as science teacher.

LOU SCHAIRER (assistant basketball and baseball) — although new to coaching in the area's system, he has been teaching agriculture at Arlington high . . . played semi-pro baseball for four years and has coached in Pony Leagues . . . hit over .400 junior and senior years at Burlington, Ill. high school.



LARRY WYLLIE

LARRY WYLLIE (assistant basketball and baseball) — a Downers Grove and Northern Illinois graduate . . . played regular at Northern in basketball for two years and broke ten school scoring records as a junior . . . he set two conference records (52 points for one game and 23 field goals in one contest), and established one NCAA small college mark with 48 points in a tourney game . . . also led the basketball team in scoring as a senior and was honorable mention Little All-America.

DONALD WRIGHT (head golf coach)—graduate of Illinois State Normal University where he gained four varsity golf letters . . . earned 12 high school letters at Knoxville, Ill. . . . Knox County country club golf champ in 1957 and he qualified and won two matches in the State Amateur golf finals that same year.

AT ARLINGTON

WILLIAM DALETSKI (head frosh football) — 25, graduate of St. Benedict's college in Atchison, Kans. . . . 1st NAIA All-America grid team in 1955, lettered four years at St. Benedict's captain in '55 . . . head football and basketball coach at St. Patrick's high in Fremont, Neb. for 1956-57 . . . did special work for the Chicago system.

SID BROWN (assistant frosh-soph football, head frosh-soph golf) — 22, grad of State Teachers college in Peru, Neb. . . . taught second semester in '59 at Lincoln school in Lombard . . . four years varsity football in college as Split-T quarterback . . . worked with park program this summer.

MIKE KARON (head frosh-soph gymnastics) — competed on three Big-Ten conference championship gymnastics teams at the University of Illinois and on two NCAA titlists . . . captain at U. of I. for 1956-57 season . . . won ten letters at Bloomington high school in football, swimming, track.

ROLAND CARANCI (head frosh-soph football) — 38, grad University of Colorado . . . played with professional grid Giants and was high school coach of the year in 1948 for Wyoming . . . served as line coach at Colorado; head football, basketball, and track coach at Kemmerer, Wyo.; head football, basketball, and track coach for Estes Park high in Colorado; head football and as-

Distance Will Be the Only Factor at Glendale in Paddock Golf Tournament

Most Other Trouble Eliminated

by BOB BUCHANAN

Distance will be the only factor confronting golfers over the 6,429-yard Glendale country club course when members of 15 Northwest Suburban teams tee off in the 10th annual Paddock Publications golf tournament Sunday, Aug 16.

Glendale, located on Glendale rd. at Lake st. just east of Bloomingdale in DuPage county, is the type of golf course which gives man hope.

THERE IS LITTLE trouble golfers can run into on this 1923-built 148½ acre 18-hole layout. Naturally there is the out of bounds which is always to the left. Only three holes—those along Lake st.— have sand trapped and one hole. No. 11, is a water hole.

Glendale country club President John Bastien pointed out that the rough has been cut short, making play quick and easy.

Bastien's brother, holds the Glendale course record with a 67.

CHANCES ARE THIS WILL be the final year that Glendale will have 72 as par. A nine-hole par-three course will be built next year which in turn will shorten the 10th and 11th holes and reduce par to 71.

Here's a hole-by-hole picture of the 18 holes at Glendale for the golfers who know by now who they'll be.

HOLE NO. 1, 500 YARDS, PAR FIVE—This is a straight shot to the green. If there's any trouble here, it's the green. It sits on a small knoll and has a gulley running through the middle.

HOLE NO. 2, 445 YARDS, PAR FOUR—This hole is rated the toughest on the course. After teeing off, it's uphill all the way with a bunker to the right and one to the left.

HOLE NO. 3, 348 YARDS, PAR FOUR—Though short, this hole could offer trouble.

GLENDALE COUNTRY CLUB, SITE OF THE ANNUAL PADDOCK GOLF TOURNAMENT

It slopes downhill most of the way. A drive to the left, which is preferable, puts the ball above the green while a drive to the right puts the ball in a low position in respect to the green. The rolling green has a good hill through the middle.

HOLE NO. 4, 413 YARDS, PAR FOUR—Distance is a factor as are two rows of bushes to the right. By keeping to the left the green is open.

HOLE NO. 5, 363 YARDS, PAR FOUR—This is just a plain easy hole with a birdie likely for low 80 golfers. No trouble anywhere.

HOLE NO. 6, 177 YARDS, PAR THREE—This is also an easy hole, but par is more likely than a birdie. Distance is the only factor here. Use the right iron and you're okey.

HOLE NO. 7, 380 YARDS, PAR FOUR—An easy par, golfers should stay right to avoid a sharp climb to the green on the left side. Only other factor is that the center of the green is rolling.

HOLE NO. 8, 477 YARDS, PAR FIVE. Golfers will shoot blind from the tee but after the tee shot they'll see the green which faces towards the shooter.

HOLE NO. 9, 218 YARDS, PAR THREE—This is a wood tee shot for most men. It's uphill all the way and if the ball's on the wrong side of the green it can be a long way to the hole.

HOLE NO. 10, 366 YARDS, PAR FOUR—Downhill all the way, golfers will shoot to the green in the corner. Traps, which are behind the green, will be the first golfers will experience on the course.

HOE NO. 11, 450 YARDS, PAR FIVE—This is a tricky hole. The tee shot is blind and there's a wide water hazard 300 yards out. The water runs laterally with left side being nearer the tee and the right nearer the green.

A bunker in the center of the fairway hides the green on the slight dogleg left hole. Golfers can go over the water on their second shot if they play left, but probably will have to wait until their third shot if they are to the right. Sand traps also surround this green.

HOLE NO. 12, 312 YARDS, PAR FOUR—Despite its shortness, the green is hidden. The drive will be uphill. The fairway doglegs left just before the green. Rough can be found to the left if the ball is hooked. The green is elongated with a slight rise toward the back.

NO. 13, 125 YARDS, PAR THREE—Rated the easiest hole at Glendale, the green has bunkers to the right, left and behind. The green slopes toward the center from all sides.

NO. 14, 410 YARDS, PAR FOUR—To the left there's trouble. That's out of bounds. The right is open. Also the green opens to the right, but the green has bunkers on all sides but the front.

NO. 15, 323 YARDS, PAR FOUR—A relatively simple hole, the tee shot is straight to the green Overshooting the green means out of bounds since it's a corn field.

NO. 16, 164 YARDS, PAR THREE—This is a deceiving hole since the tee shot must go over a gully. The green has a high back and behind it the ground drops off sharply.

NO. 17, 445 YARDS, PAR FOUR—This hole is a lu-lu. Two hundred yards out, the hole takes a 90 degree dogleg to the left. The pinpoint green, which also has a sharp drop off behind it, is hidden after turning the corner. It's rated the second toughest hole at Glendale.

NO. 18, 508 YARDS, PAR FIVE—This is a long uphill home with the fairway running between two small bunkers.

Palatine Now North Suburban Member

When school opens Sept. 7 Palatine will be a member of the North Suburban Athletic Conference. The Pirates for the past two years have been affiliated with the Tri-County League along with North Chicago, Glenbrook, Fenton, Lake Park, and Elmwood Park. Glenbrook joins the Interim League made up of new schools in the area including Prospect High, Willowbrook (York's second high), Proviso West, Maine West, Leyden East, Leyden West, and Wheaton who has free lanced the past four years. The four remaining members of the Tri-County will carry on until they can add more members or join other circuits.

The North Suburban is a strong conference, particularly in football and basketball. It is not that the top teams are so outstanding but that the league as a whole is strong, with even competition. This past year Libertyville won football and tennis, Barrington took wrestling and golf, Woodstock won track, McHenry copped the basketball title and Crystal Lake was the baseball winner. This spread in titles left only Dundee and Zion-Benton without a championship.

Football, Basketball the Tough Sports

PALATINE IS EXPECTED, as the eighth member of the loop, to have some trouble meeting league standards in football and basketball but they certainly will be in the thick of it for the championships in cross country, wrestling, golf, baseball, and track. It is our opinion that Palatine will win in wrestling and will have an excellent chance in both baseball and track. Opening competition this fall, Palatine will meet Dundee, Libertyville, and Crystal Lake in conference games at home and Zion, McHenry, Woodstock, and Barrington on the road.

The North Suburban was formed in 1949-50 when Libertyville, Lake Forest, Warren, Crystal Lake, and Woodstock left the Northeast loop and added Zion-Benton and Grayslake, which had been freelancing. In 1952, Barrington of the Northwest traded places with Grayslake, and McHenry was added to make an eight team circuit. Warren declined a trade with Palatine at that time but two years ago shifted to the Northwest along with Lake Forest when that loop became an all Lake County league. At that time, Dundee moved to the North Suburban from the Little Seven where they had dominated the basketball scene with championships in 11 of their last 14 years. Dundee has found the North Suburban rough competition. The past 2 years the league has operated with 7 teams. There was talk a year ago of Woodstock joining a weaker league, possibly the Little Seven. At that time both Palatine and North Chicago were approached as possible schools to complete an eight team circuit should Woodstock leave. Woodstock chose to remain in spite of enrollment differences and the invitaiton to Palatine resulted. Palatine's board of education voted unanimously to join the North Suburban for several reasons: (1) If they did not join some one else would and the Tri-County would be broken up with Palatine left out; (2) Attendance and gate receipts in the Tri-County were not up to the level of previous years due to lack of natural rivalries; (3) Palatine has been engaged in athletic relations with Libertyville, Barrington, Crystal Lake, Dundee, and McHenry the past several years and was impressed with the competition and handling of sports in the North Suburban; (4) Barrington and Libertyville were charter members of the Northwest Conference with Palatine and natural rivals since 1925; (5) Athletic policies and sponsored activities of the North Suburban League seemed to be in line with what Palatine desires. On the other hand, relations with Tri-County schools had been excellent. It was a hard decision to make.

School Enrollments on Even Par

THE NORTH SUBURBAN Conference enrollments last year were Libertyville 1,270, Crystal Lake 1,240, Zion-Benton 1,175, McHenry 985, Barrington 905, Dundee 900, and Woodstock 633. Last year Palatine had 1,150 students. Officers of the North Suburban last year were John Buckner, Crystal Lake, president; Arnold Kiburz, Dundee, vice-president; Martin C. Martin, McHenry, Secretary; and T. C. Shoberg, Woodstock, treasurer. Officers elected for the 1959-60 school year are Arnold Kiburz, Dundee, President; Marvin C. Martin, McHenry, vice-president; G. A. McElroy, Palatine, secretary; and T. C. Shoberg, Woodstock, treasurer.

Bluebirds Beat Sigwalt To Lead Meadows Softball

In a make-up game, Bruns and Payne Bluebirds beat Sigwalt, 9-8, to take the lead in the Rolling Meadows Men's Softball league. Bill Springston had two clutch hits to give the win to Ray Geimer, who gave up 12 hits.

Sigwalt had a close scare when they edged the Garden Liquor Saints, 6-4. Ed Jaska had a home run with a man on for the winners and Bob Dellamaria and John Lumley were credited with a good defensive game for the victors.

The Bluebirds won their second game on a forfeit over the American Legion team.

The Owls defeated the Hawks, 16-13, to vacate the cellar. Joe Schutz had three for four as did Don Heicken for the Owls. Bob Evensen had a home for the Owls to give Bob Glaser the win.

Still No Pennant

The best Chicago White Sox mark "over .500" in recent years came in 1954 when on August 28 they were 39 games over .500 (85-46) and in third place. That was the year Al Lopez won the pennant at Cleveland with 111 victories.

Berwyn 9 Tops Cal City, 6-2

Southpaw Bob Peters was sharp — when he found the plate.

That about sums up the second game of the Cook County legion finals at Recreation Park.

Berwyn's Peters, a fire-balling lefty, fanned 15 in pacing an impressive 6-2 victory over Calumet City, but the stocky hurler also walked eight.

Peter's erratic control kept him in trouble through most of the game but he managed to survive the shaky streaks and record the victory.

BERWYN WENT without a base knock for three innings off Cal City's John Wrona, then picked up single blows in both the fourth and fifth — still without a score. But a five run sixth inning decided the contest.

Hits by Don Eichenberger, Peters, and Wayne Reznicek, coupled with three errors and a balk, brought in the quintet of tallies.

Berwyn added its final score in the seventh on a double by Rich Hanus, sacrifice, and line shot by Arny Vesely.

Cal City picked up only four hits off Peters and scored both in counters in the third thanks to three walks and an error.

Lloyd Meyer, Bokelmann On All-Star Nine

Second baseman Lloyd Meyer and pitcher Dick Bokelmann, both Arlington Heights residents who play for the Des Plaines Merchants' semi-pro baseball team, were named to the Illinois All-State semi-pro team after the recent tourney at Wing Park in Elgin.

Meyer and Bokelmann are former members of the Arlington Redwings and Black's Boosters, semi-pro clubs that played their home games at Recreation Park.

Berwyn Crushes Park Ridge

Berwyn's strong legion team moved past its second hurdle in the Cook County legion playoffs at Recreation Park with a convincing 11-3 victory over Park Ridge Sunday.

Rich Kurtz handled the mound duties for Jim Regan's nine and was relieved by Larry Mack in the eighth inning. Bob Kunkel started for Park Ridge with Steve Benson following.

Berwyn pushed across single tallies in the second, third, and fourth, then exploded for five runs in a fifth inning uprising. The eventual victors then added three insurance counters in the eighth.

Park Ridge was blanked with only one hit for five innings, then broke into the scoring column in the sixth on hits by Bruce Murdock and Dan Humay. The Mel Tierney nine added the final pair in the seventh on a walk to Murdock, double by Benson, and single to center by Humay.

AH Swimmers Stop Park Ridge Team

Arlington Heights park district swimmers took Park Ridge 246-202 Thursday to capture second place in the Northern Illinois Swim Conference. The swimmers from Pioneer park lost only to champion Dundee in compiling a 6-1 record and now face the seven team championship meet in Park Ridge on August 12 and 13.

Local swimmers won 30 first place ribbons to the visitors 24. Both teams won five of the relays.

13. Teuteberg (A) beat Ryan (H), 8-1.
14. Von Boeckmann (A) beat Toggert (H), 8-0.
15. Loris (A) beat Petterson (H), 8-2.

Kephart and Martin (A) defeated their Hinsdale opponents in a practice match.

Two Rookie Ends May Hit Stardom

Two —1-24 bold ..... ..... ..... ..... .....

Ends Sonny Randle of the U. of Virginia and John Tracey of Texas A&M, a pair of Chicago Cardinals rookies who seem to be able to catch the ball while balanced on their left or right ear, are headed for stardom in the National Football league.

Only a complete about face can prevent these two drafted collegiate pass catchers from being among the 35 players who will be on hand to face the Washington Redskins when the Cards open the National Football league season September 27 in Soldier Field—the Cardinals new home.

Park Ridge Wins First Tourney Tilt

Skokie's Bob Klingensmith powered four hits, including a tremendous 370 foot home run, but it wasn't enough Saturday as Park Ridge won the opening game of the Cook County legion baseball playoffs at Recreation Park, 10-8.

Right hander Jim Humay went the distance for Park Ridge but due to some shaky support, he was never in definite command.

With Klingensmith, a husky third baseman, leading the way, Skokie pounded out 13 hits but could score only two runs until the eighth. Then Jim Phipps' nine exploded for four runs on four hits and added a pair of markers in the ninth.

FIRST BASEMAN Mike Rowlee was the leading swinger in Park Ridge's attack with.. three safeties and a pair of runs batted in. Shortstop Bill Wagner, a veteran of tourney warfare for both the legion and high school nines, had two safeties and also drove in a pair.

Mike Hirstick started for Skokie but was relieved by Ed Kanoffky in the eighth.

Humay fanned 14 for his ine innings of work but only retired the side in order in two frames.

Back-Up Race on Card For Waukegan Speedway

Another big week of modified stock car racing will take place at the Speedway on Sunday night, Aug. 9. Track manager Mike Kaishian announced that in addition to a regular program of modified stock car races, a special back-up race will be held.

The event is staged with automobiles taking two laps around the track in reverse gear. One lap is run in one direction while the second is completed in the opposite direction, with the front runners heading backwards right towards the back runners. The event proves to be a real thrill packed event and is always a crowd pleaser.

The feature will be 25 laps, with top modified pilots competing in the stock events. Heading a field of nearly 50 drivers will be Miles Melius, Eddie Stillman, Bob Ratajczyk, Erik Johnson, Paul Bell and Milt Curcio. Time trials get under way at 7:15 with racing starting at 8:30.

USING ALL the tricks of the trade, taught him by his 11 years experience in racing, Miles Melius of Slinger, Wis. won the 50 lap championship feature race at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night. It marked his third feature win in four starts at Waukegan. In winning he set the track mark for 50 laps with an average speed of 49.13 mph.

Starting in the rear of the field due to his fast qualifying time, Melius edged his way through the heavy traffic to take the lead from Fran Seamars of Milwaukee on the 32nd lap. Seamars had taken the lead on the second lap and held it until Melius ttok over.

Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee, current point leader at the speedway, moved into second spot on the sixth but was forced out due to mechanical difficulties on the eighteenth, and placed 14th in the event.

Double points were awarded the event towards the season championship point standin and Melius moved up two po tions to take over seventh pla with a total of 1,065 points. C of over 90 drivers sharing in t standings, Melius has taken o seventh spot in only his four pearances here. Stillman rema in the lead with 2,185 poin Ratajczyk and Curcio still sha second and third with 1,875 an 1,645 respectively.

Classic League To Open Aug. 29

Paddock Classic traveling league will open the new season Saturday night, Aug. 29, at Jeffery Lanes in Wheeling. All six teams will be present for the opener.

Five of the squads are apparently all set to go with one team still looking for one 190-average kegler. Any bowler living in this area wishing to compete in the loop is urged to contact Don Christensen at CLearbrook 5-8019 immediately.

One sponsorship is also available. Any sports-minded businessman wishing to take advantage of the attention focused on fastest kegling loop in the suburbs is urged to contact Bob Paddock at CLearbrook 3-1520. Sponsorship involves $300, plus uniforms.

Third row, Larry Stocking, coach; Ray Rigsby, Ronnie Thompson, David Kranzel, Glenn Michalski, John Ewert, Jack Martin, manager.

Three no-hitters took the spotlight last week as Arlington's summer baseball program went through the final paces of another successful campaign.

Greg Galyon, Bob Hecht, and the combination of Kasl and McDougall tossed the hitless jobs for individual honors in the week's action.

Galyon, working for the Angels of the Southside Juniors division, set down the Beavers without a hit and fanned ten in a 12-3 win. Hecht of the Northside Juniors Sox fanned 12 and walked seven in his 13-2 decision over the Millers, and Kasl and McDougall teamed up for a brilliant 4-2 win over the Atoms. The winning Padres only collected one hit off McCarthy and Gradle in the latontest.

In the Senior League the Indians added the second half title to their first half crown. Freitag fanned 13 and allowed only three hits in a 3-1 victory over the Hawks.

Senior League

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Indians | 8 | 2 |
| Browns | 7½ | 2½ |
| Lions | 5½ | 4½ |
| Bears | 4½ | 4½ |
| Hawks | 2 | 7 |
| Redlegs | 1½ | 8½ |

The Browns' Spencer gained the win in a tight 7-6 triumph over the Hawks, and a bases loaded triple by Gary Evenson was the big blow in a 3-2 Brown's victory over the Redlegs.

McDonald decisioned Botterman as the Bears slapped down the Lions, 9-2, and the Lions pulled out a tight victory over the Indians, 5-4.

In the Varsity League the second half wasn't settled as of Aug. 1 with the Rams and Vikings currently setting the pace.

Varsity League

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Rams | 6 | 2 |
| Vikings | 6 | 3 |
| Eagles | 5½ | 2½ |
| Orioles | 4½ | 4½ |
| Phillies | 2 | 6 |
| Falcons | 1 | 7 |

A scarcity of information once again from this league enables us to only pass along the scores this week: Falcons 8, Eagles 7; Vikings 10, Falcons 0; Vikings 8, Phillies 7; Rams 9, Orioles 8; Rams 16, Phillies 4.

Another loop where the final outcome was in doubt as of Aug. 1 was the National division as the Pirates and Cubs battle for the top rung.

The Cardinals had no trouble setting down the Cubs, 6-1, and the Pirates, with Jim Jakubiec getting the win, edged the Braves, 3-2, thanks to a three-run sixth inning.

National League

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Pirates | 6 | 3 |
| Cubs | 5½ | 3½ |
| Giants | 6 | 4 |
| Cardinals | 5 | 4 |
| Dodgers | 3 | 6 |
| Braves | 2½ | 7½ |

In other league results the Cubs blasted the Braves, 17-3; the Giants mauled the Dodgers, 14-6; the Braves topped the Dodgers, 8-2; and the Giants got by the Cardinals, 12-8.

George Herbert's Owls took the second half title in the Northside Juniors league by a game over the Badgers.

Scott Guilfoil turned in a brilliant mound performance as the Owls crushed the Badgers, 14-2. Scott fanned nine and walked only two and Johnny Vetter had a perfect day at bat with 4-for-4.

Key hits by Latta, Bebber, and Horcher enabled the Robins to jump off to a lead they never relinquished, July 29. Stocking got the win over the Blues, 13-7.

Brown was backed by an explosive attack as the Blues routed the Bisons, 15-4, and good team play payed off as the Badgers topped the Gophers, 11-7. Shawhan and Langhout worked for the Badgers with Shawhan getting the decision.

An eight run first inning was enough for the Owls in an 11-2 win over the Larks, and McNamara's three hits and Horscher's homer provided the impetus in the Robins' 15-5 shellacking of the Gulls.

Angeloff allowed only two hits as the Athletics, second half champs, topped the Senators, 4-1, in the American League.

Four runs in the seventh gave the A's an exciting 6-2 win over the Tigers, and the Yankees came from behind to stop the Tigers, 6-2. Welton was the winner in the latter contest with MacGow devering a double.

Rosholt went the route, yielding only one hit, as the Red Sox took the measure of the White Sox, 5-1, and Allison topped White as the Tigers dumped these White Sox, 9-3.

John Brunner allowed only two hits, fanned ten and walked only two in the Red Sox's 5-1 victory over the Senators, and the two-hit chucking by Paul Splittdorf led the Athletics to a 2-1 win over the Yanks. In addition, Splittdorf scored both of the A's runs and his triple in the sixth led to the winning tally.

In Northside Intermediate action Miller pitched his first full game of the season and aided the Colonels past the Bruins, 8-2. Shortstop Halderman played an excellent game in the field and also collected two hits.

Collecting only one run on 11 hits, the Redbirds fell to the Hornets, 2-1, and the Mohawks scored in every inning to set down the Saints, 12-4.

Two doubles by Mike Boehm and a nine run sixth inning were too much for the Bruins, 13-4, as the Saints rolled up an easy victory, and the Comets scored in every inning to crush the Broncs, 15-6. Splittberger slapped his tenth homer in the latter contest.

Thirty-six hits were collected as the Doves and Lancers battled to a 15-15 tie, and the Mohawks rolled up 12 runs on ten hits in a 12-2 triumph over the Hornets.

Scoring at least three runs in every inning, including six in the third and five in the fifth, the Colonels clubbed the Doves, 21-2.

In other games the Bruins blanked the Redbirds, 16-0; the Comets edged the Lancers, 9-8; and the Colonels toppled the Lancers, 9-8.

| Huskies | 3 | 8 |
| Dons | 3 | 8 |

In Southside Intermediate play the Ravens stopped the Solons, 16-4, with Harley Gates collecting four hits and Keith Hagenback a home run. Tim Moody turned in a spectacular catch in right field.

Bill Fugate hurled a neat six-hitter in leading the Seals to a 19-6 triumph over the Huskies for the second half championship. Hugh Smeed slammed his thirteenth homer of the season.

Bergrren slapped three hits and Coates had a triple and single as the Terriers walked over the Ravens, 17-7, and Smeed's grand slam homer in the fourth inning gave the Seals a 12-8 triumph over the Terriers. Johnny Meyn got the win.

Holmes fanned 1 and walked seven in pitching a two-hitter as the Rangers blasted the Stars, 3-2. Brooks' three run homer was the big blow in the Stars' 7-6 victory over the Dons.

Southside Juniors

| Beavers | 3½ | 7½ |
| Atoms | 1½ | 8½ |

The Dons blasted the Solons, 13-1, and the Terriers edged the Dons, 5-3.

In Southside Juniors play the Wrens and Atoms battled to a 3-3 deadlock, and the Padres easily disposed of the Beavers, 22-2.

The final reports from the Southside Juniors league were as follows:

Padres 13, Buckeyes 7; Angels 8, Spartans 6; Wrens 6, Buckeyes 4; Spartans 1, Oaks 4; Oaks 28, Angels 6; Beavers 8, Spartans 7.

Erickson Scores Net Upset

Arlington Heights' Jim Erickson scored the most impressive win of his young tennis career when he defeated Mark Sessler of Milwaukee, 6-3, 6-3, in first round competition in the junior boys division of the River Forest Junior open tennis tournament Tuesday.

Sessler had been seeded sixth in the tournament.

Erickson then went on to beat Bob White of Evanston, 6-3, 6-2, in second round play. Another Arlington netter, Bob Inman, fell by the wayside in round play, losing to Dave Moss of Granite City, 6-2, 6-1.

Brown Holds Tennis Lead

Equipoise Mile On Card Saturday

Although trainer Bill Molter doesn't fancy the distance, mighty Round Table will run in Saturday's (Aug. 8) $50,000-added Equipoise Mile at Arlington Park.

Before the Laurance Armour Memorial Handicap at Arlington Park July 18, Molter stated that Round Table would not again be asked to run a mile. "Table" had won the Citation Handicap at Washington Park June 13, at that distance, but only after a bitter duel with Etonian.

"It's not his distance," Molter said. 'He wants a mile and an eighth and up. I learned my lesson last year -- all his tough races were at the mile."

BUT WHEN the track came up a little off for the Armour Memorial, Molter was forced to scratch the all-time money winning champion. That meant there was no race for the five-year-old until the Arlington Handicap, on the grass, Aug. 22.

Owner Travis Kerr and Molter, well aware that Round Table needs racing to stay sharp, went against their original judgments and nominated him for the Equipoise.

"Table" now has won 38 of 58 starts and has earned $1,452,639.

His opposition will be tough in the Equipoise.

Better Bee, which won the Armour Memorial in 1:48 2/5 to equal Coaltown's 10-year-old track record, is nominated; so is Prewitt and Olson's Terra Firma, second to Better Bee in the Armour and a colt which loves the mile distance. Terra Firma won the Stars and Stripes a year ago over Lincoln Road -- the stakes won this year by Round Table.

Calumet Farm has nominated two horses -- one young and one old -- for the Equipoise. The oldster is creaking Bardstown, the seven-year-old gelding who can run against any horse in the world when sound. He won the Widener Handicap at Hialeah last February for the second time in three years.

On-and-On is a constantly improving colt which finished second to Dunce -- but ahead of Intentionally -- in the Classic mile at Arlington July 25.

Mrs. Herbert Herff's Tudor Era, a continuing stakes winner on grass and dangerous on dirt, has been nominated for the Equipoise. He was an impressive winner over Arlington Park's turf course July 25.

NORMAN E. JOHNSON (Arlington Heights), vice president, Admiral International Corporation, and James R. Oberly (Park Ridge), president, (first two on left) are shown introducing an American-made automatic baseball pitching machine to Australian Little Leaguers in Sydney. Ken F. Kerr and Coach Colin Houghton are inspecting the gadget, first ever seen "down under," and the same as those used by major league baseball clubs. Johnson and Oberly presented the pitching machine to the Tigers, sponsored by Admiral of Australia. The machine also can be used for cricket and tennis. It is built in Kansas City.

Early Pan-Am Arrivals At Libertyville

The first contingent of "athletes" for the Third Pan American Games scheduled here from Thursday, August 27, through Monday, Sept. 7, arrived by truck last week and immediately went into training at Libertyville, Illinois.

The "athletes" will not represent any particular country of the 27 eligible nations of North, South and Central America plus the Caribbean Islands although probably each is hoping to be the choice of the United States since they were born and raised in East Texas.

The "athletes" are 40 of the finest and toughest horses that could be found for one of the events of the Games—the riding event of the Modern Pentathlon which is scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 30, at the Oak Brook Farms in Libertyville.

The 40 horses have been in training since December at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for this difficult assignment and they will continue training at the obstacle studded course which has been laid out over 4,000 meters in Libertyville.

Ed. Mumm Stables To Hold Show

The Edward Mumm Stables is holding a horse show on Sunday, Aug. 30, with events for saddle horses, hunters and jumpers, and western riders.

The Mumm Stables is located six miles north of Barrington on Route 59 and possesses a double attraction in that it has two separate rings available in which classes may be held simultaneously.

Two outstanding judges will officiate at the Aug. 30 show. The nationally recognized Charles Huston of Libertyville, will judge saddle and western classes. The equally qualified Joe Krepper of Downers Grove will handle the hunter and jumper classes. Howard Jones of Elgin, associate editor of The National Horseman, will serve as ringmaster.

There will be a trophy and ribbons for each class. A premium list may be obtained by contacting the show secretary, Mrs. George Wilkinson, Tower Lakes, Ill., or by phoning Jackson 6-8517.

Michigan State in 1903 built its first indoor swimming pool — 17 by 35 feet and surrounded by eight Grecian columns.

Keep Left Hand Firm To Avoid Topping Ball

TOPPING

Topping along with skying is one of the most common faults in golf. In your grip your left hand must be especially firm at impact. In your stance, be especially certain that there is no pronounced lean forward, or bend at waist instead of hips at the address. Stand as erect as possible, flexing the knees slightly.

As you look down you should be able to see the hands over toes of your shoes. In your swing, guard against straightening and locking of the right knee on the back swing. Never bend the left knee on the back swing, which would cause a dip.

Throughout your swing your head should be kept steady, especially at impact. If the head is moved upwards, then the shoulders will also come up causing you to hit the top of the ball. Topping is caused when the arc of the swing is raised. Erect address assures you of the proper start. A steady head and not excessive knee action, especially on the back swing; this keeps the arc of the swing constant.

SKYING

Skying is caused when the impact is under the ball. Your stance should be square but guard against getting too much weight on your left foot — divide your weight evenly. Play the ball off your left heel. Guard against playing toward your right foot in an effort to avoid skying. Off the tee, use normal height of wooden tee. Teeing the ball low will not cure the fault.

The principal concern is to hit the ball with a swing that brings the clubhead parallel to the ground for several inches before impact. Therefore, concentrate on swinging the clubhead back low to the ground and bringing it into the ball, also low. Keep your wrist unbroken at the start of the backswing and retain wrist cock at start of downswing. TRY NOT to roll your wrist on the backswing or the down-swing. Try to swing smoothly and guard against CHOPPING on the downswing.

A skyed shot is caused by the clubhead contacting the ball and the ground at the same time with a chopping downswing.

GOLF PRO CHUCK Pedersen puts on a disgusted look, typifying many golfers after skying a ball and taking turf at the same time.

Stan's Standard Service Gains Tourney Spot

Stan's Standard Service maintained its lead in the Arlington Heights twilight golf league with an 8-4 win over New Emerald Cleaners and has become the team to represent the league at the Paddock tournament on August 16 at Glendale country club.

With the new addition of rough h and sand, the scores of most players have increased a stroke or so but a few have managed to keep straight balls in the fairway.

Chuck Staadt turned in the low gross score of 37 after driving half the day to complete a vacation trip around Lake Michigan. Maybe you should take more trips, Chuck? Pete Chimes came in with the low net score of 32.

Ernie Simmons posted two birds and each of the following men came in with one: Bill Kufeldt, Ed Koops, Staadt, Jim Whalen, Bill Lathen, Len Haines, Pete Chimes, Roger Roggatz, and Gordon Ward.

Don't forget our two-ball foursome Sunday, Aug. 23, at Mt. Prospect.

Team standings, July 31:

College All-Stars Strong on Speed

Whatever the outcome of the annual football game between the College All-Stars and the Baltimore Colts the night of Aug. 14, it appears the collegians will not be out-run.

The All-Stars, in training at Northwestern university for the 26th game in the series sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., were timed in sprints by Coach Otto Graham and his assistants.

Running according to position in a 50-yard dash, wearing full football regalia, the players recorded some surprisingly fast times.

Elbert Dubenion, 180 pound halfback from Bluffton college, Ohio, was clocked in just over :05.6 as he finished a touch ahead of Willmer Fowler, former Northwestern back and Big Ten sprint champion, who was timed in :05.7.

OTHER SPEED merchants among the ball carriers were Don Brown, Houston, and Eddie Dove, Colorado, both caught in :05.8, and Boyd Dowler, Colorado, and Billy Stacy, Mississippi State hurdler, each timed in :05.9.

The fleetest ends were Buddy Dial, Rice, and Sam Williams, 225 pounder from Michigan State, with times of :06 and :06.1 respectively.

John Wooten, 240 pound Colorado guard, paced candidates for that position in :06.1 plus, while Mike Rabold, 240 pound guard or tackle from Indiana, and Dick Schafrath, 228 pounder from Ohio State, each stepping the distance in :06.2.

Francis O'Brien, Michigan State, with a timing of :06.2, and Andy Cvercko, Northwestern, at :06.4, paced the tackles.

The two biggest men in camp, Charles (Mac) Lewis, 312 pound tackle from Iowa, and Dan James, 227 pound center from Ohio State, made the sprint in :07.3 and :06.8, respectively.

THURSDAY, AUG. 6, 1959

GOOD BREEDING always shows! Braemer's Red Queen, born May 3, 1956 with Reg. No. 699604, whelped a litter of 13, seven females and six males, on May 5, 1959. Owned by Ethel B. Hollearn, Braemer's Red Queen has been established as the only living Boxer to have whelped 13 puppies.

Dog Hero

The first "curbstone setter," or mixed breed, ever to win the Ken-L-Ration gold medal award as National Dog hero was just named as the most heroic dog of 1959. She is Lady, a collie-shepherd, owned by Walter Abel of Mehlville, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis.

Lady garnered the coveted gold medal, a $1,000 bond for her owners, a gold plated leash and collar, a gold plaque, a dog blanket and a year's supply of dog food, by saving the life of her little master, Tommy Abel, 3, when the youngster was just minutes away from death last February.

Lady's heroic deed in winning the sixth annual Ken-L-Ration award occurred after Tommy wandered away from his home on a cold murky afternoon. In a desolate, marshy area nearly a half-mile away, Tommy fell into a swamp hole. Despite his desperate struggles, the youngster sank deeper and deeper into the cold water and mud.

Realizing that she could not be of assistance, Lady set off in quest of help. A considerable distance away she found two telephone linemen who were in the area by mere chance. At first they paid no heed to Lady's barking, until finally realizing that something was not right, they started to follow her. Just at the time they were about to quit following her and return to their work, they ascended an embankment and came upon the exhausted youngster. Tommy was pulled from the mud and eventually returned home safely. An organized searching party had sought the child unsuccessfully all afternoon, and with the coming of dusk, had given up the search without ever being near the site where he was found.

Lady and the Abels will be brought to Chicago next week as guests of Ken-L-Ration. The gold medal and other awards will be presented at a banquet in The Crystal Room of Chicago's Palmer House, Wednesday evening, Aug. 12.

Northwest Obedience Trial

Elsewhere in this issue of the paper will be some news about the second annual obedience trial to be held by the Northwest Obedience Club, Inc. of Palatine. It is interesting to note that the entries total some 219 dogs. This is within just a few dogs of last years trial.

The event will be held in the Prospect high school field house on Foundry rd., Sunday, Aug. 16, starting in the morning and lasting throughout the day.

Barks and Bays

If you think your body temperature goes up on hot days, think of a greyhound. After running 540 yards at the Mile High Kennel club, Denver, Colo., tests have shown the dogs' temperature to have gone up 2.945 degrees over their pre-race temperature. The tests were run by veterinarians and reported recently.

Casablanca Joins Paddock Classic League

Casablanca is one of the new sponsors of the Paddock Classic traveling league slated to open competition for the new season Saturday night, Aug. 29, at Jeffery lanes in Wheeling.

Casablanca restaurant has been operating successfully along Rand road, just south of route 68, many years, gaining plenty of friends. This year the restaurant is certain to gain more attention than ever with sponsorship of the Hi-Way Recreation team of Palatine in the high-flying Paddock loop.

Capt. Marv Perry has announced the roster for the coming season, including Irv Hahnfeldt at 195, Herb Engstrom at 194, Ron Fogarett at 191, Marv Perry at 191, Lee Adams at 182 and Charles Johnson at 188. Team average is 953.

Paddock Classic is rated the fastest bowling league in the suburban area, and should be even hotter this season. Competition among the six squads representing the six houses at Palatine, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Wheeling and Des Plaines is held Saturday nights at 6:30.

Hole-in-One

Thirteen proved to be the lucky number for Marvin Johnson, 800 Dresser dr., Mt. Prospect, at the Allstate Insurance Companies home office men's golf outing held recently. On the 88-yard 13th hole of the Nordic Hills Country club course, Johnson lofted an eight iron shot off the tee and int the cup for a hole-in-one.

Pace Polo Unit

Cecil Smith and Del Carroll rivaled the team play of Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox as they led a team captained by Paul Butler to a 9-6 triumph in a polo exhibition at Oak Brook Sunday.

Ironically, Capt. Russell Firestone of Dallas' Circle F. had let Butler borrow Carroll to fill in for the missing Dr. Billy Linfoot. Carroll, a seven goal forward and horse race trainer from Downer's Grove, scored five goals and set up the four others with his accurate passing and amazing dribbling.

Keefer's To Represent MP Loop in Tournament

Keefer's Pharmacy will represent the Tuesday division of the Mt. Prospect Twilight Golf league in the annual Paddock Publications tournament. The Pharmacists clinched their bid for the tournament by a neat 6½-3½ victory over Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes. The win gave them a 7½ point margin over their closest pursuers, Mt. Prospect Electric Const., and Golden's Food Shop & Cleaners who tied for runner-up position.

Golden's, who were in the best position to challenge Keefer's bid, missed their opportunity when they suffered from a bad case of overconfidence and a 3½-6½ upset at the hands of last place Geo. O'Day Realtor. Their lapse also opened the gate for Mt. Prospect Elec. Constr. who moved into a tie for second place with a decisive 8½-1½ win over Annen & Busse Realtors.

Wille Lbr. & Fuel remained in strong contention with a 7-3 victory over Mt. Prospect Jewelers. The win left them in fourth place only one-tenth of a point out of second.

IN OTHER MATCHES Carl's Food Shop scored a 7½-2½ win over Nelson Realty who have been unable to shake off their mid-summer slump, and Licht's Paint Store eked out a 6-4 victory over Kersting's Garden Center.

Birdies were reported by D. Shean No. 2, Roy Hawkinson and E. Stofft No. 12, J. Driscoll No. 17.

League President Fred Jilek announced that all arrangements have been completed for the annual Fathers and Sons or Daughters tournament which will be held Sunday, August 9, at Mt. Prospect Country Club. Tee off time is 2 p. m. This will be a two ball foursome event with prizes awarded on the Peoria handicapping system.

Grigsby Gains Paddock Berth

The Grigsby Co., though in first place now in the Arlington Friday loop, is a long way from sewing up the league championship. Wheeling Lumber moved up from third to second place, one half point behind the leaders, by beating the hot and cold Gunnell's team.

For the Lumbermen, Bud Barnett helped with Merv Fink; Ed Betke took Jack Drazba; Jim Shade over Al Walter, and Jim Murray over Joe Carlson. So with four weeks remaining, it's anybody's championship.

Birdies for the night were posted by Bob Noble, 16th and 18th; Maurice Weil and Merv Fink, 14th hole.

LOW GROSS honors to Bob Noble and Bob Sabin with two par 37s. Bill Grandstaff was close behind with a 39.

Low net went to Bob Noble for the second consecutive week with a fine 37-5-32.

Don't forget Friday's deadline for the post season tournament along with your entrance fee.

It will be the Grigsby team that will represent the Friday night league at Arlington country club in the Paddock tournament. The Grigsby's, who started the season in tenth place, have steadily moved up the ladder each week. Last week they met the then first place Webber Paint team and took them, 5½-1½.

BOB SABIN led his team with a fine 37 in beating Cider Vogt. Other match winners for the Grigsby team were Maurice Weil over Lou Ruggio, Dick Burke over S. L. McCandless, and Wallace Wilkerson with a halved match with Russ Knight. Rog Hertel took the only full point for the Paints by beating Len Baeuchler in their match.

The Grigsby Co. unit will then be represented by Bob Sabin, Wallace Wilkerson, Len Baeuchler, and Maurice Weil for the Paddock tourney.

Pik-Kwik Team Golf Entry

The team of John Troyke, Ray Harmer, Wayne Gieseke, Joe Wagner Jr. and Joe Powers, sponsored by Pik-Kwik, will represent the Roselle Monday night golf league in the Paddock tournament Aug. 16.

Just a week ago the Noric Wood Products team was tied for first place. There were those who felt that Svendor Sveinsson would lead his boys to the top. But the scores are in and "Waldo's Wonders" will have to wait until next year.

However, they still have their eye on the league championship along with Roselle State Bank, Bowes Motors as well as Pik-Kwik.

Standings:

Only Nine Days Before Paddock Golf Tournament

Only nine more days in the countdown.

That's the situation now as final preparations are being taken care of for the 1959 Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament.

League entries are starting to come in to tourney promotor Bob Paddock and an analysis of the Glendale course appears in the sports section this week as an aid for the competing golfers.

Now the matters of computing handicaps and setting up foursomes face the tourney officials and in next week's paper, a complete rundown of the foursomes with their starting times will appear.

TWELVE TEAMS eligible for the '59 affair are known to the officials although all the entries have still r e p h crttoshoeaT have still to reach the sports desk.

Qualifying units thus far include Keefer's Pharmacy of the Tuesday night league at Mt. Prospect country club; Team 8 of the Tioga VFW Post 2149 loop; Arlington Milk of Wayside-Colette action; Grigsby Co. from the Friday night division at Arlington; Pik Kwik of the Roselle Monday night league; Stan's Standard Service of the Mt. Prospect Friday night; Pure Oil 9 of Roselle-Pure Oil; Lohr's Pharmacy of St. James play; Faetz Insurance and Safford Stamps of the two St. Raymond's leagues; and Prospect Heights Service Station of Rob Roy Tuesday.

Next week is the big week insofar as promotion purposes for the tournament. So watch for th tourney foursomes and the starting times as designated by the meet officials.

Only nine more days!

VICTOR JOHNSON, of 712 Na-Wa-Ta in Mt. Prospect, displays the trophies he and his fine working standard poodle have won at one of the recent midwest dog shows. In September when the Rand Park Dog Training Club of Des Plaines reopens its fall classes, he will start a more advanced class, teaching his dog to jump and retrieve on command.

Loop Enjoys Two-Ball Play

The second two-ball foursome of the current golfing season for members of St. Raymond's Holy Name Society Twilight Golf League came off Sunday, August 2, 1959 without a hitch.

This was the first time that this affair was held on the old back nine of Mt. Prospect C. C. The scenic nine withstood the battering of 44 couples and most of the girls showed their husbands that Louise Suggs, Patty Berg and company had nothing on them. The girls accused most of the husbands of finding new spots on the golf course never explored before, and the girls came through splendidly.

Prizes were awarded to 31 couples for low gross or low net scores. The following couples won the top awards.

Gross

|---|---|
| 1st Mr. and Mrs. J. Moran | 45 |
| 2nd Mr. and Mrs. J. Griffin | 48 |
| 3rd Mr. and Mrs. R. Kruger | 50 |

Net

| 1st Mr. and Mrs. R. Bryant | 52 |
| 2nd Mr. and Mrs. J. Kilroy | 54 |
| 3rd Mr. and Mrs. J. Trebat | 58 |

Old Orchard Ladies

Event of the day, Aug. 4, in the Old Orchard ladies golf league was Even Holes, half handicap.

Winners on the second nine were Mickey Newhouse and Francis Greco. Winners of the third nine were Inez Abrahamson, June Wayne, and Iowa Freeland.

Stationers Hold Top Golf Slot

For the first time this year rain stopped play for the ladies at Rob Roy Thursday, July 23. But last week the rain was kind; even though it rained hard all Wednesday night, it waited until afternoon on Thursday to rain again.

Morava Stationers still hold the lead by taking four points from O'Hare Stadium. Webber Paint is really on the move as they took seven points from Prospect Hts. Liquors, to go into second place. Irene Pinkos of Webber Paint chalked up a very nice 35 n e t which gave her two points to help her and her team. But Webber Paint is not alone in second place as Des Plaines Liquors are tied with them after taking 5½ points from Prairie Lee Paints. Nona MacKay of Des Plaines Liquors had a nice 38 net to help her take two points.

The weekly event was Odd Holes. The winners were as follows: 1st position June Jackisch 22; second position, Sylvia Hoffman 24; third position, Bernice Goettsche 26; fourth position, Gabby Buffington 25; fifth position, Ruth Kwasek 37.

|---|---|
| Morava Stationers | 53 2/3 |
| Webber Paint Co. | 52½ |
| Des Plaines Liquors | 52½ |
| Senne's Grocery | 50½ |
| Hagenbring's | 47 1/3 |
| Town and Country | 46½ |
| Ignatz & Mary's Gr. Inn | 45 |
| Spiegler's Dept. Store | 44½ |
| Arlington Pharmacy | 42 |
| O'Hare Stadium | 33½ |
| Prairie Lee Paint Store | 31½ |
| Prospect Hts. Liquors | 22½ |

It's Official! Faetz, Safford To Tournament

It is now official, Faetz Insurance and Safford Stamps will represent the St. Raymond Holy Name Society Twilight Golf league in the Paddock tournament. We hope the boys will uphold the honors of last year's representatives and bring back 1st and 2nd place honors. We know they will do their best.

Faetz Insurance continues to gain ground in the No. 1 league. The past week saw them win 10 points from Strass Ladies. At the same time Moran Furs won 12 points from Trapani Plumbing and Kruse's Liquors won 12 points from Bluett Construction.

The thick rough, new sand traps, soft greens and heavy moisture presented many problems for the members this week as the lowest score turned in was a 42. Perhaps these problems were needed as the members were aiming to burn up the new course layout. Team standings as of July 30, 1959:

League No. 1

|---|---|
| Faetz Insurance | 100½ |
| Kruse's Liquors | 79½ |
| Trapani Plumbing | 76½ |
| Moran Furs | 73½ |
| Meeske's | 73½ |
| Bluett Construction | 69 |
| Strass Ladies | 69 |
| McMahon's | 49½ |

|---|---|
| Safford Stamps | 98 |
| Ackerman Insurance | 90½ |
| Busse Texaco | 85½ |
| Spooner Engineering | 81 |
| Illinois Range | 79½ |
| Keefer's Pharmacy | 77½ |
| Van Driel's Drugs | 73 |
| Kirchoff Insurance | 70 |

Hot Corner: Minton, B. 42; Jamieson, C. 42; Moran, J. 42; Loehrer, W. 42; Groh, V. 43; DiVass, R. 43; Flowers, J. 43; Spooner, A. 43.

Renaissance

The Chicago White Sox now hold a 10-7 edge over the New York Yankees this year in season play. The last time the White Sox edged New York in the season series was 1925 when they were 13 and 9. In 1955 they split even in 22 games.

Iron Man

Nelson Fox played in his 615th consecutive game at second base Aug. 1 for the White Sox. He last missed a game Aug. 5, 1955.

JET PLANE BEING serviced at O'Hare International Airport before departure for west coast looks like a toy model in this picture taken from a helicopter by veteran airport photographer Mike Rotunno. The American Airlines 707 Jet Flagship—actually longer than one and a half standard bowling alleys, its interior the size of a two-bedroom home—dwarfs the two fuel trucks and other ground equipment needed to board 112 passengers and crew of eight, and to load meals, freight, express, mail, baggage and other items for its swift westward flight. This is a common scene these days at O'Hare, where American alone has six daily pure jet departures and six arrivals to and from Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York.

Prudential Pays Holders $44 Million

The Prudential Insurance Company announced today that its payments to Illinois policyholders and beneficiaries during the first six months of 1959 amounted to $44,178,000.

This compares with $46 million 58 thousand paid during the corresponding period in 1958 and includes all types of claim payments, annuities, and other insurance benefits.

Total Prudential payments in the United States and Canada for the first half were $654 million 486 thousand. For the same period last year they were $667 million 503 thousand, a first half record.

PART 3

National Tea Sales Hit All-Time High

Another all time high for sales was reported by National Tea Co. today, when H. V. McNamara, president, announced that sales for the company's seventh four-week accounting period were the highest for any four week period of the year to date, and the highest on record for any like reporting period in the company's history, bringing the total sales gain for the year to date to nearly $27 million.

National Tea Co. consolidated sales for the four week period ending July 18, 1959 reached $64,143,914 for an increase of $4,438,262, which was a gain of 7.43 per cent over the same period of 1958, when the company's sales were $59,705,652.

Year to date sales for 28 weeks ending July 18, 1959 totaled $438,886,497, as compared to $412,003,244 for the corresponding weeks of 1958. This gives the Chicago headquarted Midwestern food chain an increase of $26,883,253 for the year to date, which is 6.53 per cent ahead of the record sales reported by the company for the same time a year ago.

As the seventh period ended, McNamara reported 923 stores in operation as compared with 918 stores operated at this time last year. For the year to date as of July 18, 1959, National has opened 34 new super markets, 24 of which are in new locations, and the balance relocations of former stores, which have been closed.

It was further announced that as of the July 18th date the company had executed leases for another 111 new stores to be opened during 1959 or early in 1960, of which 38 stores will be new locations in communities not now served by the company's stores, and 28 of the new stores will be relocations of existing stores for improvement of customer services. A total of 41 stores have been closed so far this year due to obsolescence and physical facilities, which no longer compliment the company's modern merchandising policies. (B

Baltis Continues Fight To Control Air Pollution

Walter S. Baltis, trustee of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago, said today that he will continue to gather air pollution data upon which effective control legislation can be based in the 1961 session of the Illinois General Assembly.

A legislative Act creating an Air Pollution Investigation and Study Commission was vetoed by Governor William G. Stratton July 22. The bill had been passed 112-12 by the House and 49-2 by the Senate before being sent to the Governor.

STRATTON'S VETO message called the purpose of the bill "a laudable one," but objected to the measure on the grounds that the $15,000 appropriated for expenses of the 15-member commission had not been included in his budget.

The city of Chicago and the heads of nearly all southwest, south and southeast municipalities had telegraphed the Governor urging him to sign the measure.

Baltis, who was the author of an air pollution control plan by state senatorial districts, said he will make a comprehensive study of air pollution problems and their solution which might have been made by the interim commission.

"UNCONTROLLED and unplanned development of certain areas of suburban Cook County are adding to our air pollution and sanitation problems," Baltis said. "We know that in extreme instances polluted air can kill. We know that it contains cancer-producing agents and that lung cancer death rates in the larger cities are twice as high as in non-urban areas."

The Trustees said the Sanitary District is spending $60,000 to $75,000 this year on its own air pollution control program at sludge lagoons and has let contracts for $11,870,000 more this year to prevent sludge wastes from polluting the air, and has started an estimated $2,500,000 program to prevent dangerous air contamination from smokestacks of the district's treatment works.

Baltis said he hopes to have necessary legislation introduced at the next session of the General Assembly for creation of air pollution control districts under laws similar to those authorizing sanitary districts, park districts, mosquito abatement districts and tuberculosis sanitarium districts.

CNW Push-Pull Locomotives Here

STREAMLINED DIESELS will power North Western's new "push-pull" suburban trains to be placed in operation this fall, releasing the present switcher-type locomotives for other service. The locomotive above, already in service, is pulling one of the road's double-deck commuter trains on the Wisconsin division. When the railway's 36 new "push-pull" coaches are delivered this fall, such locomotives will push inbound trains into Chicago, and pull the trains in the conventional way on outbound movements to the suburbs. Inbound, engineers will control the trains from specially built cabs in the leading coach while the diesel operates in reverse, pushing the cars.

The first two streamlined locomotives in a fleet of seven for Chicago and North Western Railway's new "push-pull" suburban trains went into regular service this week—operating only in the conventional way pending arrival of new coaches.

Delivery of the first of 36 double-deck coaches for the road's new bi-directional or "push-pull' suburban trains will start late this month, with a sufficient number received by the end of September to allow actual "push-pull" operations. In the meantime, the locomotives will be used in regular service, according to E. L. Walston, general superintendent of the railway's motive power and car departments. The entire fleet of 36 new cars will be delivered to the railroad at the rate of about nine cars a month.

The locomotives for the new "push-pull" trains are 1,500 horsepower streamlined units. They are being rebuilt in the railway's Chicago shops where special auxiliary generators are installed to provide power for air-conditioning, electric heating, and lighting in the new coaches. The new trains with streamlined locomotives will have the appearance of modern intercity streamliners.

In operation, the bi-directional suburban trains will have locomotives at the rear end pushing the trains into Chicago. Controls for engineers on the inbound movements will be in specially built cabs in the leading car. Outbound from Chicago, the locomotives will pull the trains in the conventional manner.

The feature will reduce switching and permit greater flexibility in commuter operations. Of 36 new coaches to be delivered to the road this fall for the revolutionary "push-pull" trains, eight will be equipped with cabs for remote control of the locomotives.

Noisy and heavy undercar generators, and steam pipes will be eliminated in the new "push-pull" coaches. All electric power for heating, lighting and air-conditioning will come from the locomotives.

Total cost of the 36 new coaches is $5.6 million.

Walston said the railway has plans to convert 48 double-decked suburban coaches acquired in the last four years and now in service to the new "push-pull" operation as funds become available. With the delivery of the 36 new coaches, North Western will have the largest fleet of modern bi-level suburban coaches in the United States, he said. (BB

American Starts 707 Jet Routes to Boston, Dallas

American Airlines will inaugurate the first pure jet 707 service on the Chicago-Dallas and Chicago-Boston routes, start the first turboprop Electra service between Chicago and St. Louis, Detroit and El Paso, increase its Electra service between here and New York and Dallas and open two new Chicago ground facilities during August, Chicago district sales manager Clarke Ferguson announced today.

Ferguson said that the expansions are unusual for August, normally one of the lighter air travel months, but added that air traffic here is growing at an unprecedented rate due largely to public acceptance of the airline's 707 jet and Electra turboprop airplanes.

IN THE SIX months that the two types of planes have been used by American, the 707s have carried more than 217,000 passengers, and the Electras have carried over 250,000 passengers. It's estimated that more than half the Electra passengers and probably one-third the 707 passengers have been traveling to or from Chicago.

The new pure jet flights — one daily each way between O'Hare International Airport and Dallas and between O'Hare and Boston — will start August 21, trimming flying times on both routes to about two hours. The O'Hare-Boston jets also will serve San Francisco, increasing American's nonstop jet flights between Chicago and San Francisco to three daily in each direction.

With the new services, American will be operating a total of 28 flights daily at O'Hare, exactly double the number it had there before jet service was introduced here in March. Fourteen of the number will be 707 flights linking O'Hare with Los Angeles and New York as well as San Francisco, Boston and Dallas.

THE INCREASE in jet service will be made possible, Ferguson explained, by the opening about Aug. 15 of a $350,000 jet passenger facility at O'Hare, providing four "departure lounges," a new concourse linking the lounges and the present O'Hare terminal, and a new outbound baggage handling system. The lounges will give American four jet loading gates at O'Hare, compared with the one now used. The facilities are designed as an "interim" installation to be used only until a new permanent terminal is ready at the airport in 1961.

Electra service will be introduced for the first time on the Chicago St. Louis route Friday (August 7), when one flight daily each way will cut flying time to one hour nine minutes southbound and one hour three minutes northbound.

Electras also will be used between Chicago and Detroit for the first time beginning August 21, with two flights daily in each direction, and between Chicago and El Paso, with one daily flight each way. Electra service between Chicago and New York will be increased from eight to nine nonstops daily each way, and Chicago-Dallas Electra service will be increased to two daily each way, also beginning August 21.

ALL THE ELECTRA flights serve Chicago through Midway Airport.

In addition, Ferguson said, American will open a new ticket office on August 11 at the Edgewater Beach Hotel — its 10th such facility in the greater Chicago area, excluding an Evanston office operated jointly by all airlines serving Chicago. The new office will give American three more Chicago area ticketing units than its nearest competitor. (BB

Prospect Heights Man Given High Continental Life Post

PAUL C. GREEN

Paul C. Green, C.L.U., 300 School lane, Prospect Heights, has been appointed superintendent of agencies in charge of the Mid-America Department of Continental Assurance Company, Chicago, in a major realignment of the company's agency supervision staff, it was announced by Robert B. Hamor, vice president and director of agencies. Hamor resides at 236 N. Hale, Palatine.

The appointment places Continental's 28-state Mid-America Department on an autonomous basis corresponding to supervisory organizations in the company's Eastern, Pacific and Canadian Departments.

Since joining Continental in 1948, Green has held various posts, including those of executive assistant to both the president of the company and to the agency vice president. He has a degree from the Graduate School of Business Adminitration, Harvard University, and is a graduate of the Agency Management School of the Life Insurance Agency Management Association, holding a Certified Life Underwriter certificate received in 1952.

Arlington Man Is Drafted for Post

NED SHANAHAN

Edmond M. (Ned) Shanahan, 815 N. Dunton street, Arlington Heights, has been drafted to head one of the most important assignments in Chicago's Community Fund-Red Cross Joint Appeal. He will head the volunteer speakers bureau for the second year.

When the Joint Appeal fell more than $2 million short of its goal last year, business leaders drafted Philip R. Clarke dynamic supersalesman of more than $1 billion of government bonds during World War II, to head 1959 campaign. When Clarke accepted the challenge, he said that he would lead the Crusade of Mercy Joint Appeal this fall only if he could have top leadership.

TOP LEADERSHIP has responded to his call, and Shanahan was one of the men chosen because of his outstanding record last year.

Shanahan's duties in his volunteer capacity are to recruit and train other volunteer speakers, and to assign these persons to tell the Community Fund - Red Cross Joint Appeal's story of the Crusade of Mercy at various company rallies, clubs, and luncheons throughout the city of Chicago.

Under his guidance, employee - group tours of Red Feather agencies and the Red Cross are arranged, so that the men and women who are working on in - plant campaigns may better understand why they are asking for contributions.

The Joint Appeal's needs are set this year at $14,638,316 to help support the activities of the 156 Red Feather agencies and the Chicago Chapter of the American Red Cross. "This is the sum that we must raise in the city of Chicago to bring solvency back to the agencies and the Red Cross," Clarke stated.

The Joint Appeal of the Community Fund of Chicago and the Chicago Red Cross Chapter operates only in the city of Chicago. Since Chicago Chapter of the Red Cross covers all of Cook and DuPage counties, the Red Cross puts on its own fund raising campaign in most of the suburban communities each month during March.

SHANAHAN WAS born in Omaha, Neb., and finished his high school work at Fenwick high school, Oak Park. He holds a bachelor of social science degree from St. Mary's college, Winona, Minn., where he was co - captain of the football team.

Since the first of the year, Shanahan has been the Executive Staff assitant in charge of publications at Bell Savings and Loan association, 79 W. Monroe street in the city. Prior to that, he was Senior Personnel Assistant at The Peoples Gas Light and Coke company.

Shanahan is active in the work of the Chicago Junior Association of Commerce and Industry, the Citizens of Greater Chicago, the National Conference of Christians and Jews of which he was a junior board member in 1958, and is a member of the board of directors of St. Mary's Alumni Association. He was president of the Chicago Junior Chamber in 1955-56.

SHANAHAN WAS A member of the Community Fund speakers bureau from 1953 through 1956, with the Joint Appeal in 1957, and was chairman of the bureau last year. He is chairman of the financial advisory committee of the USO in 1958.

Shanahan and his wife, Elizabeth, are the parents of three children: Michael, 6, Maribeth, 5, and Thomas, 2.

3 Area Men On Banking Committees

Three northwest suburban residents have been named to serve on various committees of the Chicago Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Robert G. Pomrenke, 309 N. Stratford rd., Arlington Heights, has been named chairman of the programs and social committee. John J. O'Neil, 908 E. Oakton ave., Arlington Heights, is a member of the Board of Consuls committee. Paul R. Donato, 709 Neva, Addison, will serve on the athletic committee.

Donato is associated with the Harris Trust and Savings bank. Both Pomrenke and O'Neil are with the First National Bank of Chicago.

The American Institute of Banking is the world's largest adult educational group, and the Chicago Chapter is the largest in the A.I.B. (BB

Extension Cord Wear Danger Sign

Extension cords will never short-circuit or fail completely if you check them often and discard them when they start to show wear.

Nearly every extension cord will show signs of its weakness before it fails, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois. Frayed coverings on fabric-covered cords are evidence that the cords need to be replaced.

When a rubber-covered cord becomes brittle or when the rubber covering begins to crack, it is a sign that a new one is needed. In an emergency the cord may be repaired with plastic or friction tape. Never use household adhesive tape to make electrical repairs.

Plugs on extension cords should be checked frequently for loose or bare wires. You can repair the plug easily by cutting off the ragged ends of the wire and reattaching it to the plug.

One other thing to remember is that extension cords usually do not have the capacity to carry more than one appliance. If you have to connect more than one appliance to a cord, you probably need more wall outlets. (BB

To Televise Bullfights; That Is the Question

Due to the wide public response, both pro and con, that the August 1 scheduling of 'Bullfights from Mexico City" has already elecitied, WBKB will format one week later an exciting round-table debate on all aspects of the controversial subject.

Entitled "Bullfights: Pro and Con," the special program will range representatives of humane societies against noted bullfight experts and aficionados, and will be telecast over WBKB, Saturday, Aug. 8, 10 p.m. to conclusion.

The debate will be moderated by Chuck Bill, WBKB farm director and popular television personality.

Speaking against bullfighting on the telecast will be J. J. Shaffer, managing director, The Anti-Cruelty Society; A. Gilmore DuVal, director, Humane Society of Illinois; Allen A. Glisch, Manager, Illinois Citizens Animal Welfare league; and another representative of a Humane Society, to be announced.

Representing the pro side of the argument will be Tony Weitzel, popular columnist of the Chicago Daily-News; Luis Carlos Uribe, Mexican bullfight expert and Chicago Spanish language broadcaster; Reverend Father Patrick McPolin, prominent Chicago priest; and Dr. Jose Sanchez, Professor of Spanish at the University of Illinois and consultant for Latin American Affairs at the Pan American Games.

Sr. Uribe, Dr. Sanchez and Father McPolin were featured on the August 1 "Bullfights From Mexico City" program, which is being formatted by WBKB in furtherance of Pan American understanding. (WBKB is exclusively telecasting the Pan American Games, August 27-September 7.)

"Bullfights: Pro and Con" is scheduled to run for a minimum of 30 minutes (10-10:30 p.m.), but if the discussion warrants, the program will continue as long as moderator Bill deems necessary.

In scheduling this special television debate, Sterling C. Quinlan, ABC Vice President in charge of WBKB, stated: "In presenting 'Bullfights From Mexico City,' WBKB is not in any manner advocating bullfighting. However, we do believe that it is valid public service to furnish our viewers with a glimpse of aspects of world communities other than our own, to facilitate a better understanding of them. "Bullfights: Pro and Con' will serve to fulfill further this intent." (BB

Mt. Prospect Bank Increases Capital

Mt. Prospect State Bank has increased its capital and surplus to $1 million effective July 9, through a 10 per cent stock dividend and sale of 12,000 shares of additional stock.

William J. Busse, president, stated that with the enlarged capitalization, the bank's capital is $450,000 and surplus $550,000 for a total of $1 million. Undivided profits and reserves add another $288,000 to the capital structure. Deposits of the bank are in excess of $15 million. Busse said that the new capital structure now provides a deposit to capital ratio more in keeping with the bank's resources and its opportunity for further growth. Also, the bank's maximum loaning limit to one customer is increased from $90,000 to $150,000.

In line with Mt. Prospect State Bank plans for serving its rapidly expanding area, a modern, new $350,000 bank building is scheduled for completion and occupancy about the middle of October. It will provide better than 12,000 square feet of banking space—more than twice that of the present quarters, with provision for adding another story of floor space at some future date. (BB

Ullrich Accountant Associate Director

Max G. Ullrich, 915 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, was recently appointed to the office of Associate Director of Member Attendance of the Chicago Chapter of the National Association of Accountants.

The association, known as the N. A. A., was founded in 1919 and has grown to over 140 chapters throughout the United States. The Chicago Chapter has 1200 members.

Ullrich is employed by the Ohmite Manufacturing Company as Assistant Controller. (BB

Palatine Man Heads Elgin Division

WILLIAM H. BAUDOUINE

The appointment of William H. Baudouine, 1045 N. Quentin rd., Palatine, as general manager of the abrasives division of Elgin National Watch company was announced this week by George J. Daly Jr., executive vice president and treasurer for the company.

Baudouine joined Elgin in 1953 as a sales engineer in the northern Illinois area. In January of 1956 he was appointed sales manager for the division, which position he has held until this appointment.

He is a graduate of Northwestern University holding a degree in mechanical engineering. He served with the Air Force during World War II and the Korean conflict. (BB

New Law Places Tax Redemption Ceiling

A law to protect home-owners from excessive redemption costs through tax sales was signed by Gov. Stratton last week.

Known as House Bill 114 sponsored by Rep. William G. Clark and Andrew A. Euzzino of Chicago, the new law places a limit of 110 per cent of the amount that would have been paid if the redemption had occurred immediately before the tax deed was issued, on what the owner must pay the tax buyer. Specified costs must also be borne by the owner.

The law is applicable only to owners of real estate occupied as a home at the time the tax deed is given. The regular interest charge is one per cent a month, and owners have two years to redeem.

ANOTHER LAW signed, House Bill 452 by Rep. Lelivelt, changes from September to October the month in which application must be made for sale of property for taxes and special asssesments.

A third, Sen. Bill 368 by Sen. Strunck, divides Cook county into four assessment districts with the quadrennial assessment taking place in each district in a different year, designed to spread the load of work involved.

It sets the final dates of adjournment of the board of appeals 60 days after the date of the last delivery to it of assessment books for any township of taxing district.

Hospital Slates Preview Opening

A preview open-house and tour of a new, 3-bed, $150,000 addition to Forest hospital, one of the few private mental institutions in the mid-west, will be held on Saturday, Aug. 8 from 1 to 5 p.m. at Forest hospital, 555 Wilson lane, Des Plaines.

THE TOUR will include all the features of the 6,000 square foot addition, such as the solarium, patients' rooms, treatment and consultation rooms, nurses' rooms, and staff offices.

'This important event can help the public to understand better the modern treatment and cure of mental disease," Mr. Squire said. "Many people still believe mental illness is incurable, or that it requires many years of hospital confinement.

"However, patients can often be helped by a short term, intensive treatment at the hospital."

At Forest hospital the average stay of a patient is only 17 days. Patients are then usually improved enough to continue their care at home under the direction of their psychiatrist.

THIS IS accomplished by all departments acting as a team, with the entire staff of psychiatrists occupational and recreational therapists, dieticians, nurses, social workers and aides working together with the patient's own psychiatrist on a specialized prescribed treatment for each patient.

Once a week, a discussion is held by the entire staff, and every case is analyzed. One particular case is presented by an attending psychiatrist, and it is given a more intensive and detailed examination. This insures a flow of ideas and observations from many different sources.

Much of the decor in the new addition was actually selected by the patients. Color schemes and room furnishings were pre-tested for patient preferences, then approved by the hospital psychiatric staff.

Furnishings in the new private, double and three bedrooms include sofa beds, desks, lounge chairs, and original paintings to produce the appearance of lounges, rather than of hospital rooms.

THE PRESENT facilities of 60 beds will be increased to 90 with the new "Country House" addition, designed by Otto Stroebel, architect.

The hospital is located on the banks of the Des Plaines River, and is bordered by a wooded area. Outdoor barbecues and weekly movies are part of the hospital's routine.

The staff of 70 includes seven psychiatrists, 30 nurses, 6 occupational and recreational therapists, hospital aides, and a department of psychiatric social work. Unlike most other private mental hospitals, Forest hospital has "open staff" privileges, which make the hospital available to any qualified psychiatrist and his patients.

THIS PROGRAM is under the direction of Forest hospital's psychiatric director, Dr. Rudolph Novick who is a Fellow of the American Psychiatric association, and a Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. He is associate professor of Psychiatry at the University of Illinois Medical school, and a member of the Michael Reese hospital courtesy staff. Dr. Novick has served as director of the Illinois Society for Mental Health, consultant for the Chicago Board of Health, Chicago Tuberculosis sanitarium, and the Chicago State hospital. He attended Northwestern University Medical school, and was a resident doctor at Jacksonville, Manteno and Elgin State hospitals. He is a member of the Chicago Institute of Psychoanalysis. Dr. Novick was appointed psychiatric director of Forest hospital in 1958.

Squire and Dr. Novick will act as hosts at the open house on August 8. Refreshments will be served.

Local Travel Agent Cited By Magazine

The Travel Agent magazine, an international publication of the travel industry, has given special recognition to an Arlington Heights travel agent.

Its July 25 issue tells of how Wayne Griffin, who operates the Wayne Griffin Travel Service, 1302 W. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights, uses his television program to create interest in travel. It analyses for other travel agents throughout the world the use of television in the promotion of travel. (BB

Available Mortgage Credit New Concern

With residential construction at a near-record pace through the first half of 1959, industry concern now has turned to the cost and availability of mortgage credit, says the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.

Signs of tightening in the mortgage market have appeared gradually since the beginning of the year, the bank reports. Widening discounts on FHA and VA home mortgages have been indicative of the competition of other investment alternatives available to large institutional investors.

The recent boost to 5¼ per cent in the maximum interest rate on VA mortgages is an effort to make this type of investment more attractive, the bank notes, but industry experts have expressed doubts that this will help materially if yields on other long-term investments continue to advance.

REPORTS from builders and lenders in the Midwest indicate that buyers during the first half of 1959 have shown both a keen interest in new homes and a willingness to assume mortgage debt obligations. This sentiment differs from a year ago, says the bank, when the industry was concerned more with the salability of its product than with the availability of adequate financing.

The district's urban centers combined showed a 38 per cent increase in new starts in the first four months over the 1958 period, equal to the nationwide gain. In Chicago, permits were 54 per cent ahead of 1958 for the first six months, with the margin widening progressively during the season.

New starts in Milwaukee were only six per cent above 1958 for the six-month period. Indianapolis reported a 12 per cent gain in the first four months, with March and April increases making up deficits in the first two months. Total permits in Detroit were nearly 28 per cent ahead of last year midway through 1959, but June was down from the 1958 month.

Expectations of builders and lenders for the remainder of 1959 parallel experience to date in these centers, the bank reports. Chicago builders look for a good second half equal to 1958, but Milwaukee and Detroit respondents feel that the pattern evident in recent months would likely persist for the rest of the year. Indianapolis is expected to better last year's second half performance, but a shift to lower-priced units in that area may result in little change in total dollar outlays. (BB

Local Man Taking Sales Psychology

A discussion of "mental adjustment to the sales operation" by an industrial psychologist will highlight a unique eight-week summer training course for sales personnel of John F. Chapple and Company, builders of industrial construction and bulk facilities. Robert N. Cummings, 1115 W. Elm st., Arlington Heights, is one of those enrolled.

Stressing knowledge of product, skill of the company, and attitude of the seller, the course will be presented in conjunction with the Butler Manufacturing Company which Chapple represents in Illinois and Northern Indiana.

EDWARD F. LUSSIER, 1216 Chicago avenue, the chief counsel of the Military Subsistence Supply Agency, Chicago, is congratulated by Maj. Gen. Hugh Mackintosh, agency executive director, for winning an Army citation for outstanding civilian work performance.

As head of the legal staff of the national military food supply headquarters, Lussier at 31 is thought to be the youngest chief counsel in the government. He joined the General Counsel's office in Washington in 1950 after winning his law degree at Loyola University. He has been with the Armed Forces' food agency in Chicago since 1953.

From Chicago, the Agency directs $700 million of food purchases at 30 regional market centers and field offices. They supply food to the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines under the Defense Department's single-manager supply program.

The Lussiers have lived in Arlington Heights since 1956. They have five children, all boys. Son No. 5 arrived at Resurrection hospital July 27 concurrently with the Army award to the dad.

Indict Four Men For Double Loan

Four men were named in a federal grand jury indictment this week on charges of making false statements and false entries in connection with 109 "double" home improvement loans made to the same borrowers unknowingly by the Republic Savings and Loan association, 5350 South Kedzie, and the Park National Bank of Chicago, 2958 Milwaukee ave.

Those indicted are: Ramon Spector, 37 years old, 8902 Osceola dr., Morton Grove, president of Su-Lite Distributing, Inc., 4008 Lawrence ave., home improvements; James W. Jacobs, 48, of 6800 North Tonty, former home improvement officer at the Cosmopolitan National Bank, 801 N. Clark st.; Marvin Starr, 30, of 2725 Pine Grove, former Su-Lite salesman; and Charles T. Scott, 34, of 599 Sunnyside, Elmhurst, former home improvements loan office at Republic.

MOST OF THE borrowers are in the Meadowdale development at Carpentersville, and a large proportion defaulted their double loans in various banks, according to Assistant U.S. Attorney John B. McFaddin. The scheme, begun in 1956, was to convince the borrowers to take improvements they could not afford by promising to "consolidate" their loans, and then get one loan for the improvement and one for the consolidation. Although the monthly payments might be smaller, they lasted over a much longer period.

McFaddin said of 180 loans made by Park National bank, 94 were defaulted and 56 borrowers went bankrupt. Other loans were had at United Savings and Loan association, State National Bank of Huntley, Ill., and University National Bank, 1354 East 55th st.

George A. Askounis, attorney for Republic, said Scott was able to get the loans approved through his employment at Republic while on the payroll at Su-Lite, but that the duplication was unknown to either Republic or Park National, despite the many cases involved. No loss will occur to either institution, he said. (BB

Massey Named Universal Oil Computer Head

Universal Oil Products Company has appointed Dr. L. G. Massey, 1309 W. Sigwalt, Arlington Heights, as head of the UOP computer department, M. P. Venema, president, announced.

"By providing the means for rapid solutions to a variety of complex problems, Universal's computer department has proven a valuable asset to the company and its customers," Nenema said in announcing the appointment.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Dr. Massey joined Universal's pilot plant division in 1951. In 1957 he was appointed assistant head of the computer department.

Carl Hammerl To Attend Bank School

Carl Hammerl, executive vice president of Mt. Prospect State Bank, will attend the School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. This will be his first year at the school which requires two weeks resident attendance each year for three years to earn the certificate of graduation. Throughout the year between resident sessions students are required to do extension work involving problems in all phases of banking.

The school is sponsored by the Central States conference, composed of bankers associations in 16 mid-western states. Attendance this year will approximate, 1,175 bankers, ranging from junior officers and department managers to presidents, vice presidents and board chairmen of banks from 40 states.

THE FACULTY OF over 110 instructors consists of bankers who are specilists in their respective fields, practicing attorneys, business executives and members of a number of university and college faculties. The instructors comprise one of the most competent groups of men in their respective professions ever assembled for adult educational purposes.

The present high standards of banking service in communities throughout the country will be enhanced by attendance of local bank officers at this specialized banking school. (BB

Jewel Food Stores Plan Big Expansion

George L. Clements, president of Jewel Tea Co., Inc., had good news for Chicago area homemakers this week when he announced more new Jewel food stores and continued low food prices for the Chicago area.

Present plans call for 18 new Jewel food stores to open in the Chicago metropolitan area within the next 20 weeks—almost one a week. These new stores will create job opportunities for at least 1,000 Chicago area residents.

Good news for Chicago area homemakers is the latest government figure which shows that food prices in Chicago are down 2½ per cent from a year ago. Especially good values in beef and pork which are so important to the food budget, are expected to continue through the last half of 1959, said Clements.

GOOD NEWS FOR Jewel was shown in the retail sales for the four weeks ending July 18, 1959. Sales for the seventh period of 1959 showed an increase of 10.0 per cent over the same period last year with sales amounting to $35,851,149; the highest sales for any four week period in the Company's history as well as the 199th consecutive four week period for which a sales gain over a prior year had been recorded. Accumulated sales for the 28 weeks ending July 18, 1959, were 6.1 per cent over the same period of 1958 with total accumulated sales amounting to $245,802,139.

Clements expressed his appreciation for this continued vote of confidence from the entire metropolitan area in the Jewel way of doing business with low prices, clean stores, good service and friendly employees. (BB

At Iowa

Concentrated practice in the operation of an imaginary business firm was scheduled for 17 graduate students and two faculty members at The State University of Iowa, who took part in a 3-day Business Decisions laboratory which opened July 30.

Participating in the project was Floyd Burns of 514 N. Ridge, Arlington Heights.

Co-sponsored by the SUI college of business administration and the SUI computer center, the laboratory provides for speedy computing of quarterly operating statements for the business through use of the University's "electronic brain." The International Business Machines Model 650 high-speed electronic computer makes it possible to figure in a few minutes the quarterly statements.

Decisions for the following quarter will then be based on these statements, making it possible for those taking part in the laboratory to gain in a few hours the equivalent of years of practical experience. (CC

Jeanine Tranter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Tranter, 302 S. Barron st., Bensenville, is one of 61 students who will attend The State University of Iowa on Drew Memorial scholarships during the 1959-60 year, according to Helen Reich, chairman of the University scholarship committee. Drew scholarships provide $220 for fees for each student. (CC

At Wisconsin

Donald Ahmer, son of Edward J. Ahmer, 203 W. Fremont st., Arlington Heights, visited the University of Wisconsin campus during the past week to register for UW studies to be started with the opening of the University's school year in September.

Donald was taking advantage of the UW's advance registration program for new freshmen, now in its fifth week for this summer, designed to help young people make their transition into university life easier both for themselves and their parents. Under the program the young men and women visit the campus for at least a day, often with either their mothers or fathers or both parents, arrange for their housing if that is not already done, take some placement tests, meet some student leaders and faculty members, and register for their coming University studies designed to lead them into their life careers. They can also make use of the UW's valuable Student Counseling services.

Observes 30th Year With Firm

LESLIE R. WEIGEL

Leslie R. Weigel, 304 Ridge, Prospect Heights, assistant superintendent of distribution for Northern Illinois Gas company, Monday observed his 30th anniversary in the utility business.

Prior to a four-year military leave of absence, from 1941 to 1945, Weigle held various engineering, sales, and inspection posts in Maywood and Oak Park. He returned to Oak Park in 1945 as operating engineer, and became supervising operating engineer there in 1950.

He was transferred in 1952 to perform the same duties in the operating department in Bellwood. In a move to Evanston in 1954, he became operating foreman and four months later was named division operating superintendent.

Last March, he was promoted to his present position with offices in Bellwood.

His leisure-time activities include fishing, gardening and landscape painting.

Weigle and his wife, Charmaine, have three daughters, Marilyn, of Wheeling, Paula, of Des Plaines, and Jill, a 5th grade student at Prospect Heights elementary school; and a son, Vance, also of 304 Ridge, Prospect Heights.

Redesignate Kinross AFB As Kincheloe

The redesignation of Kinross Air Force Base, Kinross, Mich., to Kincheloe Air Force Base in honor of the late Captain Iven C. Kincheloe, Jr., effective September 18, 1959, was announced recently by the United States Air Force.

In redesignating Kinross Air Base, utilized as a fighter interceptor base for the Air Defense Command, the Air Force is honoring the memory of an outstanding test pilot and officer who was a leading candidate as the "first man in space" until he was killed in an aircraft accident on July 26, 1958.

Captain Kincheloe lost his life when he bailed out of a crippled F-104 fighter plane near Rosamond, Calif. He is buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

Des Plaines Women Appointed to Board

Two new members, both from Des Plaines, have been elected to three-year terms on the board of directors of the Northwest Family Service association, Dr. Robert G. Savage, Prospect Heights, agency president, has announced.

They are Mrs. Henry F. Heller, 1300 Prairie, and Mrs. Fred W. Kameyer, 987 Third ave. Election of the two women gives Des Plaines four representatives on the 22-member Family Service board. Currently Palatine, Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights each have six representatives.

PURPOSE OF the Family Service Association, which was organized in 1957, is to offer confidential counseling service to help families and individuals solve personal problems in marital relationships, child-parent adjustment, old age, mental and physical handicaps and other human difficulties. It operates in Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights and Palatine township. Association offices are maintained at 214 S. Emerson st., in Mt. Prospect by Mrs. George E. Nicklaus, the organization's executive director and professional caseworker.

Second annual fund drive of the association will be held October 4th through 10th with a four-community goal of $25,000, according to Dr. Savage. Palatine's quota in the drive is $3,500. This includes Inverness, which as part of Palatine township also is served by the association. Goals for each of the other communities in which the Family Service association operates are, Des Plaines, $9,500; Arlington Heights, $7,000; and Mt. Prospect, $5,000. Community quotas are assigned on the basis of the average number of cases handled from each community during the past year. (B8

Sanitary District Ceiling Is Passed

Gov. Stratton has signed an amendment to the Sanitary District law, introduced by Reps. William G. Clark and P. J. Miller as House Bill 1409, permitting the board of trustees to spend not over $5,000,000 yearly for drainage and flood control.

The tax levy must be approved by a referendum.

Also signed was House Bill 1251 by Rep. Clark, which authorized the trustees to levy taxes for replacements or remodeling sewage works.

STATE INSPECTION of meat and poultry in Illinois by the Department of Agriculture under a $750,000 appropriation was signed into law by Gov. Stratton, effective July 1, 1960.

The law provides for an annual license by slaughtering places, except packing plants under federal inspection which ship in interstate commerce.

In municipalities which now have inspection, or adopt it hereafter, this shall replace the state inspection provided it has equal standards.

The licensing provision does not apply to retailers selling products direct to the consumer, providing inspection has been made at the time of slaughter or processing.

The penalty for violators is up to $500 fine and one year imprisonment. (B8

Stratton Approves School Code Laws

Four amendments to the School Code were signed into law by Gov. Stratton following passage by the recent legislative session.

House Bill 1513 by Reps. Hunter and Clabaugh permits the interest on a bonded debt to be used as a factor in computing tuition cost for non-high pupils.

House Bill 1519 by Rep. Marek eliminates a referendum vote on the sale of unneeded school lands, and permits the sale with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the school board.

HOUSE BILL 1603 by Rep. Simon provides that school boards shall furnish free transportation for pupils living at a distance of one and one-half miles or more from school except those pupils for whom the school board shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that adequate public transportation is available.

House Bill 892 by Reps. Clabaugh and Lelivelt provides that the territory of two or more community unit school districts that are contiguous and the territory of which taken as a whole is compact, may be organized into a community unit school district. (B8

Q. What is the best thing to say to a fellow employee when he returns to the office after the funeral of a parent?

A. A brief, but warm, handclasp should be enough. Or just, "I am very sorry." Don't launch into a long speech, or ask any questions.

Q. At the end of a dancing course in a studio, is one supposed to tip the instructor?

A. This is not necessary. The instructor is paid a salary for teaching.

Q. What is one supposed to say to the bride and bridegroom at the wedding reception, also what does one say to the parents?

A. You wish the bride all happiness, congratulate the bridegroom, tell the bride's parents how lovely the bride is, and tell the bridegroom's parents what a charming couple they make.

Plant Next Spring's Lawn Late This Month

By: JAMES FIZZELL, Assistant Farm Adviser

Late summer is one of the best times to renovate old lawns. If the job is started in August, and the lawn seeded by September, the fall growth plus the growth the next spring will produce a turf thick enough to keep out crabgrass, and make it difficult for weeds to get started.

PROBABLY THE most important step in renovating a lawn is the removal of all weeds. If there are few weeds in the lawn, or if the lawn is quite small, the weeds can be pulled. For large or weedy lawns, the chemical weed killers are almost a necessity.

Broad-leaved weeds such as dandelions, plantain, or chickweed can be killed with 2,4-D, 2,4,5-T or combinations of the two.

Be sure to use these materials with care, as they will seriously injure or even kill broadleaved flowers, shrubs, or vegetables. It is best to apply weed killers at a time when there is no wind so that there is no chance for the fumes to drift to desirable plants. The new dry forms of these materials now on the market considerably lessen the danger of damage.

CRABGRASS CAN be killed with disodium methyl arsenate, potassium cyanate, or certain other compounds especially formulated for this purpose. Several treatments may be necessary.

Undesirable perennial grasses such as the tall fescues can be spot treated with grass killers such as Dowpon; however, unless the entire lawn is to be killed, Dowpon must be used with care as it kills desirable as well as weedy grasses.

After the weeds have been killed, the lawn should be raked thoroughly to loosen the upper crust of soil and tear up the mat of dried grass. Low places in the lawn should be filled in with fine topsoil.

TEN DAYS to two weeks after the last weed killer treatment, the lawn can be fertilized, and grub proofing materials applied. Fertilizer of 10-10-10, 10-8-6, or similar analysis should be applied at the rate of ten pounds per 1000 square feet of lawn. Lead arsenate ten pounds per 1000 square feet, or chlordane, one-fourth pound for the same area will control earthworms and grubs. Chlordane also controls ants, chiggers, and webworms.

Seed was a grass suited to the location. In northern Illinois, Kentucky bluegrass is probably the best adapted grass for lawns. The variety Marion blue is just as well suited, but is more expensive and may be more susceptible to certain diseases. If the lawn is quite shady, it may be necessary to sow a mixture containing 25 per cent fine leaved fescue and 75 per cent bluegrass.

THE SEED should be sown at one-half the rate recommended for new lawns. Roll after seeding to smooth the surface and firm the seed into the soil. Water immediately after rolling, but wet only the upper inch of soil. When the soil is again dry, water once a day until two weeks after the seed has germinated. After two weeks, watering every day is no longer necessary, and more water can be applied at each watering. After the middle of October, there will probably be sufficient moisture in the soil so that watering will not be required.

The lawn should be cut when the old grass reaches a height of 2½ inches, regardless of the height of the new grass.

Down On The Farm

CARL F. MEES

with Your Farm Adviser

Shield, a new oat variety of Canadian origin, yielded 105 bushels per acre on the demonstration plot located on Harold Bergman's farm near Ela rd., on Rte. 62. Shield is an early maturity variety that produces rather thin kernels, with a test weight of 36 pounds per bushel this year.

This variety yielded very well in the test plots in 1958. It is the first year that it has been included in the plot in Cook county. Shield is a cross (Roxton x (Victoria x Hajira-Banner) x ajax x Victoria (Fm x Hajira-Banner)

THE YIELDS and test weights of the varieties included in the plot were:

| Variety | Yield Bushels per acre | Test Weight |
|---|---|---|
| Shield | 105 | 36 |
| Minhafer | 98 | 38 |
| Garry | 97 | 32 |
| Beedee | 95 | 36 |
| Clintland | 94 | 35 |
| Burnett | 82 | 37 |
| Minton | 80 | 32 |
| Clintland 60 | 76 | 37 |
| Newton | 73 | 36 |
| Clinton | 72 | 37 |
| Nemaha | 64 | 37 |

All varieties stood well except Minton. Another plot located on William Bernard's farm in southern Cook county has not been harvested as of this writing. It will be interesting to compare the results of the two plots. This will be done in the next issue of the paper.

THERE HAVE BEEN excellent yields of oats reported this year. Keith Chidley, Palatine Township, reported a yield of more than 100 bushels per acre from Garry oats. Yields of 75 bushels per acre are not uncommon. However, the average yield for the county will be lower than last year by several bushels per acre, because of the disease "yellow dwarf" that struck some areas.

Wheat yields, on the average, have been lower than last year, however, Erwin Busse, Elk Grove Township, reported a yield of over 60 bushels per acre.

ONION SET maggots can be controlled with a good spray program says William Moellenkamp of Elk Grove Township. He said he got good control by a regular spray program of D.D.T. and Parathion. This kills the fly that lays the egg that later hatches into the maggot.

Some of the onion set growers in the South Holland area have reported good results with the use of diazinon as a seed treatment; others have reported that the granular diazinon treatment has killed the sets. At any rate we need more information on the diazinon treatment before we fully understand how it works. (Fm

Timely Harvest Aids Corn, Tomato Crops

Pick tomatoes and sweet corn at the proper time, and then handle them carefully after picking. These are the two most important rules to follow in harvesting sweet corn and tomatoes.

HOW CAN YOU tell when sweet corn is ready for picking? Here are several suggestions that may help you:

1. Dry silks indicates that corn is reaching maturity.
2. Feel the ears to make sure that they are full, even the tips.
3. Pull the tip of the husk open and peek inside. Kernels should be yellow and plump. Unless the corn is white variety, whiteness indicates immaturity.
4. Using a fingernail, puncture several of the kernels. If they are properly mature, milk should leak out. If water leaks out, they are too young. And if a doughy substance oozes out they are too old.

ACTUALLY, THE time to pick corn depends on how you like to eat it. Some people prefer young corn; others prefer it more mature.

After harvesting the corn, place it in a cool storage area. Tests show that corn at 32 degrees F. loses only 8 per cent of its sugar content in 24 hours. At 86 degrees, though, it loses 50 per cent of its sugar content in 24 hours.

Of course, corn tastes best when immediately after harvest.

CONTRARY to many beliefs, it is best not to let tomatoes ripen on the vine during Illinois midsummer weather. For firmer and better tasting tomatoes, pick them at the "turning" stage. This is the stage when they just begin to show color.

After harvesting, place them in a cool location where the temperature is somewhere between 45 and 65 degrees. A temperature in this range is most often found in cellars or basements. The lower the temperature, the longer it takes the tomatoes to mature.

Do not place tomatoes in the refrigerator until after they ripen. FM

U. S. To Get World's First Soil Conservation Stamp

The world's first soil conservation stamp will be released by the post office department August 26, at Rapid City, South Dakota. It will be on sale at most post offices the following day.

THE ISSUANCE of this stamp celebrates no anniversary or honors no man. Rather it is a dramatic recognition by the nation that American farmers and ranchers are hard at work to protect and improve, for the benefit of us all, our most valuable natural resource, the soil.

The stamp portrays the beauty as well as the bounty that modern conservation farming brings to rural living. The city styling on the horizon signifies at the same time that dwellers of skyscrapers also have a stake in soil conservation.

THE STAMP will be to them a symbol of assurance that a plentiful supply of food and other products of the land will continue to flow to the seven-eights of our people who live in town.

The stamp is a tribute to the countless farmers and ranchers who are demonstrating good soil stewardship. It is a salute to their locally organized soil conservation districts, and to the scientists, technicians and other agricultural workers of State and Federal Government who lend assistance. Its design contains a reminder that soil conservation is an orderly combination of practices and land use that carefully relate water, grass, trees, livestock, wildlife and other crops to the land.

Directors of the Lake County Soil Conservation District are encouraging the purchase of these stamps. Post offices in the county are being urged to order a supply of these stamps. (Fm

Family Finance Lesson July 15 For Home Bureau

"What Every Wife Should Know About Family Finances" was the subject of the July 15 meeting of the Mt. Prospect Home Bureau held at the home of Mrs. Carl E. Anderson. Mrs. Mary Ruth Schmidt was co-hostess. The lesson pointed out the necessity of being informed of all financial information concerning one's family and the need of preparing for the leadership of that family should the need arise.

AUGUST 19 THE unit will meet for a picnic and cookout lunch at the home of Mrs. Jefferson Lockhart at Wauconda. Low heels and play clothes will be the order of the day.

The program for the remainder of the year will be given at a later date. (Fm

Bossy's Milk Running Low? Look for Blood-Sucking Flies

Biting flies can cause a 15 to 25 per cent loss in milk production!

That's the word of warning to farmers from H. B. Petty, entomologist with the Illinois Natural History Survey and the University of Illinois. In dollars and cents, this production loss can easily add up to $10 per cow during the summer.

THERE ARE several species of blood-sucking flies, and the most obnoxious is the stable fly. These flies resemble houseflies but have needle-like beaks protruding from their heads. Production losses from stable fly attacks commonly range from 10 to 20 per cent and can even range up to 50 per cent.

Horn flies, somewhat smaller than houseflies, are easy to recognize, as they cluster on the backs and shoulders of cattle by the hundreds. Damage from this fly does not equal stable fly damage.

Horseflies and deer flies are also important blood-sucking flies. Where they are a problem, milk production can drop as much as 50 per cent. In southern Illinois horseflies have sometimes reduced butterfat production 13 to 14 per cent during the horsefly season. Horseflies can also retard beef gains on pasture ¼ to ½ pound per day.

WHAT CAN farmers do to protect themselves against these losses?

Petty reports that good sanitation is absolutely necessary for control of stable flies because maggots thrive in refuse. Therefore, remove or destroy rotting manure and piles of wet and rotting straw, hay and grass clippings.

Although fly controls in barns is a convenience, it does not particularly aid milk production. Production losses usually occur in pasture when flies prevent cattle from grazing or resting.

PETTY RECOMMENDS two repellents, Tabatrex and R-326, for spraying dairy cattle. These repellents will keep flies off the animals while they're grazing and also during milking. Small amounts of pryethrin or allerthrin added to Tabatres or R-326 will improve lasting qualities and increase repellency of the sprays.

Tabatres and R-326, alone or combined with a knock down agent, are sold as emulsifiable concentrates or dilute oil sprays. Apply a water emulsion of either material at the rate of one quart per animal twice a week. Apply the ready-to-use oil-base spray at the rate of two ounces per animal every day.

IF HORN FLIES are the only problem, a methoxychlor or malathion dust gives satisfactory results. Rub the powder into the poll, neck and back every three weeks. Do not use methoxychlor sprays on milk cows.

A backrubber with 5 per cent toxaphene or methoxychlor in oil protects dry stock or young beef and dairy animals horn flies. However, it will not protect against stable flies or horseflies. During winter months this same device will hold to control lice.

Do not allow dairy animals to use the backrubber for 30 days before freshening, or beef cattle 30 days before slaughtering.

Simple Precautions Can Prevent Crop Dusting Woes

Liability for crop spraying or dusting damages can be avoided. These damages occur when weed insecticide sprays and dusts drift to sensitive crops or livestock, injuring and often killing them.

H. W. HANNAH, University of Illinois professor of agricultural law, states that farmers, insecticide and herbicide manufacturers and suppliers can and should take certain precautions to protect themselves from these damage claims.

First, before manufacturers place their product on the market, they should determine whether it can injure other crops, livestock or even people.

If a manufacturer states that persons can use his product safely by following certain precautions, he cannot be held liable for damages if someone uses it carelessly. A federal court of appeals has made this ruling.

THE SAME COURT has also ruled that instructions and precautions printed on the container label must be easy for the average person to understand.

For example, an Arizona court found an insecticide supplier negligent because he had not warned customers of the dangers in using a certain chemical.

In another case, a court ruled a chemical company negligent. They had not fully tested a weed killing chemical and did not know how far the material would drift.

Hannah recommends the following steps to farmers who want to avoid damage as well as damage suits:

When hiring a custom spray operator, insist that he have liability insurance protecting you from any consequences of drift damage.

IF YOU APPLY your own sprays and dusts, you also should get liability insurance. Before spraying, check with your neighbors to see whether any sensitive crops are growing in the area. Never spray or dust when a wind is blowing toward these crops.

Farmesr who suffer crop damage stand a good chance of recovering losses if they need to take the case to court. Records show that those who have proved the source of damage have recovered at least part of their loss.

Obtain the services of a competent attorney if any legal steps are involved. He will know the laws and court decisions and can give advice accordingly. (Fm

Poor Corn Crops Blamed On Low Rain, High Mercury

Corn yields drop most when June, July or August temperatures are abnormally high or rainfall is abnormally low, according to a University of Illinois study of temperatures and rainfall in relation to corn yields in seven southeastern Illinois counties.

G. L. JORDAN, professor agricultural economics, reports that over the 27 years from 1930 to 1956 low yields were associated with at least one month of deficient rainfall. In three years rainfall was deficient in all three summer months. In several cases, high temperature, particularly in July, made the situation worse.

Lowest yields occurred in 1954, when corn dropped 21.6 bushels below the yield trend. In that year temperatures were abnormally high in June, July and August, and rainfall was below average in each of those months. The combination proved disastrous, Jordan points out.

In 1936 yields dropped 12.75 bushels below the yield trend. June temperature was about normal, but July and August temperatures were the highest in the 27-year-period. Rainfall was deficient in all three months.

THE THIRD lowest yield in this area occurred in 1944. Temperature was high in June but about normal in July and August. But rainfall was deficient in both June and July. In that year yields dropped about 10 bushels below the general yield trend.

In 1930 corn yields dropped about seven bushels below the trend. June was cool, July temperatures were high and rainfall was deficient all summer.

The next lowest yields occurred in 1943, when they were just slightly less than seven bushels below the trend. In this year August temperatures were high and rainfall was low. (Fm

Shirley Seitz Becomes Bride of William Guinan

(Bak Studio

A wedding breakfast at the Evergreens in Dundee and a reception at Tam O'Shanter country club followed the noon-time ceremony June 20 in which Miss Shirley Ann Seitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Seitz of Inverness Countryside and William J. Guinan, son of former Palatine residents, William Guinans of Levittown, Pa., were united in marriage.

The service was double ring and took place in St. Theresa chapel, Palatine, where the altar was decorated with baskets and vases of gladioli and carnations. Pews were marked with carnation sprays and bows. Soloist for the service was Mrs. Robert Gubbe of Palatine.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of light ivory peau de soie and lace fashioned with an encircling neckline, tiny cap sleeves caught with a tailored bow and slimly fitted bodice. Re-embroidered alencon lace, jeweled with seed pearls and sequins, embellished the bodice and swept in long points on the full skirt, which ended in a chapel train.

A tiny swedish crown of pearls held her fingertip veil of french illusion and she carried a cascade of white and pink roses with stephanotis and camellia leaves.

MISS SUSAN Laurence of Elmhurst was the bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Jean Abraham of Elgin, Michalene Guinan of Levittown, sister of the bridegroom, and Jean Stevens of Des Plaines. All wore identical gowns of pale pink chiffon with matching satin cumberbunds and back bows.

They wore matching satin bows with veils as their headdresses and also matching satin shoes. Their bouquets were cascades of deep pink feathered carnations, the maid of honor's also having light pink garnet roses.

The bride's brother, Bernard Seitz, was best man and Dave Abramson, William Hortberg and Pete Trenchard, all from Palatine, were ushers.

ONE HUNDRED fifty guests attended the 5 p.m. reception which featured a buffet supper and dancing. Mrs. Seitz received the guests in a blue Italian silk sheath dress and pink cymbidium corsage. Mrs. Guinan chose a dress of beige silk with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mr. Guinan took his bride on a 2-week wedding trip to Point Clear, Ala. and since their return, the couple have been residing at 41 Smith st., Palatine.

The new Mrs. Guinan was graduated from Palatine high school and also studied at the University of Illinois. He is employed by Sears Roebuck and Co. in Elgin. His bride is employed at Barrington National bank.

KO'd by Her Husband

Dear Peg:

So sorry, dear, that I wasn't able to get a letter off to you last week, but at the time that I usually set aside to sit down and write to you, I was completely and literally knocked out—and at the hands of my very own husband! I know this comes as a shock to you, since you know Bob only as a gentle, kind person who would never intentionally hurt a living creature (not even his wife), however, please withhold your judgment until you've heard all the facts which led my dear, peace-loving husband to commit so drastic an act.

About two months ago I had a slight cold which left me with an annoying cough. No simple cough remedies, pills etc. helped and I simply resigned myself to the fact that it would probably hang on until the baby was born (according to Dr. Solomon, a nagging cough resulting from a cold is especially difficult for pregnant women to throw off). So, I went about my daily chores, hacking most of the time and explaining the rest of the time to the apprehensive mothers we would meet at the beach or park that I was not in the last stages of TB, but that this cough was just another of those odd little quirks that come with some pregnancies.

For the first time, about two weeks ago, I felt that this cough was a little worse, in fact it hurt in my right side when I coughed suddenly. I told the doctor and he gave me a prescription for cough medicine and ordered me back in a week. As I've always done with my pill-taking, I took the medicine faithfully for two days and then something came up so that I didn't quite make it in to see the doctor on the appointed day.

So, you see, I brought it on myself—I admit it. Just a week ago, I was sitting at the breakfast table with Bob watching Patrick and Joseph and talking about Megan and Bridget who had left the day before for a visit with Grandma and Grandpa McA, when suddenly I coughed violently and deeply and when I did, it felt as if I'd been stabbed in the side with a hot sword. I couldn't walk, in fact I could hardly breathe. Bob helped me to the couch and called the doctor. He would be over and I was to get up in bed and apply heat to the painful spot. Somehow Bob got me upstairs and into bed. Upon examination, the doctor determined that I had strained a muscle, weakened by a prolonged period of coughing and gave Bob prescriptions for pills and medicine to buy for me.

And so it was, by his own hand, that my husband administered the dose that knocked me out of the pain I had so suddenly acquired—I'll bet you knew it all along. I am much better today and really feel wonderfully rested—now to look forward to the new baby—only two more weeks—I hope!

My love,
Patty

Gloria Stephan Is Bride in Wisconsin

A romance which began at Valparaiso university in Indiana culminated in the June 28 marriage of Gloria Marie Stephan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. V. Stephan of Antigo, Wis., and Max L. Jabs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jabs of Bristol, Conn. Rev. Stephan, former pastor of St. Peter Lutheran church of Arlington Heights, performed the 4 o'clock candlelight ceremony in Peace Lutheran church of Antigo.

The bride's brother, Tom Stephan, sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "The Wedding Prayer" with Louis Eberhard at the organ for the double ring nuptials.

Both the newlyweds were graduated from Valparaiso, the bride then teaching second grade in Immanuel Lutheran school of Palatine. The bridegroom received his degree in June and plans to teach high school in the Indiana public school system.

FOR HER wedding the bride chose a chantilly lace over satin gown styled with a scalloped neckline embroidered in seed pearls, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt of nylon tulle appliqued in lace. Her triple silk illusion veil was held in place by a queen's crown of seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Robert Jabs of Bristol, Conn., was matron of honor in a gown of rose chiffon and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations. The bride's sister, Ingrid Stephan, was junior bridesmaid in light green organdy, identical to the maton of honor's, and carried a bouquet

The bridegroom's brother, Robert Jabs, served as his best man, and Luke Stephan, brother of the bride, and Ernest Jabs, brother of the bridegroom, ushered.

FOR HER daughter's wedding Mrs. Stephan wore a dress of light blue lace with white accessories and had a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Jabs also chose light blue lace, with blue accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony 70 guests were served at dinner in the church dining hall.

Extend Small Homes Outdoors, Add Charm and Resale Value

With a little planning, a small home can become a property with rare charm and distinctive character.

Making a small home appear larger and expanding its living area is a device known to most landscape architects.

The American family is moving outdoors, one prominent landscape architect observed recently, for more time each year. Providing outside living space for comfort and functionalism is easy to achieve, as the Spanish and South Americans discovered centuries ago.

EVEN THE smallest back yard can be enclosed with privacy-creating fences, such as the popular board-on-board design built with western red cedar or Douglas fir rough-sawn lumber.

The next step, after the yard is enclosed, the landscape designer points out, is to put the tiny yard to work for the family. A wood deck on the same level with the living room can double the living room space nad provide a patio area for entertaining, lounging, barbecuing and play.

WOOD DECKS of Douglas fir can be designed in a wide variety of interesting shapes to add character to the outdoor area. Some design these inexpensive decks in diamond shape, others in crescent moon style. Sturdy 2x4s placed with spacing to provide easy runoff of water give cruise deck luxury to even the smallest yard.

To further enhance the livability of the private courtyard, any of a variety of overhead screens or sunshades will add immeasurably to the enjoyment of the area. Permanent benches along the perimeter of the deck save on furniture and wintertime storage, and all these can be built of ordinary grades of Douglas fir dimension lumber by the handyman carpenter.

These eye-catching outdoor areas add greatly to the resale value of property. Best of all, they can be built for very little money, especially if the man of the house is skilled with simple tools. These complete-package outdoor areas can be built in stages: fences first, then decks, then patio furniture and screens.

BACKYARD PICNIC TABLE provides good spot for Mrs. Robert Chaney and members of her committee to check last minute details for the Arlington Heights Newcomers summer dinner dance to be held August 15 at Old Orchard country club. Those attending will receive corsages and cocktails in addition to dinner and dancing to a popular local orchestra. Table reservation for six to 12 persons may be made by calling Mrs. Chaney or Mrs. Don Gongol. Clockwise are Mrs. Marshall McEuen, Mrs. J. Paul Jacobson, Mrs. John Gesset, Mrs. Chaney, Mrs. Donald Schmidt and Mrs. Arthur Jungdahl.

Eat Wisely When Traveling by Car

If you are taking an automobile tour with the family this summer, remember that the foods you eat and drink can affect the comfort of your vacation. This applies to adults as much as children. For poor eating habits while traveling contribute to headaches and stomach upsets.

Eating a good sized breakfast is recommended practice. Then eat a light lunch, avoiding the hard to digest, high calorie foods that tend to make you less alert. Your evening meal can be another substantial one.

TAKE FREQUENT breaks on your trip too, so that the driver and the youngsters can stretch their legs. Encourage the children to drink milk and fruit beverages at this time. These simple, wholesome drinks not only renew energy but are less likely to cause motion sickness.

VACATIONING IN SUNNY Jamaica recently were Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Hansen, 244 S. Plum Grove rd., Palatine, pictured here where they were guests. Mr. Hansen is a salesman with the Iselin Jefferson Co., while Mrs. Hansen is a first grade teacher at Dryden school, Arlington Heights. This was the Hansens first visit to the island.

Teenager Fashion Board Opens in Mt. Prospect

A HIGH SCHOOL girl's wardrobe runs the gamut from shorts and slacks worn with bulky sweaters, through school clothes, to party dresses like the Mexican dress of black trimmed in silver sequins which several members of the Doris Kirkeby teen age fashion board are examining. Among the 14 girls who will model and serve cokes and snacks from 2 to 6 p.m. each afternoon in the shop at 143 W. Prospect ave., Mt. Prospect, August 10 through 15 are these four from Prospect high: Donna Sheen, 610 N. Main st.; Marty Long, 505 We Go Trail; Joan D'Argo, 415 Ojibwa trail; and Ginny Heinemann, 509 Eastwood, all of Mt. Prospect. Two other members of the board not pictured are Susan Whiteley, 102 Eastwood, and Glynn Brownell, 607 S. Elmhurst.

"IT'S LOVELY, but not for us," agree four members of the Doris Kirkeby high school fashion board who will model back-to-school styles at the Mt. Prospect shop next week as they examine a cashmere sweater with beige mink collar. Shown here in some of the favorites for school are, Barbara Draper, 709 Cathy lane, Mt. Prospect, St. Patrick academy; Jeanette Stromberg, 12 S. George st., Mt. Prospect, Prospect high; Nancy Smits, 109 W. Elm st., Mt. Prospect, Prospect high; and Jeanne Schell, 409 HiLusi, Mt. Prospect, Prospect high.

Doris Kirkeby Fashions and Jewelry, a high fashion women's apparel shop at 143 W. Prospect ave., Mt. Prospect, will be turned over to the teenagers the week of August 10 through 15, as a high school fashion board presents the latest in back-to-school clothes.

From 2 until 6 p.m. daily Monday through Saturday, the teens will have their own fashion show. Fourteen models from neighboring high schools will act as hostesses and serve refreshments while they model the new styles which will set the pace as prp schools this fall and winter.

A beautiful dyed to match cashmere sweater and skirt outfit will be given away at 5:30 p.m. August 15.

THE KIRKEBY high school fashion board is the first of its find to be introduced in a suburban apparel shop. Doris feels that good grooming is as important to the younger set as it is to their mothers, and that the selection of school clothes under the critical eyes of their classmates will have a favorable effect on their mode of dress. "In any event, it will be a good party," she commented, "and everyone is welcome."

Advisors from local schools will be able to give such important tips as red blazers are most popular at Arlington, while blue is the color for Prospect high girls to choose. Leotards in every color are expected to be even more popular this year. Boy coats in camel will be as "big" as always, but new is a blanket plaid coat with raccoon collar. Also, there are plaid coats to match skirts or suits.

AND FOR THAT coordinated look, mix and match casuals and dyed-to-match outfits. Kirkeby's have one of the largest sweater and skirt collections in the northwest suburbs.

While the emphasis is on the bold plaids and casual look, no wardrobe is complete without a dress for very special dates, and the fashion board will show a full line of date dresses suitable for those romantic occasions.

SOME OCCASIONS demand a hat, according to teen-age fashion models from nearby high schools who will be hostesses at the Doris Kirkeby shop in Mt. Prospect each afternoon next week, as the establishment is turned over to a high school fashion board. Shown here dressed in some of the classic styles they will model are Julie Jorgensen, 1753 Lincoln, Des Plaines, Maine township high school; Judy Hendricks, 1506 E. Fremont, Arlington Heights, Arlington high school; Patti Kudla, 509 S. See Gwun, Mt. Prospect, Prospect high; and Sara Precilio, 739 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, Arlington. The fashion show and refreshments will be from 2 to 6 p.m. daily through Saturday, with a dyed-to-match cashmere sweater and skirt outfit given away at 5:30 p.m. August 15.

MISS VIRGINIA OKUBO, a former resident of Algonquin rd., Arlington Heights, was married recently to Alan F. Spieler of Pequot Lakes, Minn. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Okubo of Mundelein, was graduated from Grinnell college, Grinell, Iowa, as was her bridegroom. The couple will live in Santa Barbara, Cal., where Mr. Spieler will continue his schooling. (S

Peach Time is Here Again; Here's How to Select 'Em

Illinois peach time is here again. And markets should be well supplied with peaches during August and September.

Here are some tips from Ross A. Kelly, University of Illinois fruit and vegetable marketing specialist, for selecting fresh peaches:

For the best flavor regardless of variety, select mature peaches. The blush is attractive but is not a sure sign of maturity. Look for peaches with a creamy or yellowish ground color, because they will continue to ripen. Peaches picked before they are mature have a green ground color. They don't have a good flavor and often shrivel instead of ripening.

THE RANGE of firmness is usually described as hard, firm, firm-ripe and ripe. Peaches that have to travel long distances are usually shipped when "hard" or "firm." The Illinois peaches you buy don't have to go so far to reach you, so they are usually shipped when a little more ripe.

Watch out for skin punctures with oozing gum. This means that worms have beat you to the peach. If there are many rotten peaches in a lot, some of the sound-looking ones may be infected and develop rot before they ripen. Small bruises may affect looks but not flavor, while deep bruises are wasteful.

Cottage Cheese Gives 'Lift' to Appetites

Throughout the year, but particularly during the summer months, cottage cheese is one of the most versatile of foods. Its bland flavor and easy digestibility undoubtedly contribute to its appeal during warm weather when appetites often are at low ebb.

Fortunately cottage cheese is a nourishing food that can well afford to be included frequently in summertime meals.

BECAUSE of its high protein content, it may be safely substituted for meat. A half cup provides as much protein as an average serving of meat, poultry or fish, points out Beatrice Cooke, Meadow Gold home economist.

And one and a half cups of cottage cheese contains the same amount of calcium as an eight ounce glass of milk.

There is more than enough protein and calcium in the following salad dressing developed in the Meadow Gold kitchens. It is a creamy, garlic flavored one, which is especially appropriate served on a salad of garden tomatoes and cucumber slices.

Exotic Salad Dressing

Combine 2 cups cottage cheese, 1 cup mayonnaise, ¼ cup lemon juice. Crush 2 cloves garlic fine and stir into dressing with 1½ teapoons salt and ¼ teaspoon white pepper.

MRS. EMMA KLEHM, Arlington Heights, who celebrated her 80th birthday a week ago, is the last living member of the second generation of the Klehm family which established a nursery business here over 100 years ago. Many of the trees lining the streets of Arlington Heights today were provided by that family as a gift to the community. (S

Last Minute Menu Tips Found on Panic Pantry

By LOIS SEILER

A "panic pantry" is the term Mrs. Arthur C. McWilliams Jr., jovially uses to describe her cupboard shelf containing "spur of the moment" dinner ingredients.

"Frozen foods are not always convenient for immediate use," says this good cook, "so I always have a meal available in cans."

One of her favorite "hurry up" meals, be it for unexpected guests or a quickie family meal, is creamed chicken or tuna on Chinese noodles.

This dinner is easy to prepare, yet ever so tasty. It simply consists of cream of chicken soup, water chestnuts and chicken or tuna, flavored with Worchestershire sauce.

SHE SERVES IT over Chinese noodles using stuffed olives for garnish. For accompaniments Mrs. McWilliams suggests chilled apple sauce with a cinnamon-sugar topping, tomato salad and hot rolls.

For dessert, if you are unhurried, you may wish to serve her delicious Blueberry Whirl.

Easily prepared with a Bisquick base, this tempting dessert is made in the fashion of a jelly roll with sugared blueberries rolled up.

The roll is then cut in slices and the slices baked side by side in a square tin.

SERVED WARM with a hot lemon sauce, this delectable blueberry dessert appeals to adults and children alike. It has long been a family favorite in the McWilliams household.

Mrs. McWilliams has a fascinating background in the foods field. A graduate home economist from Purdue university, her career has included work as a home economist in both teaching and business.

For many years she was in charge of the home economics department for the Chambers Range co. and at one time conducted a cooking school on television called "Cookery Magic."

Her experience in this field has convinced her that homemakers are primarily interested in meals that are quick and easy yet good, so she has geared her recipe collection to this end.

"But if they are not good," emphasizes this expert, "then they are not worth even a minimum of effort."

WITH HER OWN personal cooking, Mrs. McWilliams gets the ideas from other recipes, then revises them to suit herself.

One of her favorite dinners which is also easy to make yet delightful to taste is for Chicken Baked Pork Chops.

Browned pork chops are baked with a chicken soup mixture and rice in this flavorful casserole. Chicken pieces may be substituted for the chops, if desired.

She reports that this dish is particularly delicious when served with buttered green beans seasoned with garlic salt, a pineapple and mandarin orange salad and hot rolls, followed by cheese cake and coffee.

A UNIQUE "PANIC PANTRY" is a feature of the McWilliams home, 894 N. Braeburn, Inverness. Watching their mother at work on her quickie recipes are Bob and Randy McWilliams.

Recently retired from her many-faceted foods career, Mrs. McWilliams is currently devoting all of her energies to her family and her favorite social institution, the Northwest Suburban Family Service organization.

The McWilliams live at 894 N. Braeburn, Inverness Countryside, Palatine. They have four children: A. C., who is married and lives with his wife and two children in North Carolina; Marilyn, 24; Bob, 14, and Randy, who is 10.

Creamed Chicken or Tuna on Chinese Noodles

2 cans condensed cream of chicken soup
1 jar boned chicken or a 7-ounce can solid-pack white tuna
½ can water chestnuts, well-drained and sliced thin
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce (optional)
1 can Chinese noodles, heated
Stuffed olives for garnish (optional)

Heat soup. Do not dilute. Stir in Worcestershire sauce and water chestnuts.

Add chicken or well-drained tuna and heat thoroughly, being careful not to break up meat.

Serve hot over Chinese noodles, heated according to label directions.

Serves 4 to 6.

Blueberry Whirl

2 cups Bisquick
2 tablespoons sugar
¾ cup cream or ½ cup milk and ¼ cup melted butter
1 pint fresh blueberries
1/3 cup sugar
2 tablespoons soft butter

Add sugar to Bisquick. Add cream (or milk and butter). Mix thoroughly with a fork.

Keep the dough soft; if too sticky, add more Bisquick. Knead a few times on a floured pastry cloth.

Roll out dough in a rectangular shape to about 1/3 inch thick. Spread with about 2 tablespoons soft butter.

Place blueberries that have been washed, drained and sugared with the 1/3 cup sugar on the dough.

Roll dough like a jelly roll. Pinch edge into the roll to seal. Slice about 1 to 1½ inches thick and quickly place slices, cut side down, in a greased 8 or 9 inch square baking pan. Makes 9 rolls.

Bake immediately in a preheated oven at 425 degrees for about 20 to 30 minutes, depending on thickness of the dough.

Serve warm with hot lemon sauce.

Lemon Sauce

1½ tablespoons cornstarch
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
Grated rind of 1 lemon (about 1 teaspoon)
4 tablespoons lemon juice (about 1 lemon)
1 to 2 tablespoons butter

Mix cornstarch, sugar and salt in a saucepan. Stir in 1 cup boiling water. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils.

Reduce heat and simmer a few minutes until clear. Remove from heat and add lemon rind, lemon juice and butter.

Serve hot over the Blueberry Whirl.

Chicken Baked Pork Chops

6 pork chops (1¼ to 1½ inches thick)
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
2 tablespoons cooking oil
1 cup quick-cooking rice
1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon instant onion

Season pork chops with salt and pepper. Brown in hot oil. Place rice in bottom of baking dish or casserole or a small roaster. Mix soup with milk and instant onion. Pour over the rice. Place browned chops on top of rice and soup mixture. Cover tightly. Bake at 350 degrees for 1½ hours or until chops are tender. (Browned chicken pieces can be substituted for the pork chops.)

Womans Club Members Busy With Next Year's Plans

YEARBOOK FOR Arlington Heights Womans club has been compiled and all plans for the club's coming year are complete. Meeting recently in the home of the president, Mrs. Herman L. Berthold, standing, were Mrs. Everett Nelson, second vice president; Mrs. Roger Burke, recording secretary; Mrs. Ben Carns, first vice president; Mrs. Stephen Jurco, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Earl Snodgrass, treasurer. The regularly scheduled club calendar will begin the first week in October. (S

Early months of the summer found the board of directors and the chairman of committees of Arlington Heights Womans club busy coordinating plans for a successful and rewarding club year.

August 5 was visitors' day for club members of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs at Allerton Park. This is the 11th summer the University of Illinois has loaned Allerton House and the park to the club women for their summer art school. One hundred fifty students, a selected group of high school upper classmen, are scholarship winners for whom the IFWC arranges a week's course of special study at the park with study with three art professors of the university.

Arlington Heights Woman's club has two scholarship winners studying at Allerton: Lois Coert, 933 N. Forest, Arlington Heights, and William Nichols, 14 Alton rd., Prospect Heights.

September 24 will find the board of directors of the Arlington club welcoming new members at a reception in the home of Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson. (S

The show will be held on the second floor at 7:30 p.m.

Cooking Meat from Frozen State Saves Nutrients

Whether to cook meat while it is still frozen or after it has thawed is a commonly debated question.

University of Illinois food researchers say some studies show that some meat retains its nutrients better when it is cooked from the frozen state.

Mrs. Dorothy Ebner, U. of I. staff member, explains that drip (blood-like meat juice) forms when frozen meat is allowed to thaw. This drip contains valuable nutrients that many homemakers discard

She says that cooking fresh meat causes some vitamin losses. In general, about the same amounts of vitamins are retained in frozen meat as in fresh meat, especially if all the drip is used or if the meat is cooked from the frozen state.

WHAT ABOUT the flavor? Expert taste testers say there is no difference in flavor between meats cooked without thawing and those that are allowed to thaw.

Meats that can be prepared by roasting or boiling are easily prepared from the frozen state. They just need a little more cooking time.

But small cuts that are fried or broiled without thawing can cause some trouble. There may be spattering during browning, and thus the temperature may be lowered to a point where the t results are not obtained. The outer surface may become overdone before the inside is cooked. Also, frozen meat won't coating, such as bread crumbs. (S

Palatine Pair Wed In Church Setting

A Palatine couple was united in marriage April 25 in St. Paul United Church of Christ, Palatine, when the former Janet Helen Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, 732 E. Chicago ave., became Mrs. Robert W. Kozy. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kozy, 907 W. Dorset ave.

A double ring candlelight ceremony took place at 5:30 in the afternoon with Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officiating. The altar was decorated with two large baskets of gladioli, snapdragons and carnations, and each pew was tied with a white ribbon bow. Harold P. Berg was organist, and Mrs. C. Rasmussen sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

ATTIRED in a floor length wedding gown of chantilly lace, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was princess styled with a bateau neckline and three-quarter length sleeves, and her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was a purple tipped white orchid surrounded by lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor was Ardeth Carlson of Chicago, who wore a street length dress fashioned similarly to the bride's, in baby blue crystalette with a matching nylon tulle overskirt. Her bouquet was of blue and white daisies. Bridesmaids Carol Wede of Arlington Heights and Sandra Schutz of Palatine were gowned identically to the maid of honor.

Richard Hill of Palatine served the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Rusell Smith and the bride's brother, Gerry Nelson, both of Palatine.

FOUR HUNDRED guests were served at a reception and dinner held in the Arlington Heights VFW hall following the ceremony. The bride's mother received guests in a royal blue embroidered crystalette dress complemented by a white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a light blue linen sheath dress and had a corsage of white carnations.

During the couple's 2-week honeymoon they were in Venice, Fla., for one week and at the Crystal Caverns of Kentucky another week. They are now at home at 732 E. Chicago ave., Palatine.

Both were graduated from Palatine high school. The bride is now employed at Palatine Drugs and the bridegroom at the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

Are You '35 Alum Of Schurz?

If your memories of teen-age dates include riding the top of a double-decker bus, buying a soda with two straws and pinch-penny trips to Grant Park band concerts, you may be just the person Helen Kjeldaas O'Day, 204 E. Sibley st., Park Ridge, is looking for!

Mrs. O'Day and Helen Kent Hadley, 4537 N. Kenton ave., Chicago, are trying to locate their 400 classmates from the February 1935 graduating class at Carl Schurz High School.

"That was in the depths of the depression," said Mrs. O'Day, "and we thought that a 25th year reunion in today's prosperity would make a wonderful contrast with our school days."

If you were in the Schurz February 1935 class, you can call Mrs. O'Day at Talcott 3-9313 or Mrs. Hadley at Spring 7-7136. (CC

Rev. H. Rasmussen Attends Conference

At least one local resident attended the fifth summer theological conference at St. Olaf college, Northfield Minn., July 27-31 with 400 clergymen and laymen, taking an academic look at preaching, Bible study and theology. He is Rev. H. J. Rasmussen of Mt. Prospect.

Conference chairmen outlined the session as a combined approach to three major areas of theology. By bringing pastors and lecturers together in the informal atmosphere of a college campus, they explained, the conference aims to make a worth-while contribution to Christian leaders throughout the nation. The program is supported mainly through a grant from Lutheran Brotherhood Life Insurance Society, Minneapolis. CC

Townsend, 497 Wood Dale rd, and Miss Charlotte Hardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hardt, 131 Walnut, both of Wood Dale, have been named to the dean's academic honors list for outstanding scholastic achievement at Elmhurst college.

These students registered average grades of 2.2 or above on the basis of a 3.0 system. (CC

At Wisconsin

Sharon Chimis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawry, 102 MacArthur dr., Mt. Prospect, visited the University of Wisconsin campus during the past week to register for UW studies to be started with the opening of the university's school year in September.

The new students will return to the UW campus September 9 to continue their orientation and complete their registration for studies. Their classes begin on Monday, Sept. 14.

U. of Chicago Offers Union Leadership

The University of Chicago announced the beginning of registration for its new Union Leadership program.

Classes will begin in September, according to John McCollum, Director of Union Research and Education Projects, University College, 923 East 60th st., Chicago 37.

The sessions will be held one night a week and on two Saturdays a month for the convenience of working unionists, McCollum said. Students will learn how to handle the problems of local union administration and collective bargaining.

To back up those skills, they will also get a well-rounded education in the social sciences and humanities.

LABOR COURSES include: Theories and Philosophies of the Labor Movement, American Labor History and Public labor and Business Policy, as well as Union Leadership and Administration and Collective Bargaining.

Development of the program was made possible by a Ford Foundation Grant. The coure itself grows out of the university's 10-year experience with long-term union education projects such as the Regular and the Advanced Union Officers Programs and the Humanistics Art seminar. More than 250 Chicago unionists from 70 unions have attended those courses. (CC

Teachers Attend Summer Institute

High school teachers of chemistry and physics from 10 states and the District of Columbia attended a National Science Foundation summer institute at the University of Southern California to learn the latest scientific facts to pass on to their students.

Modern views and developments about atomic structure, bonding, polymers, crystal structure and solid state physics were given the teachers by a faculty of 12 professors.

In the 6-week course which ended July 31 were: Loren J. Miller from Maine Township high school, whose home is at 290 N. Linden, Palatine, and Paul N. Mueller from Arlington high school, who lives at 52 Brucewood dr., Buffalo Grove.

Receives Washington Scholarship

Miss Yvonne Eunice Hinrichs, 204 W. St. James street, Arlington Heights, has been awarded a one year freshman scholarship to attend Washington University. She is among 72 high school graduates of 1959 to receive a scholarship at the University. Amounts of the awards vary from $450 to $900.

Miss Hinrichs is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Hinrichs. She was graduated from Arlington high school, where her activities included pep club, Spanish club, Art Club, Bridge Club and Walther League.

She has been admitted to the School of Fine Arts at Washington university.

One year awards are part of the University's freshman scholarship program, designed to recognize and encourage students of high achievement, leadership qualities and academic promise.

At North Carolina

Dr. Dunnom, whose offices are in Oak Park, has successfully completed a post graduate course in dental pediatrics. (CC

At Colorado

BARBARA BAUMANN

Barbara Ann Baumann, 1959 graduate of Colorado college, will begin her teaching career in September at the Colorado Springs Horace Mann Junior high school. The subjects she will teach are science and mathematics.

During her senior year at Colorado, Miss Baumann was Nugget editor (school year-book), Kappa Alpha Theta corresponding secretary, one of nine outstanding senior women, and received a citation of merit at the annual awards assembly. She majored in botany.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Baumann 416 E. Euclid st., Arlington Heights.

Area Freshmen Washington U. Alumni Guests

Eighty prospective freshmen at Washington university, St. Louis, Mo., were guests of the Chicago area alumni at a get-acquainted tea July 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pierson, 100 E. River rd., Des Plaines, received the young people into their home. Also present to welcome the new students were Washington university alumni and students, including Miss Judy Ahmer of Arlington Heights, fine arts junior.

Local young people present at the tea included Miss Penny Pipkins, 508 S. Prindle, Arlington Heights; Miss Virginia Sowinski, 505 W. Willow, Prospect Heights; and Miss Yvonne Hinrichs, 208 W. St. James st., Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gentry Coleman, assistant to the dean of admissions, arrived from St. Louis via air plane to have the opportunity of meeting the students and answer the questions and problems of the new freshmen.

Out-of-town population is increasing each year at the university and this fall will reach an all time high due to the completion of four new dormitories scheduled to open in September. The university numbers about 9000 students. (CC

Sells Cadillac for $500, Now Prefers His Auburn

50 YEARS AGO
July 30, 1909

Louis W. Roehler is an expert Judge of automobiles as any old horse trader is of horses. He first bought a Cadillac Machine and after using it three years running it 50,000 miles sold it for $500.00. During all this time he made a study of about 10 different makes of autos and finally bought a 30-hp Auburn which with entire equipment cost him $1800. After running it 3000 miles he is satisfied that he has the best all-purpose machine in the races given by the Roselle Park club. Just before starting he broke a feed valve and had to run with three working cylinders and although he had to slow up and turn out several times on account of rigs in the road he made the course of 17.3 miles, turning eleven corners, in less than 30 minutes.

With the cooperation of Arlington Heights Historical Society and Mrs. Luella Volz, this department is being resumed as a regular feature of Padock Publications.

Elk Grove Echoes

John F. Kruse strained his right shoulder while unloading sand Tuesday, but this will not prevent his trading horses. He sold a horse, buggy and harness to Fred Schuldt for $125.00, and can beat the smartest horse jockeys. He gave Rudolph Wiebe $50.00 and a little broncho for a $200.00 horse. He will now hire help to do the farm work and follow his new profession. If you want to trade horses call on John.

Mount Prospect

Vacation — No paper next week.

Schillo Bros. have completed their new pickle factory at Mt. Prospect. Tanks are in place and a carload of salt has been stored. They have begun taking in pickles. They are paying 60 cents a bushel for No. 1 and 30 cents for No. 2. If it don't rain and pickles get scarce prices will go higher.

Mr. Thos. M. Mendsen and Miss Amie Wheeler wish to announce the organization of a Musical Club for pupils only. Reasonable terms for lessons in piano forte and voice. Address Elbert Wheeler, Arlington Heights.

Palatine

Judge George W. Whipple, after a hard fight for life, died of nephritis, Friday evening, July 23, 1909. He had been a resident of Palatine nearly 50 years and was police magistrate nearly 40 of those years. He had led a secluded life the last two years against the often expressed wishes of his friends and there is no doubt his life was cut short on account of being without proper care or attention. George Cornelius Whipple was born in Westford, Vt., April 25, 1835.

For 36 years the Judge rode on R.R. monthly tickets, traveling between here and the city daily, and as he told a friend a few weeks ago he had not ridden one mile during all that time that he had not paid for.

30 YEARS AGO
July 30, 1929

Miss Gladys Hetherington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hetherington of South Mitchell Ave., Arlington Heights, was acclaimed "Miss Arlington" last evening at the Beauty Home on South Chestnut, by the loudest and longest applause from the crowd of 1000 to 1500 persons gathered on the lawn over the street and beyond. Miss Violet Lunning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Lunning, Pine and St. James Ave., received the second greatest amount of applause and received the second prize. Each young lady was introduced to the crowd by Wm. Kopplin for the Clyde C. Young Realtors.

The annual outing of the Lions Club of Arlington Heights will be held next Thursday, Aug. 8, at Snetsinger's Grove at Lake Zurich. The committee in charge is Judge Gilbert Klehm, and Messrs. Fred Militzer and Alfred Jasper.

Palatine

For the first time in the history of Palatine all of the executive departments of the village are at last housed under one roof. With the completion of the moving of the village offices early this week all departments of the village are housed in the new administration building at Brockway and Washington streets. The new building is now practically complete and all departments are going full blast. Even the newly planted grass seed is doing fine after the recent rains and the entire place looks in tip top shape. Formal dedication of the building will probably be set at the regular August meeting of the board Monday evening.

Arlington Heights

There was not enough umbrellas or a tent big enough in this part of Cook county to keep the rain off the immense crowd that found its way last Thursday night in anticipation of the coronation of Miss Arlington at the Arlington Beauty Home. Fully 500 automobiles were parked in the adjoining streets. Interest was intense as each contestant answered and looked around to learn the identity of her fellow entrants. Everything was set. The band was on the way. Then came the rain. But never mind, there is another evening coming and that will be Thursday night, Aug. 1, when everything promised for the big event will take place. The number of entrants have been increased to forty. The general public will be the judges and the forty odd entrants want a big crowd to help them out with their applause.

The Mors building will soon present a greatly improved appearance. New awnings will top off the new stucco and paint and customers of the Mors Bakery and the Arlington Market will hardly know the place.

August 2, 1929

A Thompson machine gun weighing seven or eight pounds, and a bulletproof vest came on Tuesday for Chief of Police C. H. Skoog. They will be kept in the new village hall, handy for emergencies, which everyone hopes will not occur. But the chief has been close enough to very serious trouble with organized law breakers using highways that he naturally wishes to be fully prepared in case of a "jam."

Palatine

Mrs. Caroline Ost celebrated her 75th birthday last Sunday with a family reunion and general good time at the home of her children, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ost on West Chicago Avenue. The three sons of Mrs. Ost, William, Charles and Ed, and their families all joined in making this birthday anniversary occasion a very happy affair. Mrs. C. W. Ost is another of Palatine's pioneer ladies who is getting well along in years and who has seen numerous changes in Palatine since the early days when her husband, the late C. W. Ost, first engaged in the milling business in Palatine. Palatine in those days was little more than a prairie hamlet and the Ost mill was known far and wide throughout the country and farmers drove for great distances to the Ost mill. Mrs. Ost has always taken an active interest in the affairs of Palatine and the success of her husband in the milling business and as a village trustee and chief of the Palatine fire department for many years, give her much pride and satisfaction.

Arlington Heights

Widening of the South State road pavement between Grove and Rockwell streets, Scarsdale, a distance of approximately three long blocks, Bert H. Laudermilk development, will be appreciated by every motorist who drives that way, and illustrates the thorough and complete manner in which the development of this big 151-acre section is being carried out. The work is being done on private contract by Milburn brothers, 19 feet additional, according to state specifications; compensation to be returned by the state when the whole section of State road is widened. One cannot appreciate the beauty of the layout of Scarsdale from the outside.

One must drive thru the winding streets. deep set, with natural terraces and wide parkways above, amid a wealth of beautiful greenery remaining over from the Klehm nursery.

Bensenville

Speaking of the bright spots on earth, don't overlook Bensenville, Illinois. While we have had a street lighting system for several years that consisted of 60 watt lamps in the residential district, 200 watt in the business part of town. And last year ornamental lights were put on Main street. But last week the Public Service company turned the complete street lighting system, excepting the ornamental light on Main street into a far better system. New brackets, strongly built and protruding further out from the poles were put up and on each one of these brackets new 250 watt lamps, each lamp encased in a large heavy glove assists in lighting up that part of town a great deal. And in the residential districts where 60 watt lamps had formerly been used it is now a common thing to see people sitting on their porches reading the evening paper by the light furnished from the street lamps. Bensenville is fast developing into a progressive up-to-date suburb and this new street lighting system is sure to be noticed by the thousands of autoists driving thru Bensenville, returning from their week end stays at various lakes. Their return is usually made on Sunday evening and a well lighted city like Bensenville now is sure to attract their attention.

(20 and 10 years ago next week)

LUCUBRATE; to work, especially to study, by artificial light; hence to study laboriously. (Pronounce lyu-kyu-brait, accent first syllable). "He lucubrated through eight years of high school and college."

PLETHORIC; having an excess; overfull. (Pronounce plehthore-ick, accent second syllable). "His storehouse of good cheer is ever in a plethoric state."

TONY CURTIS, pretending to be a playboy millionaire, makes a play for Marilyn Monroe in the new Billy Wilder comedy, "Some Like It Hot." The United Artists release will open Aug. 7 at the Prospect Theatre.

FRANK SINATRA and Carolyn Jones are a couple of oddball but lovable characters in the heart-warming comedy, "A Hole in the Head," opening tonight for an eight day engagement at the Catlow theatre in Barrington. Frank Capra directed the picture which was filmed in Deluxe color and CinemaScope.

Leisure Time Laws Signed by Stratton

Leisure time activities were made easier by some laws signed by Gov. Stratton from over 1,200 passed by the recent legislature, but harder by others.

State fishing licenses for persons 65 years of age or older were reduced from $2 to 50 cents for hook and line devices, but the law does not become effective until next Feb. 1, barely in time for ice fishing. And only the state department of conservation may issue such licenses.

Another law, parts of which are likely to affect oldsters much, makes it unlawful to take fish with an underwater spear gun, air gun, or gas gun; limits the size of turtle traps; and requires operators of daily fee fishing areas to issue daily catch slips to fishermen for which there is a size or daily catch limit provided.

MAYORS AND city commissioners in cities over 20,000 population were relieved of a requirement in the Revised Cities and Villages act that they devote at least six hours daily to the performance of their official duties. This was done in House Bill 1265 by Rep. Erlenborn.

Members of the local school boards who have been attending school conventions en masse will be affected by House Bill 158 by Rep. Downey of Oak Lawn, which limits attendance to three board members at any annual meeting of associations of Illinois school boards and two members at any national meeting. Their reimbursement is cut to $15 a day for traveling and attendance plus eight cents mileage. (A13

Transit Authority Bill OK'd by Gov.

Gov. Stratton has signed the law creating a Metropolitan Transit Authority commission with a $25,000 appropriation, but he also signed two laws re-asserting local authority on metropolitan planning and bus operation.

The authority, covering the counties of Cook, Lake, DuPage, Will, and Kane, was created in House Bill 1298 by Rep. Conti and others. It will serve without compensation to investigate and study the possibility of creating a municipal corporation for public ownership and operation of a transportation system in the metropolitan area composed of these counties, and submit a report of its findings and recommendations to the next legislature Jan. 30, 1961.

ALSO APPROVED was Senate Bill 684 by Sen. McClory amending the new law as to counties by providing that in the area of Cook county served by the Northeastern Illinois Metropolitan Planning commission, municipalities shall have exclusive control of the location, width, and course of streets and facilities relative to water distribution and other municipal facilities.

The second re-asserting local authority was House Bill 1419 by Rep. Lucas amending the Public Utility law by adding a provision that a bus may be discontinued by intercity buses without a prior hearing by the Illinois Commerce commission. (A13

Rural Accidents Are on Increase

Traffic accidents on rural, county and local roads in Illinois are on the increase. In 1958, traffic fatalities on these roads increased more than 15 per cent and accounted for 67.4 per cent of all the persons killed on Illinois highways.

In contrast, traffic deaths on primary state highways in rural areas decreased more than 22 per cent.

Excessive speed on rural county and local roads is one of the leading causes for their relatively high death rate.

MOTORISTS accustomed to driving on expressways and primary highways often forget that the higher speeds possible on the newer and better highway are extremely dangerous on county and secondary roads.

Also, secondary roads often are not marked as well as the primary highways. And many county roads have not been adequately speed-zoned.

Narrow bridges present another hazard. Although most of the bridges being built today provide for two lanes of traffic, many of the existing bridges in rural areas allow only one of today's wider cars to cross at a time.

Another rural driving hazard is brought on by the driver's field of vision being reduced at intersections as the corn crop approaches maturity. Since rural Illinois highways are dotted with hundreds of intersections, country driving becomes increasingly dangerous as crops grow taller.

THOSE WHO drive on county and local roads must remember to adjust speed to conditions. Allowance must be made for slow moving farm vehicles which travel rural roads in ever increasing numbers at this time of year.

While the peace and quiet of the country offers a place of recreation and enjoyment for some folks, that same peace and quiet can masquerade and camouflage numerous unseen dangers. (A13

WORD STUDY

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

SUSCEPTIBILITY; capability of receiving impressions. "The particular odors which act upon each person's susceptibilities differ."

ACRIMONY; biting sharpness, as of temper or language. "Praise will undoubtedly achieve better results than acrimony."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

by Edward Rentz

Do you have someone that 'has everything', someone you can never think what to buy? Next time you are looking for a gift try a twin gift of food. With a little forethought, you can double the enjoyment of every gift . . . try a fancy corkscrew with a bottle of wine . . . for fun a package of pancake mix with a bottle of pure maple syrup . . . or wrap a cheese server as a companion to a large cheddar cheese . . . herbs and spices wrapped with an herb cookbook . . . let your imagination have free reign and you will come up with gifts that the most difficult will enjoy.

Lesson in English

OFTEN MISUSED

The word ETERNAL means existing always without beginning or end, while the word EVERLASTING usually means going on without end. These words are often used interchangeably, however.

Do not say, "I didn't figure on going to work today." Say, "I didn't INTEND TO go to work today."

Do not say, "I don't know as I care to go." Say, "I don't know THAT I care to go."

Distinguish between EUPHEMISM (the substitution of an inoffensive word for one that might offend) and EUPHUISM (an affected form of speech or writing). Thus: "There are many euphemisms for the stark word 'death,' as 'passing away' and 'passing on'." "His address was marked by euphuism."

Do not say, "He opened up the meeting with a prayer." Omit "up."

Guest Speaker Sunday At Universalist Church

Rev. Eugene W. Kreves will be guest speaker this Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Countryside Universalist Fellowship, Roselle. His topic will be: Religious Trends in The United States.

Mr. Kreves is the minister of the DuPage Valley Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship in Glen Ellyn and the Aurora Universalist Fellowship, Aurora. He received his A.B. degree from Ohio Wesleyan university and his B.D. from the Hartford theological seminary.

Having served Methodist, Quaker and Congregational churches during his ministry, Mr. Kreves affiliated with the Unitarians in 1955 and has served his present charge since then.

HE IS A FREQUENT contributor to various magazines and periodicals, especially "The Humanist World Digest."

Countryside Fellowship meets in the Parkside public school, at Maple and Howard sts., Roselle. The service will be in charge of the Fellowship's minister, Albert F. Harkins. Following Mr. Kreves' address there will be a discussion period which allows those in attendance to raise questions of their own and make comments and observations. A coffee and fellowship hour will climax the morning's activities.

Supervised play and baby-sitting are provided for small children while their parents are attending the worship service.

Countryside Fellowship is an affiliate of The Council of Liberal Churches (Universalist - Unitarian) and invites the public to its services and activities. (A-13

Auxiliary Is Play Benefit

The newly-organized Roselle auxiliary of Sherman hospital will be Shady Lane theatre's beneficiary on Tuesday August 18.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Robert Hedstrom 5 E. Elm., Roselle, and an aggressive committee of women aides, a total of 200 tickets may be sold. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, producers of the summer stock program at Marengo, announced the benefit plans. The comedy offering will be "The Girls in 509", a recent Broadway hit that played Chicago this past spring.

In the meantime, director Louis Tanno's Lane players are offering "Separate Rooms", to be followed by "Candle-Light", which opens next Tuesday and continues through August 16.

Village Theatre Announces Plays

A full fare of dramatic entertainment, highlighted by presentations of "Howie," "Picnic," and "Man in the Dog Suit" has been scheduled for its 1959-1960 season, it has been announced by the Village Theatre, Inc. group.

This season's series of plays will mark the tenth season of Village Theatre, Inc. The opening play of the season, "Howie," will be presented in October. "Picnic" will be performed in February. "Man in the Dog Suit" will be the final show and will be staged in April. The annual children's show "Sleeping Beauty" will be presented in December.

IT IS AGREED that Village Theatre has come a long way since presenting its first few plays ten years ago but the desire to present better drama and better directed plays has continued to plague the serious-minded members of the organization. As a result of this idea and desire, professional directors will be brought to this community for the express purpose of directing the 1959-60 season's plays.

To help support Village Theatre, Inc., Wilbur Pownall, vice president, has announced that the patron sales committees have been formed for the coming year. Patron membership to Village Theatre, which has been in existence for the past three years, is looked upon with favor by many. It is hoped that a new high in membership sales will be realized.

Mrs. F. L. Brooks is chairman of patron sales and may be reached at CLearbrook 3-8602. Not only does a membership assure reserved seats for members as well as their guests, but there is also considerable savings. Season tickets are $3.50 for each patron. The campaign for season tickets for patrons commences this week. (B8

LOWER (pronounced as louer); to frown; to look sullen; to be dark and threatening, as clouds. "Despite all our efforts to cheer him, he continued to sit alone and lower."

ROD STEIGER, who stars in the Burrows-Ackerman production of "Al Capone" for Allied Artists, is seen in an oil painting by Reynolds Brown. Fay Spain co-stars. The film is at the Des Plaines theatre starting Friday.

Pioneer Youths Reorganize

The Arlington Pioneer Youth Group has completed a reorganization of administrative personnel to handle the increased membership. Two new board members in the older group, Karen Stuart and Jay Busse, were appointed.

Some recent ideas considered by the board are a suggestion box at all dances.

Also plans are being made for special dances at Christmas and Valentine's Day. These ideas will have to be approved by the members at a general meeting, the date to be announced later.

In the meantime dances are scheduled for ages 12-14 August 15, and the older group ages 15 and over August 22. Admission is free. (A

Supervisor to Visit Local Kingdom Hall In August

William Narve, presiding minister of the Arlington Heights congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announces the semi-annual visit of the circuit supervisor Charles H. Rucker, during the week of August 25-30.

"The congregation anticipates a week of increased activity and spiritual benefit from Mr. Rucker's visit," Mr. Narve stated. The visit is described as part of an advanced training program for Jehovah's Witnesses. The activity scheduled is also designed to encourage more Bible discussions by people of all faiths in the community.

THE PROGRAM will begin Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. with a ministry training school after which Mr. Rucker will address the congregation on the matters pertaining to their ministry.

Wednesday through Sunday some time will be devoted to field missionary service each day. Mr. Rucker will join ministers from the local congregation in making calls on residents in the community. This is part of day. Mr. Rucker will join ministry and training program of Jehovah's Witnesses.

The Saturday evening program begins at 8 with a Bible question period, "New Things Learned," which consists of audience participation. A 30-minute discourse by Mr. Rucker dealing with counsel for improving one's personal ministry concludes the session.

HIGHLIGHT of the week comes Sunday at 4 p.m. when Mr. Rucker gives the public talk "What is the Divine Will for Our Day." The Witnesses are expecting a capacity attendance at their Kingdom Hall located at Pioneer Park, 500 S. Fernandez. Persons of goodwill are welcome and no collections are taken.

Closing the week's program at 6:15 p.m. Sunday, Mr. Rucker will offer instructions and encouragement to the Witnesses for their coming months activity. (B9

In Appreciation

IN MEMORIAM
Boesche, George—August 4, 1952
Seconds seem like minutes
Since you departed 7 years today
Sadness cloaks my heart
Without your presence, dear,
And find it hard to smile.
All things seem to be painted
With dreams I used to know;
Making believe you are here.
Loving wife Edna, children and grandchildren

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Herman Glade, who passed away on Aug. 6, 1958.
Your memory to us is a keepsake
With which we will never part.
Though God has you in his keeping
We always have you in our hearts.
Loving wife Selma and children

CARD OF THANKS
Our recent bereavement leaves us with grateful hearts toward neighbors and friends. Your helpfulness and comforting expressions of sympathy will always be remembered.
The family of the late Clara Busche

Commuters' Hero Hits Rail Timing

It's the principle that counts most with Vincent H. Egan, hero among fellow commuters on the Chicago and North Western railway.

Neither he nor 40,000 other riders on the line are getting home any earlier because of his battle for an honest timetable.

Yet he's everyone's hero for he singlehandedly took on the big railroad—and won.

AT A FULL dress complaint hearing before the Illinois Commerce Commission, the railroad conceeded Egan was right and promised to allow 27 minutes for Train No. 661 to reach the Edison Park station from the downtown Chicago terminal in the evening rush hour.

The railroad's posted schedule time for the run is 24 minutes and was printed in December when the carrier hiked fares, closed 22 stations, and dropped 26 trains. The railroad was granted permission to make these changes on the promise of better service.

Egan, who lives at 6463 N. Oxford ave., Chicago, is a motor equipment supervisor for an oil company. He filed a complaint with the commission when, with some regularity, Train No. 661 left downtown on time but was 8 to 10 minutes later in arriving at Edison Park.

THE RAILROAD with all of its experience should have known the train couldn't make the trip in 24 minutes, Egan said.

Railroad officials admitted at the hearing that a 24-minute run was impossible because No. 661 regularly was slowed three minutes by block signals.

So the next time a schedule is printed, No. 661 will be allowed 27 minutes to reach Edison Park.

Actually, it'll be a 32-minute run for about a year, maybe longer.

THE TRAIN is temporarily delayed the five minutes more by three "shoo-fly" by-passes around Northwest expressway construction work.

Egan, a North Western commuter for 25 years, said he'll put up with the extra five-minute delay caused by the construction work. The expressway projects are expected to be completed in about a year.

Men Must Adapt To New World

By LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

One of the most important differences between a man who is materially successful and one who is not is that the successful man is adaptable. He can be different; he can change.

One of the most fallable, and easiest things to do is to give way to our desires, emotions, and feelings, instead of directing them to our profit. It is easier to obey than to command, so most of us are in the working class. It is easier not to be a musician, so we do not try to become one. It is easier for a housewife to buy a loaf of bread than to bake one, so she buys ready baked bread. It is easier to hire a car repaired, so many men never learn the most simple things about repairing their cars.

UNFORTUNATELY, it is also easier for a man to take a drink than to refuse, so the majority of our people take a drink now and then. It is easier to follow the leader and become a habitual smoker than endure the embarrassment of being different, even with the connection now believed to be established between cancer and smoking.

A well known TV entertainer who gave up show business to sing for the Lord Jesus Christ at great loss in income, said over the radio that it is the cigarette that does the smoking, not the man or woman, boy or girl, who has it in his mouth. He or she is only the sucker. Yet millions of Americans are content to be suckers!

THE THINGS that people fight hardest to keep from changing are the things that count for so much. Most of us refuse to change habits which we know are bad. We refuse to change our manners, to control our tempers, stop taking God's name in vain, talking scandal, being jealous, learning to say prayers, accepting Christ as our Savior, living Christian lives—because we are afraid of change. Yet it is by changing that we grow. It is through the development of new ideas, new machines, new laws that our nation has grown to be the greatest in the world—yet how precious few people are responsible for the nation's success compared to the million who have been born, and have died, without making any mark in the world, because they feared to change their lives!

Announce Marriage Licenses

County Clerk Edward J. Barrett announced his office issued 856 marriage licenses last week, with the following among the couples obtaining them:

Dale Jensen, 1287 Prospect, Des Plaines, and Shirley Elliott, 2016 E. Thomas, Arlington Heights.

William Dempsey, 7N110 Willow rd., Roselle, and Marian Brady, 3525 N. Nora, Chicago.

Ralph Clarbour, 41 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and Millie Ferguson, 8817 S. Throop, Chicago.

Philip Gustafson, 1823 W. Lawrence, Chicago, and Sandra Kasen, 311 W. Hawthorne, Arlington Heights.

Jim Summers, 1012 Wilke, Arlington Heights, and Nancy Wilkinson, 918 Ioka ave., Mt. Prospect.

Rudi Prange, 1073 Oak, Winnetka, and Gisela Chemnitzer, 1175 Sanders rd., Northbrook.

Chester Twardzik, 2016 W. 21st st., Chicago, and Judith Ann Roddel, 131 Tower lane, Elk Grove.

William Stavropoulos, 144 Hill st., Mt. Prospect, and Patricia Lindgren, 1375 Whitcomb, Des Plaines.

Bus Firm Seeks Okay for Service

United Motor Coach has filed application to extend bus service to the new $7.2 million Maine Township High School West scheduled to open next month.

The bus line would extend its west side route in Des Plaines one-half mile south to the 63-acre school site at Wolf rd. and Oakton st. The route now terminates at Algonquin and Wolf rds.

A public hearing is to be scheduled by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

PLANNED BY United are 16 trips on six routes to the school between 7 and 8 a.m. and the same number of return trips between 3:10 and 4 p.m. The routes are west side, south side, Cumberland, O'Hare, Forest View and Norridge.

Also, regular round trip service would be furnished every 30 minutes on the west side run, says Elmer R. Schueman, superintendent of transportation for the company.

The regular and special school schedules would cover weekday operation only. Curtailed service to the school is planned for Saturdays, but not on Sundays.

Schueman estimated United will carry 1,800 passengers daily on the school runs. The new high school is expected to have an opening enrollment of 2,400, primarily from Des Plaines.

Students will use $1.25 weekly passes on United buses.

To Suburbia, With Love

For every person who elects to leave the suburbs and returns to city living, there are thousands who are overjoyed with their lot—and they have their brilliant spokesmen, too. We present Mr. Peter De Vries, ace satirist for The New Yorker, and author of such books as The Tunnel of Love, Comfort Me With Apples, and The Tents of Wickedness (the Book-Of-The-Month Club midsummer selection), who gives us his case for the suburbs.

Suburbia U.S.A. Goes To Moscow

Ted, Sally, Jeff, Jane, and Chuck Davis, of Short Hills, New Jersey, are now in Moscow, U.S.S.R., representing you at our national exhibition there. Just before they left for Russia we asked Ted Davis to tell us how, in their individual lives and in their life together, they are so well qualified to be named our "typical suburban family."

Our $12,500 Pool Cost Us $96

What began as wishful thinking on a hot summer afternoon has resulted in the realization of a long-cherished dream for the residents of Robindell, a Houston suburb. This month we see how true community spirit and the will to cooperate brought them a swimming center that cost each member under a hundred dollars—but that is priceless in terms of convenience and neighborliness.

Tall, Tasty, Terrific

You may not get around to making all of these frosty sodas and nectars and spicy delights this month, but you can have a wonderful time trying. In fact, just about the best way to give vent to that ex rer's urge on a hot August afternoon is to whip up Raspberry Fruit Punch, Tangy Refresher, or Hc style Peach Soda—and then settle back and enjc your own creation.

Laura Jean Allen

"Come on in, the water's fine," say our witty cover artist and her zany group of soggy suburbanites, as they splash about on our cover painting, all blissfully cooling their varying stages of sunburn.

Our $12,500 Cooperative

BY DON McCALE As Told To Cynthia Hope and Frances Ancker

OUR subdivision – Robindell, outside Houston—was like a thousand others around the country until we all decided to get together and turn it into a summer resort.

It all began on a hot afternoon with a Wishful Thinking Session. About six neighbors were standing around talking about how hot it was and how we envied people with swimming pools and what a refreshing dive in a nearby pool would mean to us after a couple of hours of car-washing or gardening.

My wife and I knew quite a bit about community swimming-pool projects around town, because we'd done a lot of investigating on the subject before we bought in Robindell. We knew the drawbacks all too well. We'd wanted to settle in a "pool community," but we'd soon discovered we couldn't afford the hidden pool tariff included in the cost of the lot in most pool communities. We'd also found that a good number of supposedly "free" swimming pools charged an admission fee for each member of the family for every swim of the season. If we multiplied this charge by the number of members of our family who would be paying individual admission, it was more than we could afford.

What we needed, we all agreed, was a pool and recreation center where somebody could watch all the kids, where the wives could sunbathe and where the husbands could go for a swim after work and on week ends.

Though our subdivision had been built on what was prairie land only a few years ago, a building boom had hit the area and land values had increased accordingly. We couldn't afford the land for our project. This was our biggest stumbling block.

We have one big advantage in Robindell. Our developer, Bob Kuldell, lives right in our subdivision and whatever problems we have, Bob shares, too.

They all wanted a big, beautiful swimming pool—none of them separately could afford to have one—but when they got together they had it made

Pool For $96

He knew that we wanted something better, cheaper, more workable than any pool plan any of us had yet seen. He sat down and thought up an idea that put our plan on the road to becoming a reality. It was unique. Then too, Bob was going to do something for all of us that would cost him money, rather than make a profit.

At any rate, he sent out a letter to all of us, letting us know that he would donate one acre of land in his wooded high-priced section, free, if we would form an association that would put up the money to build and manage a community pool.

We were on the way!

Bob then asked us to call a meeting, whereby we could go into details of cost and obligation. One man was picked from each street to canvass every house on his street and get an indication, by deposit of six dollars down, of just how much genuine interest there was in our pool project. A

This is the pool on a sunny, summer Sunday afternoon. Here author McCale leans casually against the tree as he surveys the active scene of fun and friendship, a true panorama of the American dream-come-true, and a far cry from the pre-pool days of wishful thinking.

New ways to make Italian Dressings no one can buy

...so easy with this GOOD SEASONS MIX

Now—5 different dressings with Italian Mix!

1. The basic dressing: Italian Mix makes a savory, garlic dressing. Garden herbs, flecks of onion and sweet red pepper blend their flavors into the golden smoothness. A fresh dressing—in the true Italian tradition—its light texture gently coats, never smothers, salad greens. To make it, just add your own oil, vinegar and a little water to the Mix. (The water, or a substitute liquid, is a continental secret. Makes a smoother blend!) Easy directions are on the Good Seasons envelope. Takes seconds.

2. Anchovy Dressing. Prepare basic dressing, substituting a 2-oz. can anchovy fillets (with oil), finely chopped, for the water. Just before final shaking of dressing add 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese. Men love this on green salads! Add toasted croutons for a simple Caesar salad—in seconds.

3. Piquant Slaw Dressing. Instead of water, use either mayonnaise or sour cream. Stir dressing into chopped cabbage for an unusually delicious slaw—colorful, full-flavored, quick.

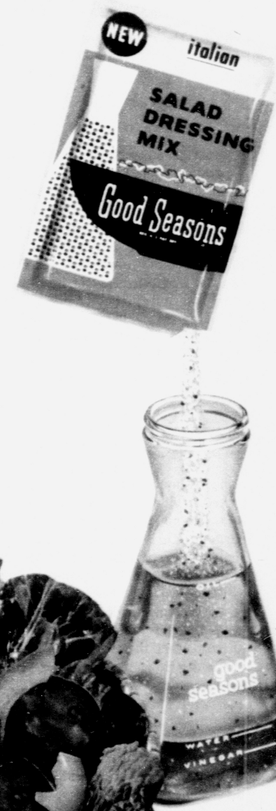
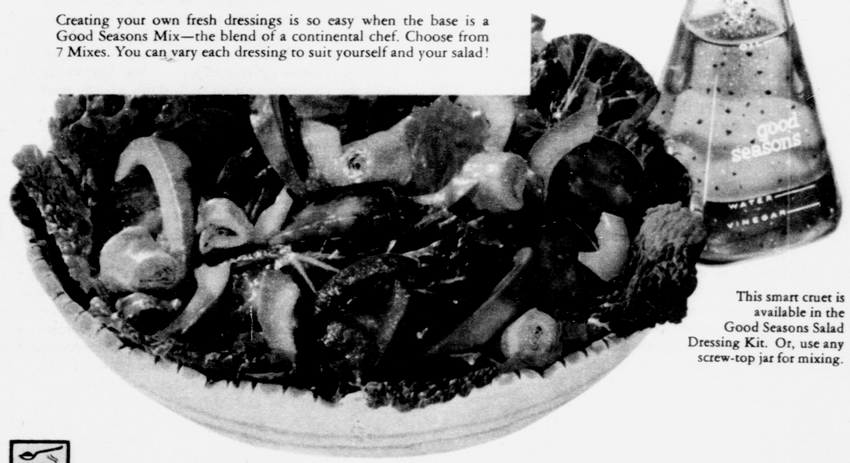
4. Olive-Vermouth Dressing. To make this, just substitute dry or sweet vermouth for the water. Just before final shaking, add 2 tablespoons of chopped olives—either the ripe or stuffed-green. A triumph on any tossed salad!

5. Vinaigrette Dressing for marinating. Substitute lemon juice for the vinegar. Last touch: add 3 tablespoons finely-chopped pickle. Marinate and chill cooked or canned vegetables in this tangy dressing for several hours. (Try carrots, beets, asparagus, beans, etc.) Serve on lettuce. A hearty, prepared-in-advance salad.

Creating your own fresh dressings is so easy when the base is a Good Seasons Mix—the blend of a continental chef. Choose from 7 Mixes. You can vary each dressing to suit yourself and your salad!





This smart cruet is available in the Good Seasons Salad Dressing Kit. Or, use any screw-top jar for mixing.

by Peter De Vries

Author of "Tunnel of Love"; "Comfort Me with Apples"; and "The Tents of Wickedness," a recent selection of the Book-Of-The-Month Club

The author with his six-year-old son who provides him with some of his best arguments for making his case for the suburbs. "In the city," as he observes, "it would have to be stickball in the street. Out here it can be on a lawn or in a pasture. That is one of the reasons why I like living here."

of this proves is that Mr. Weidman would be as big a fool to stay in the country as I would be to leave it. Just now at any rate. I cannot speak for my emotions five or ten years hence.

As of now, I like the trees and grass, as part of a context of living that I will simply call elbow room. I can just idle out of my front or back door, to smell the viburnum or to torment the dog by throwing his ball into the brush. For one used to this indoor-outdoor flexibility, a city apartment would be sheer prison. What a production it is to step outside in the city, on your own behalf or a dog's!

FOR all these advantages I pay the price – commuting. There is no use belittling that. There is no use glossing over the regimented morning: get up, dress, downstairs, gulp and away. And the equally regimented late afternoon: watch the clock, crouch to spring, and away. That is the price and it has to be paid in a kind of small-change tension that is always with you, Monday in and Friday out.

Enough. Between us, Mr. Weidman and I have offered enough data to join the issue, if not settle it. There have honestly been times when I felt as he does, and thought of moving back. One was an afternoon last spring when, on one of those impromptu impulses every married couple should be occasionally permitted, my wife and I decided we'd like to run in to the city and see a certain Off-Broadway opera. We couldn't get in. Or, rather, we couldn't get out —out of the country, I mean. It wasn't expense that balked us this time. It was a traffic jam of cars full of people wearing the same harried "Is it worth it?" expression of innumerable city-bound Weidmans and De Vrieses. It took me a minute to figure out who they were. They were a steady stream of urbanites, grinding along bumper to bumper, inch by inch, to see the dogwood in bloom along the Merritt Parkway, Greenfield Hill, and the road on which I live.

The De Vries on their terrace—"trees . . . grass . . . elbow room."

Remember Jerome Weidman last month on "Why I Am Leaving The Suburbs"? This month we are happy to present Mr. Weidman's former neighbor who speaks up for the other side

My Case For The

FROM the terrace on which I am framing these observations, I can see my six-year-old son playing in the back lot. He is wearing a Yankee uniform to which is affixed a large sheriff's badge. Thus clad, he is holding up the Wells Fargo people, until such time as I quit this nonsense and resume batting out fungos to him. In the city, this would have to be stickball in the street. Out here, it can be on a lawn or in a pasture. That is one of the reasons why I like living here. There are others even triter.

I love to smell viburnum in the dooryard after dinner. I love that fountain of red and green called flowering quince, that crowd of little Rorschach faces in the pansy bed. I long, when the red-leather leaves of the sour gum have vanished and her boughs are bare, to see them feathered once again with falling snow. I love to watch Wakeman's pond freeze over, and when it has, go skating on it. I love to skate alone by moonlight, or with my children; or when I have tired of these pleasures, with some pretty girls who sometimes show up there, one of whom is a beginner and who clings to me as though I were an analyst. I urge playing baseball over going to see the Yankees and I recommend skating above a trip to the Icecapades.

If I defend the country in the winter, who will do as much for the city in the summer? From June to September most cities are ovens, the devotees of which are nowhere to be seen. They are all down at the beach or in the mountains, cooling their heads over a tall one. Those doomed to remain behind have no refuge but a droning air conditioner, a movie, or a municipal beach or swimming pool. There they lie, in a horrible togetherness, under the beating sun, with or without suntan lotion, depending on whether they want to be broiled or merely sautéed. By this time I am nut-brown, and can have my choice of maple shade or a nearby quiet beach. It isn't a very good beach—a mile of shore with more rocks than a prison workyard and less sand than a peck of spinach—but lying on one of those pneumatic rafts on which Gatsby lost his life, I am all right. There I sprawl, reading "The Enemy Camp" and drinking Vichyssoise through a straw. Pretty decadent, what? (Sort of an urban sprawl.)

No one need remind me that the physical and financial costs of coming by all these blessings constitute me a fool. But modern man is a fool no matter where he lives. A suburban father eating carrots that, after adding up the soil food, garden tools and rabbit fencing, cost him fifteen cents apiece is a ludicrous figure. So is a man in a taxi proceeding downtown at half the speed of the pedestrians flanking him on either side. The woman in The New Yorker who asked her friend, "Shall we walk or do we have time to take a cab?" was not kidding. And there are millions like her.

MR. Jerome Weidman, in the thrilling screed with which he brightened these pages recently, reminds us that the historic drive of mankind is toward the city. He is right.

Then why is it that our greatest city has lost almost a hundred thousand in the last decade or so, a decline of over one percent in the population when the population in general is going up?

By now it is clear that this argument is senseless, as well as endlessly protractible. It is time I reminded us of the simple thing it all boils down to—you pays your money and you takes your choice. Or to put them in their proper order, you takes your choice and pays your money. I too, like Mr. Weidman, have spent sixty bucks going in to the theatre and to Yankee Stadium. But if no dramatic entertainment I have recently seen struck me as worth sixty bucks, neither is it worth sixteen, which is what a pair of Saturday-night tickets will cost him, and which will comprise his total outlay provided he dines at home and lives next door to the playhouse. The theatre has priced itself out of my custom, leaving me where it found me, a movie fan. But there is no film I want to see that doesn't eventually reach the hometown movie theatre. So for me this problem is academic.

Others are not, however, and the parts of Mr. Weidman's remarks I found most telling were those that echoed regrets for the city lodged deep in my own breast. Most of us are not simon-pure country types at all, but hybrids, like the things we grow. If my baseball and ice-skating references leave the impression that I am a simple outdoor type, I must hasten to correct it. I am sedentary and complicated. There are times when the only exercise I get is slapping midges, and the only exercise I get at all regularly is walking. The bulk of that is done in the city streets during my lunch hour or between business appointments, I freely admit. You cannot walk on country roads—too many cars whizzing by, with, what is worse, every seventh one stopping to ask whether you want a lift. None of this is simple, citizens. Walking is one of the pleasures you give up—not gain—when you move to the country.

These are a few threads in the tangled skein of pros and cons out of which every man must make his own sense, pursuing his own tastes. That's what it all comes down to in the end—your personal tastes. If you like hollyhocks, come to the country. If what you want is ham hocks, stick close to the Blue Ribbon on 44th Street in Manhattan, or to the Red Star Inn on North Clark Street in Chicago.

I gnash my teeth with Mr. Weidman over what it costs to take my family in for a day of fun and food in the city. And there are times in the morning when, as I lie in bed listening to the song sparrows, thrushes and yellow-bellied sapsuckers that have awakened me, I miss the whistle—sharp, clear, distinct—of the double-breasted doorman.

BUT if I have city hankerings, there is no evidence in Mr. Weidman's valedictory that he has country ones. There is no reason why he should. I know people who hate foliage. I believe it was one of the French novelists who detested nature with its constant leaf-mold reminders of the fertilizer to which he would himself one day be reduced. A counterpart of this would be the melancholy evocations, on urban boulevards, of Nineveh and Tyre. All that any

WHEN this copy of your SUBURBIA TODAY reaches you, we, the Davis family of Short Hills, New Jersey, will be in Moscow as part of the American National Exhibition – and all because we are a typical American suburban family.

Our mission in Moscow is to be ourselves. Three or four times a day we will make our appearance under the enormous translucent plastic umbrellas of the Exhibition building in Sokolniki Park, showing off business clothes and play clothes and party clothes and blue jeans (the kind of clothes we wear every day, in other words) in the U.S. Fashion Industries' presentation of how Americans dress. We have learned enough Russian to be able to tell our audiences who we are in their equivalent of words of one syllable, and from there, Russian-speaking fashion expert Vera Bacal goes on to describe how we live and what we do in our sensational – to their eyes – blue jeans and drip-dry business suits and happy-go-lucky sun dresses.

How It All Started

This assignment had its beginning in Short Hills on a typical week-day morning last April. The kids, one by one, had banged their way down the stairs, clattered through breakfast, grabbed their books, and started for school. With less uproar I had also breakfasted, kissed my wife, Sally, good-bye, and gone off to work in the city. When the front door closed for the last time Sally looked about her. Laundry day, and five beds to strip and make up. Marketing. My suits to go to the cleaner's. Our daughter had a music lesson at three; one boy would have to be chauffeured to the dentist at four; the other had a Little League game at 5:30; Sally's report was due for the P.T.A.; there was fertilizer to be picked up for the roses; we had people coming for dinner; and when in the middle of this day was anything going to be done about touching up the house or getting the winter clothes ready to put away?

"It all looked so impossible," Sally told me later, "I just sat down on the sofa and had another cup of coffee and started reading the paper."

Such moments of defiance, I believe, are known once in a while to most suburban wives on days when the load, as the electricians say, gets too heavy for the circuit.

As Sally went through the paper, she noticed a story on the Fashion Industries' plans for the exhibition in Moscow. To show the Russians how Americans dress, they were going to send over some professional models, and some glamorous fashions from the big designers, but they were also going to select three typical families who would show the clothes that average Americans wear every day.

All her life Sally has been interested in fashion – she graduated from the Tobe-Coburn School of Fashion – and she read the whole story with care. The Fashion Industries had decided to pick, for their three typical families, a workingman's family, a family with a working mother, and a suburban family.

The typical suburban family was defined in very general terms – "a certain income bracket, more than one child, a commuting husband, and, of course, a home in the suburbs."

The Committee Says Yes

That more or less describes us all, doesn't it? As she read the paper at home on that April morning Sally suddenly asked herself, "Why aren't we the typical suburban family?" And the next minute she was on the telephone asking to speak to the reporter who had written the column. The reporter suggested she get in touch with Eleanor Lambert, Fashion Publicist. Miss Lambert's office told her she could get an appointment in the city with the selections committee at three o'clock that same afternoon, and from that point on, Sally picked up speed. Laundry was rushed into a bundle–with no list, she reported later–a "sitter" was engaged for the afternoon's chauffeuring, a sandwich was made for Chuck, our youngest, and left on the kitchen table with a note saying "Have gone to the city–see you after school," marketing was done by telephone, and Sally left for New York and her three-o'clock interview. While she was with the selections committee she saw Leonard Hankin, vice-president of Bergdorf Goodman, who had been appointed by the White House to head the Fashion Industries' part of the Exhibition. She showed him snapshots of all of us, and the house in Short Hills, and told him why she felt we qualified, and when she left she had an application blank for us to fill out.

Before she started for home, she called me at the office. The conversation went like this:

Sally: Could you get six weeks off to go to Moscow?

Me: Where ARE you?

Sally: In New York.

Me: What about the kids?

Sally: We'll take them along.

Me: Are you all right?

We went ahead and filled out the applications and the next week the committee asked the whole family to come into the city and be interviewed, and in we went, five strong. They had many other candidates, of course, but to our complete joy they finally chose us, because, I guess, we are so typical.

To begin with, we own our own house–at least, we and the bank do. But the time is coming when we will nose the bank out, just as the time is coming when we will root the last clump of crab grass out of the front lawn. We are not one bit worried about what is happening to the lawn this summer, incidentally. I put so much weed killer on it last spring that nothing can struggle through the scorched earth this season. No lawn-mowing problem.

Our Typical Features

We have three children. The statistics for the typical suburban family call for 3.4, but we are very pleased with the round number we have. First there is Jeff, age 15, a sophomore at Millburn High School, and an Explorer Scout. He plays the drums in the school band, baseball on the Junior Varsity, and is working toward his senior life-saver's badge at the "Y". If we weren't in Moscow this summer Jeff, hopefully, would have had a paid job, taking care of the neighbors' lawns or helping out at one of the stores.

Jane comes next, three years younger than Jeff. She is in the seventh grade at Junior High and is a Girl Scout. She asked to have piano lessons and practices of her own accord and, this we have to admit, is not very typical of most twelve-year-olds we know. She

The Dreamy Age Has Come

A tranquilizer for plants that helps them stand up to such weather strains as light frost, drouth, heavy rain and long periods of heat was reported Monday . . . (News item)

The dreamy age has come when plants of low and lofty rank will Stand up to weather strains and other woes, relaxed and tranquil.

From radish to sequoia and from crocus to banana
The architects of chlorophyl receive the chemist's manna.

No more will frost or drouth or rain or heat or gloom of night
Give beans and berries complexes, see sumac shake with fright,

Find pansies and petunias tense and restless in their beds
Or cabbages and Brussels sprouts with maladjusted heads.

Potatoes will go underground without a guilt fixation
And eye their salad days with only minor trepidation.

The cherry tree will cease to chafe when robins rob its bough.
The high-strung grape will face its pressing problems calmly now.

In new docility the thistle, rose and desert cactus
Will sheathe the thorns with which they once so pointedly attacked us.

The corn will be resigned to shock; the willow won't be weepy.
My luncheon greens were sedative. Adieu, adieu—I'm sleepy.

The cars that are sold off trucks

Since the new SIMCA Elysee sedan and Grand Large hardtop were introduced, it's been hard to keep enough of them around for display. Time after time, new SIMCAs are sold before they're off the truck.

But why not? Obviously, no imported economy car is as tastefully designed. It's well known that SIMCA is the longest, widest, heaviest, and most powerful of all leading imports. And as for value, there's no contest at all. Heater, defroster, luxurious reclining seats, automatic choke, and automatic turn signals are standard equipment.

And SIMCA's front engine design provides a degree of driving stability that's absolutely uncanny. Speed Age magazine said: "SIMCA's fantastic road-holding ability is second to none." What do you say? Have you tested the new SIMCA yet? How about today?

TYPICAL SUBURBAN FAMILY

is crazy about music and sings in the choir of Christ Episcopal Church and in the seventh grade girls' chorus.

Chuck, at 10, is our youngest, a fourth grader, Cub Scout, and third baseman in the Little League. It was Chuck who consoled his grandmother when she started worrying about all of us going so far away.

"It's not so far, Grandma," he said. "Just think, some day we'll be going to the moon."

All our children were born while Sally was still under thirty—that's according to the statistics, too.

Sally and I were both born and brought up in the suburbs outside Cleveland, Sally in Painesville, and I in Shaker Heights. Typically, again, we have made three moves in our married life, from Shaker Heights to Smoke Rise in New Jersey, and from there to Short Hills. We have only been in Short Hills for three years, but we feel more settled than we could have expected in that short period of time. The kids are busy – oh, how busy – with school and homework and baseball and the scouts and choir practice. Sally is active in P.T.A., teaches Sunday School, is beginning golf, and last winter joined the Gourmet cooking class in Millburn's adult education program – from which we've all derived great benefit. I commute to the city five days a week where I am an advertising salesman for "Architectural Forum". Outside office hours I've been a leader in the Explorer Scouts, and an usher at Christ Church where Jane sings. I'm a diligent, but not brilliant gardener and an amateur photographer, and I am still trying to break 100 in golf.

On week ends our great fun is doing things together. We all love skating and swimming and we're all devoted hi-fi fans.

The pattern, we know, is familiar. If the Russians want to know what typical suburban Americans are like, they have only to look about them now. We hope they are going to like what they see and we need hardly say that we feel greatly privileged to be able to do our part in showing "the true image of America," as President Eisenhower said, "to the people of the Soviet Union."

But it's an even greater privilege, we think, to be so typical of the way of life 47,000,000 Americans have chosen for themselves. And we will all five be glad when September comes, and we can take up where we left off in Short Hills, New Jersey.

A sophomore has lots of homework – Jeff's father took this familiar view of his older son, drumsticks reluctantly laid aside, the math and history ready and waiting.

Sally Davis loves to garden–her specialties are roses and lilies and delphinium, and later in the summer begonias, which she raises in a border bed in their small lot.

Here's a man who thinks about the game–Chuck Davis, third baseman in local Little League.

The Frost is on the Glass

Chill the tall glasses, follow the easy directions,
for shining fruit drinks,
for a double coffee cooler that will lift the August commuter right off his feet,
for the best ice-cream soda
that was ever made at home

DOUBLE COFFEE COOLER

To Prepare: 15 MIN.

1 cup chocolate-flavored nonfat dry milk
2 teaspoons instant coffee
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
2 cups cold water
2 ripe bananas, sieved
1 cup cream
4 teaspoons vanilla extract

1. Blend together thoroughly all ingredients. Chill.
2. Pour over Frozen Coffee Cubes in glasses and allow cubes to partially melt before serving. Top each serving with your favorite topping and garnish with chocolate shavings. About 1 qt.

For Frozen Coffee Cubes – Blend thoroughly: 1½ cups chocolate-flavored nonfat dry milk, 1 tablespoon instant coffee, 2¼ cups water. Pour into refrigerator tray with dividers. Freeze until firm. (Extra coffee cubes may be stored in freezer for future use.)

TANGY REFRESHER

To Prepare: 20 MIN.

1½ cups water
½ cup sugar
1 1-in. piece crystallized ginger
1 3-in. piece stick cinnamon
6 whole cloves
Peel from 1 lemon, rinsed and quartered
¼ cup orange granules for instant breakfast drink
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 12-oz. bottle sparkling water, chilled

1. Combine first five ingredients in a saucepan. Set over low heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Bring to boiling. Reduce heat, cover, and simmer 15 min. Remove from heat and add lemon peel; cool. Chill thoroughly. Strain.
2. Blend together thoroughly the orange granules, lemon juice, and sirup. Add the sparkling water and blend. Pour over ice cubes or crushed ice in glasses. Or pour into a punch bowl and float a decorative ice block. About 3½ cups

Note: If desired, freeze refresher until mushy. Spoon into chilled glasses and serve with straws.

SPICY ICED TEA

To Prepare: 25 MIN.

1 cup cold water
1 cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground nutmeg
6 whole cloves
4 2-in. pieces stick cinnamon
4 cups freshly drawn cold water
3 tablespoons loose tea or 8 prepared tea bags

1. Combine first six ingredients in a saucepan having a tight-fitting cover. Set over low heat; stir until sugar is dissolved. Cover and simmer 20 min. Remove from heat; strain and set aside to cool. Chill thoroughly.
2. Bring 2 cups of the cold water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and immediately add the tea; stir. Let tea brew, uncovered, 5 min. Stir and strain into a pitcher containing the remaining cold water. Blend in the spiced sirup.
3. Pour into ice-filled glasses. Serve with thin slices or wedges of lemon, orange, or lime. About 1 qt.

ICED TEA WITH LIMEADE CUBES

Follow recipe for Spicy Iced Tea for method of preparing tea only. Omit the spiced sirup. Reconstitute 1 6-oz. can frozen limeade concentrate according to directions on container. Pour into refrigerator tray with dividers. Freeze until firm. Pour tea over limeade cubes and garnish with sprigs of fresh mint.

LEMON-CRANBERRY NECTAR

To Prepare: 10 MIN.

1 cup chilled cranberry juice cocktail
¾ cup chilled apricot nectar
1 6-oz. can frozen lemonade concentrate (do not reconstitute)

Mix together the cranberry juice, apricot nectar, and water. Stir in lemonade concentrate until melted. Pour into tall glasses over ice cubes or crushed ice. For an attractive garnish, carefully insert a wooden pick horizontally through straws. Impale fresh ripe strawberries on each end of wooden pick. About 3¼ cups

LEMONADE DELIGHT

To Prepare: 15 MIN.

1⅓ cups sugar
1 cup water
1½ tablespoons grated lemon peel
2 cups lemon juice (about 12 lemons)
½ cup orange juice (about 2 oranges)
Cold water

1. Combine sugar and water in a small saucepan having a tight-fitting cover. Set over medium heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Cover, bring to boiling, and boil 5 min. Remove from heat and set sirup aside to cool.
2. Mix together the grated lemon peel, lemon juice, and orange juice. Chill.
3. When sirup is cooled, blend with the fruit-juice mixture. Cover and store in refrigerator until ready to use.
4. To serve, put ice cubes or crushed ice into tall glasses. Add about ½ cup of the lemon sirup to each glass. Fill glasses with cold water. Stir until blended. Garnish with whole strawberries, pineapple chunks, and fresh mint. 8 servings

CANTALOUPE-PINEAPPLE-GRAPEFRUIT DRINK

To Prepare: 10 MIN.

2 cups diced ripe cantaloupe
¼ cup sugar
2 tablespoons lime juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Few grains salt
1 12-oz. can pineapple-grapefruit juice drink, chilled (about 1½ cups)

1. Put into a blender container the first five ingredients. Cover and blend thoroughly.
2. Add the fruit drink and blend thoroughly.
3. To serve, pour over ice cubes or crushed ice in chilled glasses. About 3 cups

CANTALOUPE PINEAPPLE DRINK

Follow recipe for Cantaloupe-Pineapple-Grapefruit Drink. Substitute unsweetened pineapple juice for pineapple-grapefruit drink. Increase lime juice to 3 tablespoons.

RASPBERRY FRUIT PUNCH

To Prepare: 10 MIN.

No slicing, no squeezing . . . here is a quick fruit punch to make in quantity to refresh a gathering of thirsty teen-agers or for that matter – thirsty parents.

3 env. raspberry-flavored soft-drink powder
3 env. grape-flavored soft-drink powder
2¼ cups sugar
6 qts. water
3 6-oz. cans frozen pineapple-orange juice concentrate (do not reconstitute)
1½ teaspoons red food coloring
½ teaspoon almond extract
12 7-oz. bottles lemon-lime flavored carbonated beverage, chilled

1. Mix together in a large bowl the soft-drink powders and sugar. Add water gradually, stirring constantly until sugar and powders are completely dissolved.
2. Stir in the pineapple-orange juice concentrate, food coloring, and almond extract; stir until well blended. Chill thoroughly.
3. Just before serving, pour in the chilled lemon-lime beverage; stir to blend. If desired, a decorative ice block may be floated in the punch. About 8 qts. punch

HOME-STYLE RASPBERRY-PEACH SODA

Vigorously stir 2 or 3 spoonfuls of vanilla ice cream with a small amount of sparkling water. Add a spoonful each of thawed frozen peaches and raspberries. Fill glasses three-fourths full with sparkling water. Stir gently. Top with a scoop of ice cream and more peaches and raspberries.

"Topline Farm"

1784-1959

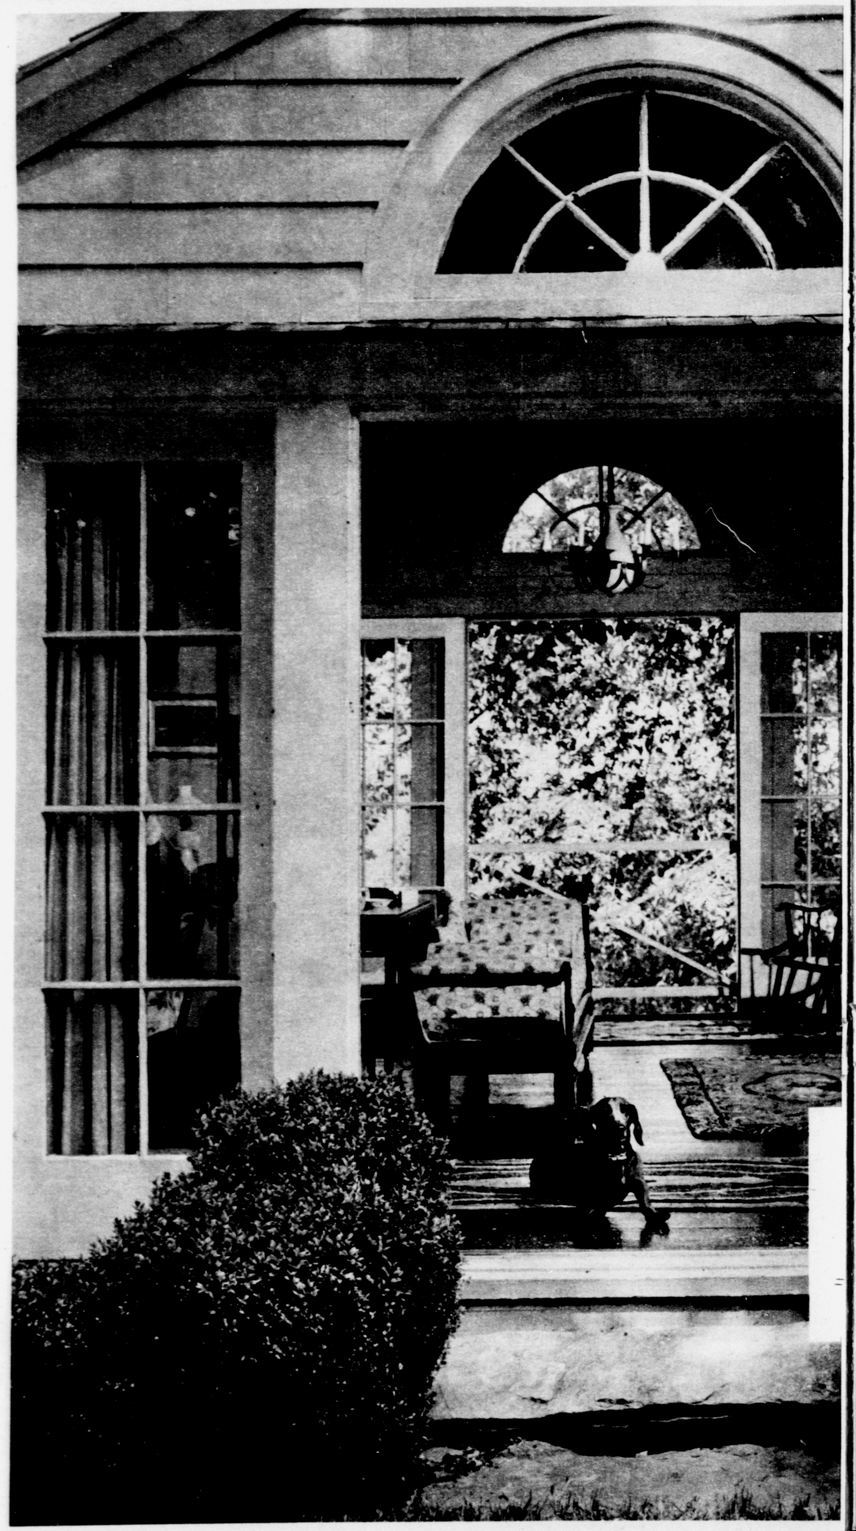
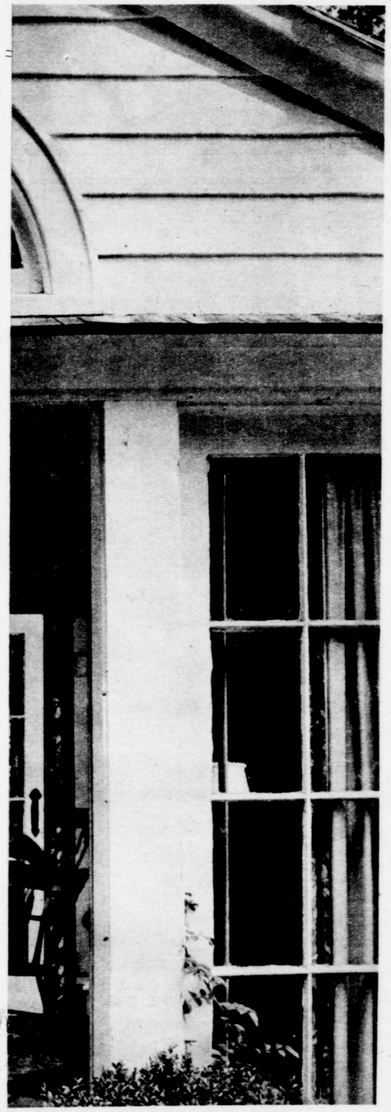
Fifteen miles outside the industrial town of Danbury, Connecticut, Katherine Wheelen's "Topline Farm" is still a working farm where a herd of registered Brown Swiss cattled graze on the steep slopes that run into the Litchfield Hills. The character of the stern little original house has been lovingly preserved—wide floor boards, thick walls, plain fireplaces that stretch the width of the rooms, and at the same time the place has been opened up with wings and galleries and big graceful windows for a joyous communication with the out of doors. Here truly are "improvements," where new life and new ideas have served to make the old more beautiful.



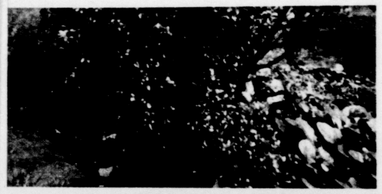
The house is set in a series of gardens—in this one the pool is the main feature, framed in the green of lawn and hedges.



Left: You enter the blue and lilac sitting room at ground level, look out through the opposite window into the tops of the trees below.

The original house—like the venerable maple overhead, it has gone far since the wilderness was cleared in 1784, but all the additions have been carefully planned and keyed to its dignity and simple charm.

One of the new wings—note the treatment of the picture window, to make it suit the style of the house.



Above, the front facade. "Topline Farm" had six small rooms when Mrs. Wheelan bought it—now there are twenty, filled with air and light and flowers, and beautiful views into her gardens and over the distant hills.

task. In these albums he has recorded two major sonatas, impromptus, a barcarolle, nocturne, and scherzo, two polonaises, a fantaisie and ballade. A wonderful selection making the most of the great master's versatility. First rate. (London)

CALLAS PORTRAYS VERDI HEROINES – The controversial mezzo-soprano sings the great arias from Macbeth, Don Carlo, Ernani and Nabucco. The Callas voice in all its splendor. (Angel)

BRAHMS: HUNGARIAN DANCES; DVORAK: SLAVONIC DANCES – The Bamberg Symphony has been growing in stature. An example is this polished rendering of romantic gypsy-like music, played with the fire intended by the composer. (Vox)

NATHAN MILSTEIN: FOUR ITALIAN SONATAS – The world-renowned violinist plays Italian baroque sonatas by Vivaldi, Tartini, Geminiani and Corelli. Improvisation by the artist adds to the delicate beauty of the original. (Capitol)

DESTRY RIDES AGAIN – On Decca, comic Andy Griffith as "Destry," spicy Dolores Gray as "Frenchy," and a large cowboy chorus sing the score that made this show a hit. Another spectacular of the season, GYPSY, features Ethel Merman. The life of Gypsy Rose Lee set to song is a natural for Merman. The lyrics are brassy and the music is red-hot. (Col.)

I'LL SING YOU A THOUSAND LOVE SONGS–Reg Owen and his big orchestra in an evening of music. "A Kiss In The Dark" and "Secret Love" are two out of a group of new and old melodies. (RCA)

SOME LIKE IT HOT–Smooth West Coast jazz by bass guitarist Barney Kessel and a small but distinguished 7-piece combo. Includes "Sweet Georgia Brown," "Sugar Blues," and "Running Wild." (Contemporary)

MIKADO–A jazz interpretation by Freddie Gambrell. The 19th-century comic operetta in the hands of this competent pianist becomes doubly funny, especially the favorite songs, "Tit Willow," "Flowers That Bloom" and "The Lord High Executioner." (World Pacific)

BLUE SPRING–The Kenny Dorham Septet featuring Cannonball Adderley. Kenny is an imaginative musician, one of the rising stars of the trumpet, and the horns are given a real showing here. (Riverside)

BOOKS

AMERICA'S widely read "cracker barrel" philosopher-newspaper man has heeded the universal cry for "More"! In his second book, FOR 2¢ PLAIN, Mr. Golden continues his comment on life in general—from nostalgic East Side New York to his travels through all the states. Everything that happens to and around him is preserved with fresh observation and an understanding heart. (World, $4.00)

SWIMMING POOLS—If you want to be "in the swim", this book, full of clear, lively photos and diagrams, will be a tremendous help. For home pools that cost between $2,000 and $6,000, there is information on proper location, size and shape, types of construction to be used, landscape and entertaining features, and maintenance and off-season care. (Lane, $1.95)

THE ART OF LLEWELLYN JONES—An unusual story of a Washington lawyer who abandons his well-regulated life and his domineering wife. He changes his identity and disappears successfully. Excellent character sketches and suspense by author Paul Hyde Bonner. (Scribner's, $4.50)

THE TENTS OF WICKEDNESS—Peter De Vries has found a new formula for one of the funniest books he ever wrote. Parodying a dozen different authors and poets, he changes his style from Proust to Fitzgerald to Thurber to Hemingway and so on, and with every change, the hero gets stuck deeper. (Little, Brown, $3.75)

CALIFORNIA STREET—Life of a San Francisco newspaper tycoon, Anchylus Saxe, from rags to riches, told by Niven Busch. Hungry for success, Saxe married into society, built a splendid house, expressed himself freely in his daily editions, and gave the finest education to his daughters. With all his success, his personal life is a failure, and in the end even his daughters turn against him. An absorbing book. (Simon and Schuster, $4.50)

THE LIGHT INFANTRY BALL—Hamilton Basso writes again about his southern town, Pompey's Head, at the time of the Civil War. Fascinating picture of the undaunted Bottomley family and the South's struggle to rebuild. (Doubleday, $3.95)

INVASION '44—A detailed account of the coordinated events that led to the Normandy invasion. Beginning with the British disaster at Dunkirk four years earlier, John Frayn Turner takes the reader from the highest Allied councils to the men who launched the assault. (Putnam, $3.95)

PAY, PACK AND FOLLOW—A rigorous trek from Colorado to Montana to Alaska with an engineer husband is the abundant source of Inglis Fletcher's autobiography. A lively record by a lady whose curiosity and zest for new experience seem boundless. (Holt, $4.50)

GREAT SEA STORIES and GREAT TALES OF ACTION AND ADVENTURE are in this month's Dell Laurel editions, with selections from Saki, Jack London, Joshua Slocum, Conan Doyle and others. (35¢) . . . VOLTAIRE, from "Candide" to "Princess of Babylon" . . . THE HOUSE OF THE DEAD by Dostoyevsky. (50¢)

BEN HUR—A mighty tale of an escaped Roman galley slave who rose to wealth and power, won the chariot race in Antioch, and in the greatest crisis of his life tried to save Christ from the Cross. By Lew Wallace. (Cardinal & Signet, 50¢)

BROTHER JUNIPER—A loveable character known as "Sunbeams in Burlap" is created by Father Justin McCarthy. Pages of cartoons and chuckling comment. (Pocket, 25¢)

SAFE CONDUCT—A wonderful collection of short stories and poems by Boris Pasternak. Included is a section from his autobiography, "Safe Conduct," recalling his formative years. (Signet, 50¢)

MAGGIE-NOW – Betty Smith's richly human story of a young Irish immigrant couple. Pat Dennis and Maggie-Now take the readers back to the melting-pot days of East New York. (Bantam, 50¢)

EDNA ST. VINCENT MILLAY: COLLECTED LYRICS and SONNETS—Two fine volumes of poetry just out in Pocket Books. (50¢)

MOVIES

THE HORSE SOLDIERS—Civil War drama with huge cast headed by John Wayne and Bill Holden as two Union officers. The story concerns a small railroad station inside Rebel territory which had to be captured to open a vital supply line.

BLUE DENIM—Based on the Broadway success about two naive adolescents who get into trouble, but don't know how to get out of it because of their inability to communicate with their parents. Carol Lynley repeats her stage performance, supported by Brandon de Wilde.

A PRIVATE'S AFFAIR—Shows what can happen if an army private is married to the Assistant Secretary of the Army. A fast-moving comedy headed by Barry Coe and Jessie Royce Landis. Also included are Terry Moore and draftees Sal Mineo and Gary Crosby.

IT STARTED WITH A KISS—One of the wackiest comedies of the year, all about a stone-broke master sergeant and an ambitious showgirl who becomes his wife after a 24-hour courtship. Glenn Ford and Debbie Reynolds head the cast and are supported by Eva Gabor.

CRY TOUGH—A new twist to the old gang-warfare theme in New York's Puerto Rican section. Fine performances by John Saxon, Linda Cristal and Harry Townes.

PORGY AND BESS—Our great American opera has reached the wide open spaces of Todd-AO. Catfish Row comes to life again in the screen version of Gershwin's story of the handsome crippled beggar's love for the girl friend of a swaggering stevedore. Sidney Poitier and Dorothy Dandridge star in the title roles, and Sammy Davis, Jr. is the slick crap-shooting Sportin' Life. Music from the sound track released by Columbia Records includes such songs as "Summertime" and "It Ain't Necessarily So."

RECORDS

HIGHLIGHTS of grand operas are now available on single disc albums. Notable are Mozart's THE MAGIC FLUTE and COSI FAN TUTTE. Both are recorded by the Vienna Philharmonic (London). The major arias are chosen from the best of the full length recordings, making a fine short item for all opera lovers.

BRAHMS: VIOLIN CONCERTO – Yehudi Menuhin is the soloist with the Berlin Philharmonic in a brilliant performance of Brahms' challenging work. The optional cadenza of the first movement, in this arrangement, is the one composed by Fritz Kreisler. (Capitol)

MUSIC FOR FRUSTRATED CONDUCTORS—You can be your own maestro, conducting the "Sabre Dance," and "Intermezzo from Carmen." The Fiedler Orchestra is there, and they give you a baton to wave. You need only courage to complete this do-it-yourself kit. (RCA)

Swimming Pool For $96

whopping 50% of the 450 families put down their six dollars and indicated that they'd be willing to pay the $60 initiation fee, plus just $30 per year dues for the entire family, however big the family, and six dollars per year tax. It was much less than the average family would invest in a summer vacation, and would provide summer recreation for the entire family.

Everybody In The Act

Our first meeting was called in the A&P store parking area on Sunday, July 1, 1956. Officers were elected. I was chosen, with eleven others, to serve on the board. We made one happy discovery. There were experts among us who could help in almost every phase of planning. Scott Stubbs, our first president, was a consulting engineer. R. K. Hutton, an accountant, could help us figure our costs. Secretary of our group, R. E. Lewis, happened to be an attorney. We had the district manager of an electrical supply company who agreed to get our pool lighting at cost. There was even a tax expert among us! This was how we discovered, early in the game, that we could save a lot in taxes by chartering our Association as a non-profit corporation "organized for the purpose of operating a swimming pool and social club for the sole benefit of members." We secured sample charters from almost every state in the union, and from many corporations which employed Robindell residents. We picked the best and most adaptable features from these and included them in the Robindell Recreation Association's charter.

We then needed a pool contractor. How to find the right one? We consulted the yellow pages of the telephone directory, and invited all to submit bids. They varied widely. The low bid saved us $2,000!

Our accountant then sat down and figured the pool would cost us about $12,500. It would accommodate 750 families or 3,000 people. The Gunite-sprayed pool was to be built so it could be expanded into a competition-sized pool for an additional $3,000 to $4,000 when funds became available.

Bob Kuldell then donated the land, worth $5,000. We thanked him by giving him 40 memberships which he could offer to new residents in homes then being built. This covered his cost for the land.

Raising The Ante

After many coffee klatches (the coffee tab ran high!) we just went ahead and plunged. If we had it to do over, we'd have got our construction cost in the bank before we started, as a contractor has to be paid in full and if our obligations couldn't be met, a mechanic's lien could be obtained against us. As it was, we just began a house-to-house campaign to collect the balance of the $96.00 from each for initiation fees and first year's dues needed to finance the project. While 250 families had already paid the six dollars indicating they'd go along with the $96.00 tax to finance costs, only 105 came through!

Everybody in the entire subdivision seemed suddenly to be expanding his family, and money was tight. Those who weren't, seemed to be buying new carpeting or hi-fi, with no money left over. What to do? We decided to approach the bank for a loan. But we were a non-profit organization, and that made us a bad risk. The only way we could secure the loan, we discovered, was for three of us to sign the note and make ourselves responsible. We did—and it was a decision that none of us has ever regretted.

Because of our developer's cooperative spirit, our Association now owns its land in fee and its pool in entirety, with no ties to the developer. Its all ours and its all really quite wonderful!

Operation Success

Use of the pool includes free swimming lessons by American Red Cross instructors. We could have cut corners on paying salaries to instructors, since they range from about $200 to $400 per month. But we got the best, and it has paid off. Some of our kids who were non-swimmers two years ago walked off with ninth place among sixteen veteran teams in the Junior Olympics recently—and there hasn't been a single accident in the pool. We operate it seven days a week during the swimming season and keep it open until 9 p.m. to give late-working residents a chance for a dip before dinner. Wednesday nights, from seven until nine, we restrict the pool to adults to give parents time to themselves.

Our operating cost, during the swimming season runs to about $1000 per month, and we have taken out a $50,000 liability insurance policy which costs the Association only $70 per year.

It would be overly modest not to admit that our pool is an unqualified success. We've constructed $800 worth of rest rooms with redwood siding and slab floors. We've bought an $859.76 enclosure and furnished the area with $200.66 worth of outdoor tables and chairs. We have more than 250 memberships and could sell more to surrounding communities if we wished to do so. The pool has increased the resale value of all our houses, and if we care to sell our pool memberships when we sell our property, it's a cinch to do so.

When we need extra funds, the community spirit which the pool has helped to build so successfully, can be used to raise money through dances, raffles, and other activities.

The Robindell pool is a good plan for luxury living on a budget income. It offers new friends, new fun, and a ready-made vacation spot right in our own backyard—just about the biggest $96.00 worth we could hope to find!
